Grandmother's Garden May Brawley Hill,1995-09-30 The old fashioned American garden 1865 1915 For Shade and for Comfort Cheryl Lyon-Jenness,2004 Between 1850 and 1880 Americans of all ranks and circumstances planted shade trees

cultivated flower gardens and established lawns with a new found enthusiasm that both astonished and delighted horticultural advocates For Shade and For Comfort explores this unprecedented burst of horticultural interest and documents its influence on Midwestern domestic landscapes Drawing upon a wide range of largely unexplored resources including lithographic images of farm village and city homes agricultural society records nursery and seed catalogues and the diaries and letters of local residents this innovative study examines how advocates encouraged ornamental plant interest and then considers the significance of trees and flowers for their mid nineteenth century promoters and for the people who planted and nurtured them From these diverse perspectives ornamental plants emerge as densely layered cultural symbols offering not only a very real touch of shade or beauty but for many a sense of security and comfort amidst a rapidly changing American society With its careful portrayal of actual ornamental plant use its examination of nineteenth century horticultural advice literature and the nursery and seed trades and its insightful analysis of the meanings attached to shade trees and flower gardens For Shade and For Comfort will appeal to rural cultural and environmental historians historians of the Midwest historic preservationists and those who simply love horticulture and gardening

The Coal Barons Played Cuban Giants Paul Browne,2013-04-10 The Pennsylvania state leagues of the 1880s and 1890s rank among the most interesting minor leagues in the history of baseball The rules were changing the world around baseball particularly the economy was changing and things that would seem impossible in a later time were happening every year These leagues had not only black players but also wholly black teams They had great major leaguers on their way up but also on the way back down In fact the greatest player of the age surrounded by what would have been a major league all star team only a few years before played in a Pennsylvania minor league for almost a full season The play was exciting the players were exciting and the owners managers and league politics were often more interesting than the games

The Life and Times of George Washington Patterson Terrence Grant,2015-10-20 This is the story of New York Lt Governor George W Patterson Raised in Londonderry New Hampshire he came to the Genesee Valley in New York in 1818 and rose to assembly speaker before moving to Westfield in Chautauqua County as a Land Agent He was a friend of William Seward and Thurlow Weed and in 1848 was elected Lt Govenor with Hamilton Fish as governor In 1876 he was elected to the House of Representatives
