Paul Newman who died in 2008 achieved superstar status by playing charismatic renegades broken heroes and winsome anti heroes in such classic films as The Hustler Cool Hand Luke Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid The Verdict and The Color of Money And for all the diverse parts he played on the silver screen Newman occupied nearly as many roles off it He was a loving husband and family man a fund raiser sold his own brand of pasta sauce to make millions for charity drove racing cars and much more Shawn Levy reveals the many sides of this legendary actor in the most comprehensive biography of the star yet published We see Newman the consummate professional a stickler for details and a driven worker In his private life he played the roles of loyal son and brother supportive husband married to Joanne Woodward for 50 years and responsible provider for six children But Levy shows that Newman and his life were by no means perfect there was a dalliance with another woman and failings as a father The death of his only son Scott from a drug overdose in 1978 would haunt Newman for the rest of his life Ultimately the author reveals how Newman was able to blend his many roles and become a man of great integrity who was successful at almost everything he tried It is a fascinating portrait of an extraordinarily gifted man and will leave readers feeling that they have slipped through the security gate and got to know a movie star who was famously guarded about his private life
