Portugal and contained myriad objects from herbs and Islamic prayers to shells and coins Drawing on Arabic language narratives from the West African Sahel the archives of the Portuguese Inquisition sixteenth and seventeenth century European travel and merchant accounts of the West African Coast and early nineteenth century Brazilian police records Rarey shows how mandingas functioned as portable archives of their makers experiences of enslavement displacement and diaspora He presents them as examples of the visual culture of enslavement and critical to conceptualizing Black Atlantic art history Ultimately Rarey looks to the archives of transatlantic slavery which were meant to erase Black life for objects like the mandingas that were created to protect it

Abraham Esau's War Bill Nasson,2003-02-13 This book describes the participation of black people in the conduct of the war and their subsequent exclusion from the fruits of peace

Africa in Europe: Interdependencies, relocations, and globalization Stefan Goodwin,2009-01-01 Africa in Europe in two volumes is an interdisciplinary work about Europeans that demonstrates fluid boundaries and connections between them and Africans from antiquity until the present Written by a scholar with expertise that includes anthropology social history and international relations the subject matter of this fascinating work ranges from science to art and invites much new thinking about racism territoriality citizenship and frontiers in a world that is increasingly globalized

Alur Society Aidan Southall,2004 Alur Society became a classic for a number of reasons Being much more than a descriptive account of an African society it was the first intensive ethnography to adopt the ideas of Max Weber It pioneered the idea that religion and ritual could be the basis of political action It also showed how state systems could evolve not just on the basis of conquest but as a result of societies without kings inviting those with kings to govern them Author Aidan Southall s theory of the segmentary state was adopted by political anthropologists throughout the subject and also by political scientists being applied not just to Africa but also to India and other parts of the world The book was able to arrive at such long lasting and imaginative conclusions through the use of ethnographic material of a quality rarely surpassed It is moreover arguably the best book in social anthropology of a Nilotic speaking people Southall s own command of their language and his overall scholarly knowledge of Nilotes is also unsurpassed

International History of the Twentieth Century Antony Best,2004 Using their thematic and regional expertise four prominent authors have produced an authoritative yet accessible account of the history of international relations in the last century covering events in Europe Asia the Middle East Africa and the Americas

Never Be Silent Durrani, Shiraz,2016-11-25 We will never be silent until we get land to cultivate and freedom in this country of ours so sang Mau Mau activists The struggle for independence in Kenya was waged at many levels Never be Silent explores how this struggle was reflected in the communications field It looks at publishing activities of the main contending forces and explores internal contradictions within each community It documents the major part played by the communications activities of the organised working class and Mau Mau in the achievement of independence in Kenya The book contributes to a reinterpretation of colonial history in Kenya from a working class point of view and also provides a new perspective on how communications can be a weapon for social justice in the hands of liberation forces

International History of the Twentieth Century and Beyond Antony Best, Jussi M. Hanhimäki, Joseph A. Maiolo, Kirsten E. Schulze, 2014-12-17 This hugely successful global history of the twentieth century is written by four prominent international historians for first year undergraduate level and upward Using their thematic and regional expertise the authors have produced an authoritative yet accessible and seamless account of the history of international relations in the last century covering events in Europe Asia the Middle East Africa and the Americas They focus on the history of relations between states and on the broad ideological economic and cultural forces that have influenced the evolution of international politics over the past one hundred years The third edition is thoroughly updated throughout to take account of the most recent research and global developments and includes a new chapter on the international history of human rights and its advocacy organizations including NGOs Additional new features include New material on the Arab Spring including specific focus on Libya and Syria Increased debate on the question of US decline and the rise of China A timeline to give increased context to those studying the topic for the first time A fully revised companion website including links to further resources and self testing material can be found at www.routledge.com/cw/best Antony Best is Associate Professor in International History at the London School of Economics Jussi M Hanhimäki is Professor of International History and Politics at the Graduate Institute of International Studies Geneva Joseph A Maiolo is Professor of International History at the Department of War Studies Kings College London Kirsten E Schulze is Associate Professor in International History at the London School of Economics

