Sixty Years In Sitka:

The Management of Forests F. C. Osmaston, 2024-06-25 Originally published in 1968 this book discusses the principles and methods on which forest management has been founded in the past and how these principles and methods still apply or are affected by modern management skills changing demands social habits and resources The book is concerned mainly with the technical aspects of forestry and the classic foundations of management To a lesser degree it deals with commercial efficiency labour relations and the implications of these The historical chapter shows the trends in the development of forestry particularly in Europe The Midland Monthly Magazine ,1894 Space and Place in Jewish Studies Barbara E.

Mann, 2012-02-10 Scholars in the humanities have become increasingly interested in questions of how space is produced and perceived and they have found that this consideration of human geography greatly enriches our understanding of cultural history This spatial turn equally has the potential to revolutionize Jewish Studies complicating familiar notions of Jews as people of the Book displaced persons with only a common religious tradition and history to unite them Space and Place in Jewish Studies embraces these exciting critical developments by investigating what space has meant within Jewish culture and tradition and how notions of Jewish space diaspora and home continue to resonate within contemporary discourse bringing space to the foreground as a practical and analytical category Barbara Mann takes us on a journey from medieval Levantine trade routes to the Eastern European shtetl to the streets of contemporary New York introducing readers to the variety of ways in which Jews have historically formed communities and created a sense of place for themselves Combining cutting edge theory with rabbinics anthropology and literary analysis Mann offers a fresh take on the Jewish experience

The World's Work ,1903 A history of our time The Midland Monthly ,1894 Alaska at War, 1941-1945 Fern Chandonnet, 2007-09-15 Over the course of the past two hundred years only one United States territory has experienced foreign occupation Alaska Available for the first time in paperback Alaska at War brings readers face to face with the North Pacific front in World War II Wide ranging essays cover the war as seen by Alaskan eyes including the Japanese invasion of the Attu and Kiska islands the effects of the war on Aleutian Islanders and the American campaign to recover occupied territory Whether you re a historian or a novice student interested in this pivotal period of American history Alaska at War provides fascinating insight into the background history and cultural impact of war on the Alaskan homefront Sacred Body Roberta Sberman Sabbath, 2023-05-30 Sacred Body Readings in Jewish Literary Illumination provides fresh and insightful interpretations of Jewish texts narratives and cultural practices that show how these artifacts un hinge the sacred from the divine and focus instead on the everyday sacred of a dynamic earthly existence that emphasizes the body celebrates life affirming decisions actions and relationships and avoids abstraction metaphysics and apocalypticism Roberta Sabbath argues that a diverse array of Jewish artifacts from sacred scripture to contemporary novels and ballet performance articulate a tradition that has existed for millennia in mythic proto historic legalistic mystical philosophical and aesthetic expressions of Jewishness The author refers to this tradition as Jewish literary illumination and she deftly demonstrates how it illuminates the most salient message of Judaism that earthly existence and the body are also the site of the spiritual and the sacred

New Directions in Jewish American and Holocaust Literatures Victoria Aarons, Holli Levitsky, 2019-02-28 Surveys the current state of Jewish American and Holocaust literatures as well as approaches to teaching them What does it mean to read and to teach Jewish American and Holocaust literatures in the early decades of the twenty first century New directions and new forms of expression have emerged both in the invention of narratives and in the methodologies and discursive approaches taken toward these texts The premise of this book is that despite moving farther away in time the Holocaust continues to shape and inform contemporary Jewish American writing Divided into analytical and pedagogical sections the chapters present a range of possibilities for thinking about these literatures Contributors address such genres as biography the graphic novel alternate history midrash poetry and third generation and hidden child Holocaust narratives Both canonical and contemporary authors are covered including Michael Chabon Nathan Englander Anne Frank Dara Horn Joe Kupert Philip Roth and William Styron The range of critical approaches and authors examined makes this a valuable resource for scholars and teachers Particularly in this troubling political moment meditations on the new and continued relevance of Jewish American and Holocaust literatures for scholars students and the American public in general are invaluable Sharon B Oster author of No Place in Time The Hebraic Myth in Late Nineteenth Century American Literature

The Tlingit Encounter with Photography Sharon Gmelch, 2008-10-31 Based on research in 13 North American archives including the Penn Museum's Shotridge Collection examination of hundreds of photographs and extensive oral history interviews with both Tlingit and non Natives Sharon Bohn Gmelch presents valuable insights on the reactions of Native subjects to being photographed and their own early use of photography Today these now historical images are being reclaimed from public archives by the Tlingit contributing to a new sense of empowerment and pride in their rich heritage This is the first book to explore the photographic imagery of the Tlingit during a critical period of change from the 1860s through the 1920s It also provides the first full treatment of the Tlingit photography of Elbridge W Merrill a neglected figure in the history of ethnographic photography The author has included 129 rare photographic images a map bibliography and index
