(Un)sighted Archives of Migration Cathrine Bublatzky, Fiona Siegenthaler, 2022-11-28 Un sighted Archives of Migration acknowledges that migration is a fundamental part of social practice and collective memory However archives that have undergone migration or were established by individuals or communities with migration experience gain little public and institutional attention This volume with its transversal perspective across the fields of art anthropology and social activism offers new perspectives on the enormous potential of migratory archives as resourceful spaces for encounter and remembrance and as a contribution to the plural collective memories and identities of post migratory societies Emphasizing the archival agency by migrants the chapters raise new questions with regard to the multi directional collaborative forms of knowledge production within and beyond an archive its boundaries and its materiality Focusing on the complexities of power relations spatial and temporal dynamics media practices and meaning production involved in the making maintenance viewing appropriation destruction and loss of such archives the chapters contribute to a critical methodological and theoretical discussion about un sighted archives as spaces of encounter and resistance in a liminal zone of visibility and invisibility This book was originally published as a special issue of Visual Anthropology

The Value and Valuation of Natural Science Collections John R. Nudds, Charles William Pettitt, 1997

The Making of Indigenous Australian Contemporary Art Marie Geissler, 2021-01-06 This publication brings together existing research as well as new data to show how Arnhem Land bark painting was critical in the making of Indigenous Australian contemporary art and the self determination agendas of Indigenous Australians It identifies how when and what the shifts in the reception of the art were especially as they occurred within institutional exhibition displays Despite key studies already being published on the reception of Aboriginal art in this area the overall process is not well known or always considered while the focus has tended to be placed on Western Desert acrylic paintings This text however represents a refocus and addresses this more fully by integrating Arnhem Land bark painting into the contemporary history of Aboriginal art The trajectory moves from its understanding as a form of ethnographic art to seeing it as conceptual art and appreciating it for its cultural agency and contemporaneity
