Fabulous Modern Cookies: Lessons in Better Baking for Next-Generation Treats Paul Arguin, Chris

Taylor, 2022-04-12. With bolder than ever flavors and spectacularly scientific techniques, cookies have truly never been more fabulous. One of NPR's Books We Love 2022. Do we need another cookie book? As far as I'm concerned, the answer is always yes. Here we have the classic cookie food groups: bar, drop, rolled, slice, and bake, etc., but they've been wickedly turbocharged with unique flavor hacks. Why wouldn't you insinuate a layer of ganache into your black bottom lemon squares? Why wouldn't you powder freeze-dried raspberries for your sugar cookies? And for heaven's sake, why wouldn't you add milk powder to your browned butter for the world's most insanely malty chocolate chip cookies? Prepare your secret stash cookie jar, folks; you're gonna need it. T. Susan Chang for NPR. Delicious and dazzling for cookie fanatics, this one is sure to be a hit. Publisher's Weekly starred review. Chris Taylor and Paul Arguin bring fresh perspective and heaps of creativity to everything they bake. Now reinventing America's most traditional handheld dessert, the cookie, they offer 100 reliable and exciting recipes that are sure to impress. From Pumpkin Snickerdoodles to Black Bottom Lemon Squares and Coffee Bean Crunchers to Bronze Butter Chocolate Chip Cookies, these are next-level cookies. Combining their passion for serious baking with their professional backgrounds as accomplished scientists, Taylor and Arguin apply new methods and modern ingredient pairings to develop novel base recipes with innovative techniques. In these pages, they share what they've learned in lively tips and tricks for every recipe and style of cookie. Complete with mouthwatering photos, options to make ahead, decorate, or infinitely adapt, these outside-the-box recipes are the very definition of fabulous. Edward Hopper in Vermont Bonnie Tocher

Making of a Caribbean Avant-Garde Therese Kaspersen Hadchity, 2020-08-15 Focusing on the Anglophone Caribbean The Making of a Caribbean Avant Garde describes the rise and gradual consolidation of the visual arts avant garde which came to local and international attention in the 1990s The book is centered on the critical and aesthetic strategies employed by this avant garde to repudiate the previous generation's commitment to modernism and anti colonialism In three sections it highlights the many converging factors which have pushed this avant garde to the forefront of the region's contemporary scene and places it all in the context of growing dissatisfaction with the post colonial state and its cultural policies This generational transition has manifested itself not only in a departure from traditional in favor of new media i e installation performance and video rather than painting and sculpture but also in the advancement of a postnationalist postmodernism which reaches for diasporic and cosmopolitan frames of reference Section one outlines the features of a preceding Creole modernism and explains the different guises of postnationalism in the region's contemporary art In section two its momentum is connected to the proliferation of independent art spaces and transnational networks which connect artists across and beyond the region and open up possibilities unavailable to earlier generations Section three demonstrates the impact of this conceptual and organizational evolution on the selection and exhibition of Caribbean art in the metropole
