Suicide In Later Life Recognizing The Warning Signs:

Suicide in Later Life Nancy J. Osgood, 1992-01-01 Using statistical data and case studies including the deaths of such figures as Ernest Hemingway and Bruno Bettelheim Dr Nancy Osgood realistically portrays the problem of late life suicide and examines how we as a nation might change our behavior toward the elderly to reduce their risk of suicide Aging and Old Age Richard A. Posner, 1995 Observing that people change both physically and cognitively as they age Posner suggests that each of us has in succession two separate selves younger and older with different abilities interests and behaviors an insight that helps clarify a number of issues concerning the elderly Death Attitudes and the Older Adult Adrian Tomer, 2018-10-24 This innovative and informative new text bridges the fields of gerontology and thanatology

Psychotherapy with Older Adults Bob G. Knight, 2004-02-20 This Third Edition of the bestselling Psychotherapy with Older Adults continues to offer students and professionals a thorough overview of psychotherapy with older adults Using the contextual cohort based maturity specific challenge CCMSC model it draws upon findings from scientific gerontology and life span developmental psychology to describe how psychotherapy needs to be adapted for work with older adults as well as when it is similar to therapeutic work with younger adults Sensitively linking both research and experience author Bob G Knight provides a practical account of the knowledge technique and skills necessary to work with older adults in a therapeutic relationship This volume considers the essentials of gerontology as well as the nature of therapy in depth focusing on special content areas and common themes Psychotherapy with Older Adults includes a comprehensive discussion of assessment and options for intervention Numerous case examples illustrate the dynamics of the therapeutic task and issues covered in therapy and stress the human element in working with older adults A concluding chapter considers ethical questions and the future of psychotherapy with older adults The author has updated the Third Edition to reflect new research findings and has written two entirely new chapters covering psychotherapy with persons with dementia and psychotherapy with caregivers of frail older adults Since its initial publication in 1986 the book has been used as a course text and a professional reference around the world including translations into French Dutch Chinese and Japanese It is a vital resource for practicing therapists and counselors who work with older adults and is also ideally suited as a text for advanced students in psychology social work gerontology and nursing Praise for Previous Editions Bob G Knight s largest contribution is his excellent discussion of therapy The book is clearly written with a good use of summaries and case examples to clarify the major points By linking research findings to practice experience Knight has provided a pragmatic introduction which should be helpful to psychiatrists psychologists social workers and psychiatric nurses working with older adults JOURNAL OF APPLIED GERONTOLOGY I recommend this book to anyone interested in working with the elderly partly because of the content and partly because the author presents the case for doing psychotherapy with the elderly with realism and enthusiasm BEHAVIOR RESEARCH THERAPY National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of

Medicine (U.S.),1993 Aging Harry R. Moody,Jennifer R. Sasser,2014-03-10 Presenting current research in an innovative format Harry Moody and Jennifer Sasser s Aging Concepts and Controversies encourages students to become involved and take an informed stand on the major aging issues that we face as a society Using their extensive expertise the authors provide a thorough explanation of the issues in the Concepts sections and current research in the Controversy sections demonstrating the close links between concepts and controversies in these broad areas of aging health care socioeconomic trends and the life course Dying Hannelore Wass,Robert A. Neimeyer,2018-10-24 This work provides an up to date examination of the ways people face dying and bereavement In this third edition previous chapters are thoroughly revised and new contributors expand areas that have changed significantly Reflecting the field s complex interdisciplinary character the chapters cover such diverse areas as psychology nursing medicine AIDS family studies sociology education philosophy law religion the humanities and political science whilst highlighting thanatology s core psychological and therapeutic caregiving dimensions First the text offers broad examinations of death systems from the vantage points of various cultural historical and disciplinary perspectives The second section represents the core of the book offering detailed surveys of the data of death dying and bereavement as they relate to different phases of our encounter with death as an abstract possibility and concrete reality Next are chapters addressing a cluster of death related issues and challenges that confront us at both a societal and individual level such as AIDS and finally the volume closes with a few reflections on the complexity of contemporary thanatology framing some issues and recommendations that deserve greater attention by scholars researchers policy makers and practitioners Also included is a comprehensive resource bibliography on the topic This text is intended to be of use as a resource for all those interested in reading about death studies both professionals and students alike

