The Horse Show At Midnight Poems:

The Horse Show at Midnight Henry Taylor, 1966 The Horse Show at Midnight ; And, An Afternoon of Pocket Billiards Henry Taylor, 1992 The Horse Show at Midnight consists of poems Taylor wrote while still an undergraduate at the University of Virginia and many of the poems in An Afternoon of Pocket Billiards were composed while he was in the graduate writing programs at Hollins College The Flying Change: Poems Henry Taylor, 1985 Chaplain to the Confederacy A. James Fuller, 2000-10-01 As Jefferson Davis paraded through the streets of Montgomery Alabama to take the oath of office as the first president of the Confederate States of America two men accompanied him in his open coach Alexander Stephens the vice president elect and Basil Manly A noted southern Baptist preacher educator and the most ardent secessionist of them all Manly had been selected to serve as chaplain to the provisional Confederate Congress and opened the inaugural ceremonies with a prayer For nearly thirty years Manly had worked devotedly for the establishment of a southern nation and in 1861 his sermons and public prayers before church and congress lent moral and religious legitimacy to the new Confederate government In this the first full biography of Manly A James Fuller analyzes the life and career of this working minister illustrating the central role of religion in the formation of the Confederacy Fuller argues that Manly brought together the various themes of the broader culture into his own conception of Christian gentility including his actions as the official chaplain to the Confederate government In Manly's eyes the Confederacy was the incarnation of God's plan for the South A planter slaveholder and staunch defender of the peculiar institution he hoped to temper the brutality of bondage by promoting the Christian duties of masters as well as slaves In practice he tried to reconcile the traditions of honor and evangelical virtue the contradictions of white liberty and black slavery the ideals of the individual and the need for community in matters both sacred and secular International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes Men of Our Time Fred Moramarco, Al Zolynas, 1992-10-01 In this groundbreaking volume Fred Moramarco and Al Zolynas bring together a comprehensive and widely representative selection of poetry reflecting both the diversity and commodity of male experience in the United States today Since the beginning of the contemporary phase of the women's movement in the 1960s various anthologies devoted to the poetry of women have articulated and defined a distinctive sensibility attuned to the particularities of a woman's life in our time Although much has been written recently about the male role in our society as well the discussion generally has assumed a sociopsychological or mythic perspective Poetry Moramarco and Zolynas believe can reveal most about the nature of male life today especially the enormous changes men have experienced in recent years As the editors state in their introduction A quiet revolution has been taking place in men's poetry over the past few decades as men have been chronicling the history of their hearts and have been examining those relationships central to their being in the world their connections to their fathers and mothers their own sense of fatherhood and of being sons and brothers their marriages divorces and other aspects of their love lives as well as the ways they conceive of maleness and femaleness The poems collected in Men of Our Time 257 from more than 170 poets include a wide mix of ethnic and racial perspectives that reflect the multicultural tenor of American life They reveal men's most intimate feelings about the loss of childhood sexual anxieties and fantasies aging self sufficiency and dependency and the perennial quest for a masculine identity Above all the poems are unapologetically grounded in a distinctly male experience or imagination Men of Our Time reclaims a poetry that is connected to and expressive of men's lives in the closing decade of the twentieth century

Sallies Richard H. W. Dillard, 2001 Darting into the unknown as only the best poetry safely can R H W Dillard's new collection bursts with bold violations of customs flights of fancy and insouciant leaps of tone and form Unwaveringly skillful these brave sallies explore the complex texture of life and death light and dark in earth's eastering whirl unafraid to confront paradox and finding in their sudden swift grace moments of poise and equipoise the preciousness of now in the face of the infinite Somewhere eternity extends itself like Saturday with so many things to do and voices in the air Somewhere a light will fill forever like straw spun into gold Dillard counterbalances his meditative forays with comic excursions into forbidden territory including a major poem on flatulence an ode to bran three appreciations in verse of fellow writers work a barbed academic memo to a dim colleague and audaciously a textbook anthologist's brief history of American poetry based on the mistaken premise that all the poets were Chinese American acrobats The Flying Changs Sallies daring manifests in complex rhyme patterns unrhymed verse concrete and found poems and a closing set of poems complimenting a young woman Sallie in the tradition of Dante's poems to Beatrice and drawing together the themes and stylistic variety of the entire book in a celebration of in Emerson's words the open hours When the God's will sallies free By chance or some higher plan someone arrives Just when we need them shows us the way From the window's ledge or to the open door Helps us to find ourselves and more
