

The book cover features a detailed illustration of a two-story house with a porch, situated on a hill. In the foreground, there is a decorative wrought-iron fence with a small plant growing through it. The background shows a misty or snowy landscape with rolling hills. The entire scene is rendered in a soft, painterly style.

Copyright Office,1977 Plantation Game Trails Archibald Rutledge,2018-03-12 TO have been able during a matter of nearly thirty years to follow the game trails of the great plantation region of the delta of the Santee this has been my privilege I have seen my homeland undergo great transformations during those years the plantations have for the most part become waste tracts many of the old families have died out Nature has recaptured in her inimitable way what had been for a few years wrested from her The game has held its own on these desolate plantations and that is saying much in the modern day In these chapters I have tried to give a faithful account of the observations I have made as a hunter and as a lover of Nature I have tried to present the wildwoods of the South as I have known them since boyhood And I have attempted to preserve the memory of certain characters which have appeared to me worthy of a place in the picturesque gallery of American woodsmen Preface Richly illustrated throughout Theodore Roosevelt on Hunting Lamar Underwood,2019-04 There have been few hunters as daring as powerful and as articulate as our twenty sixth president Theodore Roosevelt From his ranching years in the Dakota Territory to his famous African adventures Roosevelt s tales are unparalleled stories of the hunt The best of them are collected here Of Roosevelt s many volumes on hunting and exploration two reader favorites have always been Ranch Life and the Hunting Trail and African Game Trails both excerpted here During his ranching years Roosevelt ranged far and wide and his African trips were also famously bold In all his expeditions Roosevelt reveals in detail hunts that were incredible journeys of both pursuit and discovery for wherever he went in the outdoors he assumed the dual roles of hunter and naturalist The hunts range from upland birds and waterfowl to prized big game animals like elk bear and sheep amid lofty peaks There are goat pursuits among ice glazed mountain spires and close encounters with grizzlies in the black timber Roosevelt survives lion charges and buffalo attacks and stumbles on elephants From the peaks and plains of the American West to the vast and mysterious East African game fields and forests Roosevelt shares his experiences and observations in irresistible prose The Last Hunter Will Weaver,2010 Minnesota s Will Weaver has been a hunter since he was a young boy following in the footsteps of his father a dedicated and seasoned outdoorsman As he writes in the fall when Canada geese came through and when partridge season opened we heard the far off thudding report of shotguns and in November the heavier poom poom of deer rifles Hunting frames Weaver s childhood memories his relationship with his father and his own definition of self And although one side of his family lineage includes men who would not hunt or go to war or carry a rifle Weaver is caught off guard when his son and daughter show no interest in upholding the tradition of the hunt The Last Hunter is a twenty first century collection of deeply personal tales a truly American story Weaver s heartfelt rendering sweeps us along on a family journey from an isolated North Dakota farm built around a fork and shovel to postmodern America Grounded in telling and luminous detail The Last Hunter is an examination of family life on the land and those things we hold dear enough to want to carry along one generation to another Praise for Will Weaver his stories view America's heartland with a candid but charitable eye New York Times on A Gravestone Made of Wheat pitch perfect Superb Kirkus Reviews on Full Service Weaver is a writer of uncommon natural talent He's that rare Real Thing a writer writing eloquently often between the lines but always with an undertow of passion about what he knows where he lives what he's been through Los Angeles Times Will Weaver is a writer of many books including Red Earth White Earth Sweet Land New and Full Service one of several of his award winning young adult novels An avid outdoorsman Weaver lives with his wife in Bemidji