Readings in Thanatology John D. Morgan,2020-11-25 A comprehensive book of readings for courses on death and dying at the college or university level It contains material by such leaders in the field as Colin Murray Parkes MD John Hinton MD Kenneth Doka PhD Ira R Byock MD Ronald K Barrett PhD Robert G Stevenson EdD Judith M Stillion PhD Interviewing and Deception David Canter,Laurence Alison,2018-11-07 First published in 1999 this volume brings together a unique range of previously unpublished studies that explore the psychological processes involved in interviewing statement validation detecting deception and the use of expert witnesses for the examination of such processes One major challenge of any police enquiry is to filter out the distortions in the collection collation and employment of the information on which all subsequent actions rely These distortions may be produced by poor witness recall deliberate obfuscation and deception professional negligence or as a product of a variety of communication problems The contributors to the volume tackle these and many related issues Recent developments in our understanding of the investigative interview process are covered in a number of insightful studies by leading researchers combining academic rigour with direct practical relevance The wide range of topics covered in this volume will be of value and interest to all students of crime and its investigation as well as those who have a broader interest in interviewing and the assessment of information from naturally occurring accounts Social scientists and those psychologists concerned to develop their understanding of accounts of crime will find the volume of particular utility as will all those in law enforcement who wish to see an improvement in these crucial aspects of all criminal investigations

Death 101 Sandra Helene Straub, 2016-12-05 Human beings experience many losses in a lifetime but the death of a loved one is among the most traumatic While grieving is a natural part of life it still challenges our daily existence The purpose of Death 101 A Workbook for Educating and Healing 2nd edition is to provide an understanding of dying death and bereavement that will assist individuals to cope better with and understand their own death and the death of others It enables us to examine cultural attitudes and assumptions about dying and death Death 101 2nd edition introduces the dying process grief work and ethical and legal issues while providing personal insight and sensitivity The workbook is meant as a supplement to textbooks on dying and death to accompany the academic material necessary to increase our knowledge about death education At the same time it is intended to be an independent method of working through loss a personal guide for the journey through grief Death 101 2nd edition includes activities that may be used in part or in whole sequentially or at random by individuals or a group Different professionals including counselors teachers clergy medical personnel and caregivers may utilize these activities The therapeutic exercises in Death 101 2nd edition will help the lay reader cope effectively with loss and death and allow a more effective life when faced with grief Scattered throughout the workbook are stories poems and comments from others who have traveled through the grieving process Living, Loving and Loss Brad DeFord, Richard Gilbert, 2016-12-05 One of the unspoken aspects of mourning concerns the ways that loss affects our intimate relationships and our sexual expressiveness This text opens these subjects for conversation with the aim of promoting the trust care and respect that enable us to be vulnerable It purposefully covers a range of topics including 1 the meaning of intimacy and the significance of sexuality providing a basis for the use of these terms throughout the book 2 death grief and differences in sexual orientation including death and intimacy in the lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT community and the losses endured by young people due to gender issues 3 loss of relationship and restoration of intimacy in families including pharmacological effects on the grief processes of widowers grieving a not so loved parent the layered losses of infertility and intimacy and the tolls of war intimacy and sexuality challenges for soldiers and their families 4 adjusting to life's losses associated with aging or illness or infirmity including Alzheimer's and dementia related illnesses physical health losses after 50 and intimacy sex and hospice self determination and dignity at the end of life and 5 religious bases that have shaped our perspectives for understanding intimacy sexuality and healing after loss and which give us hope including the spiritual reflections of a rabbi and a Christian voice in defining what is right Set in a framework that is both psychological and spiritual the well researched contributions are intended to acknowledge these experiences both professionally and personally The book concludes with an extensive bibliography valuable for research and reference This book will be of value in undergraduate and graduate courses on thanatology as well as for anyone interested in knowing more about grief both those currently bereaved and those who wish to support others in mourning The contributors appreciate both the importance of our capacities for intimacy and sexuality and our inhibitions and hesitations in giving voice to our needs and concerns perhaps especially when we are grieving The information and compassionate understanding they provide encourage us to bridge the gap between the secret and the private and to share what is close to our hearts