African Epistemologies in Higher Education Research Kolawole Samuel Adeyemo, 2023-09-13 Bringing a needed perspective on African Epistemologies on the critical topics of higher education in relation to knowledge systems this book highlights how knowledge creation processes influence higher education systems society and African development This book uses an interdisciplinary approach to frame the connections between academic knowledge systems Specifically it seeks to answer questions on the trends in knowledge mobility histories and sociological dimensions in knowledge production in post colonial Africa The discussion explores how existing knowledge systems can better align with past and present narratives throughout African history and philosophies The primary thought behind this book is to deconstruct the idea of a free market the issue of corruption racism and the neoliberalist approach to knowledge creation and transmission Thus it seeks to answer questions on the history and sociological dimensions of knowledge production in higher education The book argues that African epistemologies can be better understood by investigating present sociologies and histories shaping African higher education research Researchers and university students in the field of sociology of education economics of education higher education and policy will find this book very useful

Echoes of Empire Kalypso Nicolaïdis, Berny Sebe, Gabrielle Maas, 2014-12-23 How does our colonial past echo through today's global politics How have former empire builders sought vindication or atonement and formerly colonized states reversal or retribution This groundbreaking book presents a panoramic view of attitudes to empires past and present seen not only through the hard politics of international power structures but also through the nuances of memory historiography and national and minority cultural identities Bringing together leading historians political scientists and international relations scholars from across the globe Echoes of Empire emphasizes Europe's colonial legacy whilst also highlighting the importance of non European power centres Ottoman Russian Chinese Japanese in shaping world politics then and now Echoes of Empire bridges the divide between disciplines to trace the global routes travelled by objects ideas and people and forms a radically different notion of the term empire itself This will be an essential companion to courses on international relations and imperial history as well as a fascinating read for anyone interested in Western hegemony North South relations global power shifts and the longue duree

Marxism and Art Maynard Solomon, 1979 Marxism and Art is a book of basic readings in Marxist criticism and aesthetics Maynard Solomon through his selections and critical introductions shows connections between the arts and society between imagination and history and between art and revolution He selects from thirty six authors to reveal the range of opinion from dogma to heresy beginning with excerpts from the works of Marx and Engels that are pertinent to an understanding of Marxist philosophy The book traverses a wide range of subjects from the origins of art to the nature of creativity the aesthetic experience the dialectics of consciousness the psychology of art and the evolution of art forms The sources of art in ritual in the labor process in the play drive and in social conflict are explored

The Empire of Progress D. Stephen, 2013-09-19 This much needed study of the British Empire Exhibition reveals durable persistent connections between empire and domestic society in Britain during the interwar years It demonstrates that the Exhibition was a marker of how by 1924 imperial relations were increasingly likely to be shaped by forces located on the colonial periphery

Africa various, 2013-09-05 Complete set Since 1961 the Adelphi Papers have provided some of the most informed accounts of international and strategic relations Produced by the world renowned International Institute of Strategic Studies each paper provides a short account of a subject of topical interest by a leading military figure policy maker or academic The project reprints the first forty years of papers arranged into thematic sets The collection as a whole provides a rich and insightful account of international affairs during a period which spans the second half of the Cold War the fall of the communist bloc and the emergence of a new regime with the United States as the sole superpower There is a wealth of global coverage Four volumes on east and southeast Asia as well as individual volumes on China Japan and Korea Particular attention is given to the Middle East with volumes addressing internal sources of instability geo politics and the role of the superpowers the Israel Palestine conflict and the Iran Iraq War and the first Gulf War There is also a volume on oil and insecurity There are also two volumes on Africa the site of most of the world's wars during the period The IISS has obviously made a particular contribution to the understanding of military strategy and this is reflected with material on topics such as urban and guerrilla warfare nuclear deterrence and the role of information in modern warfare Volumes on military strategy are complemented by approaches from other disciplines such as defence economics Key selling points Early papers were only distributed by the IISS and will have achieved limited penetration of the academic market A host of major authors on a range of different subjects eg Gerald Segal on China Michael Leifer on Southeast Asia Sir Lawrence Freidman on the revolution in military affairs Raymond Vernon on multinationals and defence economics Individual volumes will have a strong appeal to different markets eg the volume on defence economics for economists various volumes for Asian Studies etc
