The Final Gift A New Way Of The Cross:

The Final Gift Basil Arbour, 1981 The Final Gift : a New Way of the Cross Novalis (Firm), 1981 The Living Church, 1983 Modern Ministries, 1981 Today's Parish, 1986 Paperbound Books in Print, 1984 Library Journal, 1982 The Death of the Messiah and the Birth of the New Covenant Michael J. Gorman, 2014-06-27 In this groundbreaking book Michael Gorman asks why there is no theory or model of the atonement called the new covenant model since this understanding of the atonement is likely the earliest in the Christian tradition going back to Jesus himself Gorman argues that most models of the atonement over emphasize the penultimate purposes of Jesus death and the mechanics of the atonement rather than its ultimate purpose to create a transformed Spirit filled people of God The New Testament's various atonement metaphors are part of a remarkably coherent picture of Jesus death as that which brings about the new covenant and thus the new community promised by the prophets which is also the covenant of peace Gorman therefore proposes a new model of the atonement that is really not new at all the new covenant model He argues that this is not merely an ancient model in need of rediscovery but also a more comprehensive integrated participatory communal and missional model than any of the major models in the tradition Life in this new covenant Gorman argues is a life of communal and individual participation in Jesus faithful loving peacemaking death Written for both academics and church leaders this book will challenge all who read it to re think and re articulate the meaning of Christ's death for us The Dialectics of Discipleship Chris Swann, 2023-08-24 Interrogating Barth's discipleship shaped vision of sanctification this book investigates both Lutheran and Calvinist source material to develop an account that differs markedly from other Lutheran and Calvinist perspectives Highlighting the robustly theological and Christ centred character of Barth's account Chris Swann demonstrates that far from merely valorising human activity Barth advances an understanding of human moral agency action and suffering that is real but relative to the agency of God in Christ to which it corresponds analogously With a focus on the role the image of discipleship plays in giving conceptual structure and shape to Barth's distinctive account of the correspondence between divine agency and sanctified human agency this book evaluates the ramifications of his discipleship shaped vision of sanctification In doing this it gives special attention to Barth's own personal mixed record with regard to Christian discipleship Ultimately Swann retrieves a number of important resources for contemporary theological ethics from Barth's theology of discipleship Dante and Derrida Francis J. Ambrosio, 2012-02-01 Reading Dante's Commedia alongside Jacques Derrida's later religious writings Francis J Ambrosio explores what these works reveal about religion as a fundamental dynamic of human existence about freedom and responsibility and about the significance of writing itself Ambrosio argues that both the many telling differences between them and the powerful bonds that unite them across centuries show that Dante and Derrida share an identity as religious writers that arises from the human experiences of faith hope and love in response to the divine mystery of being human For both Dante and Derrida Ambrosio contends scriptural religion reveals that the paradoxical tension of freedom and absolute responsibility must lead to the mystery of forgiveness a secret that these two share and faithfully keep by surrendering to its necessity to die so as always to begin again anew

The Cross in the New Testament Leon Morris, 2006-11-01 From time to time in the study of theology it becomes necessary to evaluate what Scripture has to say on certain crucial doctrines of the faith Leon Morris one of this generation s most respected evangelical scholars here offers a survey of the vast subject of atonement as it is presented in the New Testament THE CROSS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT explores in turn Matthew and Mark the Lukan writings John the Pauline epistles Hebrews the catholic epistles and Revelation showing what each New Testament scripture contributes to our understanding of atonement While Morris emphasizes the need to appreciate the many strands woven into this doctrine he criticizes the views of modern scholars that do not square with the biblical teaching At the heart of the doctrine of atonement is the idea of substitution Morris believes and his thorough examination and defense of substitutionary atonement make this volume a theological apologetic of great significance Trusted as an exhaustive and reliable work of scholarship for over forty years The Cross in the New Testament remains an invaluable text for serious students of the Bible Metaphysical
