The History Of Torture George Ryley Scott, 2013-10-28 First published in 2005 Torture an enduring and seemingly not declining aspect of man's relationship to his fellow man is an enduring thread through human history Whether it be practiced by primitive people the ancient Greeks or the Catholic Church whether it be ancient China Japan 1930's Germany or Northern Ireland today torture is alarmingly systematic and consistent in its methods Impaling burning rack or wheel mutilation drawing and quartering burning or hanging alive in chains A very comprehensive and readable work The History of Torture, 1970 The History of Torture Throughout the Ages George Ryley Scott, 1951 The History of Torture and Execution Jean Kellaway, 2003 A full color history of the cruel and violent ways in which humans have meted out punishment from early civilizations to the present Throughout history cultures around the world have found justice for the most extreme crimes by condemning the guilty to death Retribution has been sought by many methods from beheading garroting entombment and burning to modern means such as electrocution and lethal injection For the infliction of torturous pain even more ingenious devices have been employed While torture has usually been carried out behind closed doors it is only recently that executions have ceased to be a popular public spectacle The History of Torture and Execution examines these fascinating but grisly subjects by time region and method Beginning with the often crude methods of meting out justice used by early and first millennium civilizations and evolving from the sadistic tools of the medieval age to the modern search for humane execution methods controversial issues are authoritatively covered More than 180 black and white and color images illustrate the many and varied engines of this final punishment and the inclusion of stories told by the victims themselves gives chilling insight into the horrors faced by prisoners condemned to die for their crimes The History of Torture Daniel P. Mannix, 1964 The History of Torture Joseph McCabe, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1949 edition The History of Torture ... Leon Morgan, 1933 A book giving a brief history of torture History of Torture and Execution Jean Kellaway, 2003 The History of Torture and Execution examines these fascinating but grisly subjects by time region and method The History of Torture in England Leonard Arthur Parry, 1934 The History of Torture Brian Innes, 2012-07-18 The History of Torture tells the complete story of torture from its earliest uses right up to the present day from the tools and techniques used to the campaigns to abolish its use Rack, Rope and Red-hot Pincers Geoffrey Abbott, 2001 A History of Continental Criminal Procedure, with Special Reference to France Adhémar Esmein, 1913 Emotions in the History of Witchcraft Laura Kounine, Michael Ostling, 2017-02-09 Bringing together leading historians anthropologists and religionists this volume examines the unbridled passions of witchcraft from the Middle Ages to the present Witchcraft is an intensely emotional crime rooted in the belief that envy and spite can cause illness or even death Witch trials in turn are emotionally driven by the grief of alleged victims and by the fears of magistrates and demonologists With examples ranging from Russia to New England Germany to Cameroon chapters cover the representation of emotional witches in demonology and art the gendering of witchcraft as female envy or male rage witchcraft as a form of bullying and witchcraft accusation as a form of therapy love magic and demon lovers and the affective memorialization of the Burning Times among contemporary Pagan feminists Wide ranging and methodologically diverse the book is appropriate for scholars of witchcraft gender and emotions for graduate or undergraduate courses and for the interested general reader

New Studies in the History of American Slavery Edward E. Baptist,Stephanie M. H. Camp,2006-01-01 These essays by some of the most prominent young historians writing about slavery fill gaps in our understanding of such subjects as enslaved women the Atlantic and internal slave trades the relationships between Indians and enslaved people and enslavement in Latin America Inventive and stimulating the essays model the blending of methods and styles that characterizes the new cultural history of slavery s social political and economic systems Several common themes emerge from the volume among them the correlation between race and identity the meanings contained in family and community relationships gender and life s commonplaces and the literary and legal representations that legitimated and codified enslavement and difference Such themes signal methodological and pedagogical shifts in the field away from master slave or white black race relations models toward perspectives that give us deeper access to the mental universe of slavery Topics of the essays range widely including European ideas about the reproductive capacities of African women and the process of making race in the Atlantic world the contradictions of the assimilation of enslaved African American runaways into Creek communities the consequences and meanings of death to Jamaican slaves and slave owners and the tensions between midwifery as a black cultural and spiritual institution and slave midwives as health workers in a plantation economy Opening our eyes to the personal the contentious and even the intimate these essays call for a history in which both enslaved and enslavers acted in a vast human drama of bondage and freedom salvation and damnation wealth and exploitation
