Messner reads through 120 years of El Gabilan the yearbook from his own alma mater Salinas High School in California where his father taught and coached Treating the yearbooks as a historical archive Messner makes surprising discoveries about the school he thought he knew so well For example over fifty years before Title IX the earliest yearbooks gave equal spotlights to boys and girls athletics while the cheerleaders were all boys Tracing American life and culture from 1903 to 2024 Messner illuminates shifts in social practices at his high school that reflect broader changes in American culture across the twentieth century The High School spotlights how the meanings and iconography of certain activities have changed radically over the decades even as the sports spirit complex involving athletes cheerleaders band members and community boosters has remained a central part of the high school experience By exploring evolving sports cultures socioeconomic conditions racial demographics and gender norms Messner offers a fresh perspective on a defining feature of American teenage life      Dreamer Who'S Been Extremely Blessed Edgar Francis Poree Jr., 2013-03-18 Edgar Francis Poree Jr a lifelong resident of Louisiana looks back at his struggles disappointments and successes in this memoir that examines the African American experience in the South As a Black male he dealt with deeply rooted prejudices religious discrimination and conflict with older members of the Black community He constantly faced inner turmoil but he remained steadfast in his focus to achieve his goals and navigate the transition from segregation to integration Poree learned to be resourceful early convincing the owner of a nearby grocery store to give him a job cleaning the store and organizing the shelves He went on to start his own business polishing hardwood floors while in the seventh grade His love for music eventually helped him earn a scholarship at Xavier University in New Orleans and from there he was on his way From his teaching career to his successes as a business executive and civic leader Poree shares his memories of real people real places and real divisions His hope is that youll be emboldened encouraged and inspired to achieve your own dreams Pursuing a Promise F. Erik Brooks,2006 In Statesboro Georgia two schools coexisted one white and the other black Yet these schools were intertwined by their geographical location and the traditions of the segregated South There are many glaring similarities between the white students of Georgia Southern University s forerunner the First District A M School and the black students of the Statesboro Industrial and High School Yet as happened all too often in the South as implementation of the federal court s desegregation orders took shape Negro schools were downgraded or outright closed Statesboro was no different While First District A M became a regional university Statesboro Industrial and High School was downgraded to a junior high school In 1961 integration on the higher education level at Georgia s flagship university captured national attention Few works if any have examined desegregation in the context of non flagship universities Likewise there is a misguided mythology that desegregation occurred quietly at Georgia Southern University it s clear that while there was not the violence and rioting seen elsewhere in Southern universities blacks were marginalized and did not feel welcome at the college A passive group after the initial integration blacks adopted tactics of protest and confrontation to empower themselves Taking a page from the Civil Rights Movement black students and faculty established organizations to confront discrimination and gain access to campus leadership positions This is a story about the defeats victories struggles and developments of blacks at Georgia Southern University
