 and founder of the Scottish literary Renaissance In this study of his poetry John Baglow eliminates what has been a stumbling block for most MacDiarmid scholars by showing the very real thematic and psychological consistency which underlines MacDiarmid s work He demonstrates the extent to which the work was dominated by a desire to find a faith that could justify his desire to write poetry a desire continually thwarted by a critical intellect which destroyed whatever faith he was able to construct This constant search without a successful conclusion is at the heart of the work of many major modernist writers
