Suicide And Euthanasia The Rights Of Personhood:

Suicide and Euthanasia Samuel E. Wallace, Albin Eser, 1981 Voluntary Euthanasia and the Common Law Margaret Otowski, 1997 Margaret Otowski investigates the complex and controversial issue of active voluntary euthanasia. She critically examines the criminal law prohibition of medically administered active voluntary euthanasia in common law jurisdictions and carefully looks at the situation as handled in practice. The evidence of patient demands for active euthanasia and the willingness of some doctors to respond to patients' requests is explored, and an argument for reform of the law is made with reference to the position in the Netherlands where active voluntary euthanasia is now openly practiced.

Suicide Michael Cholbi, 2011-08-26 Suicide was selected as a Choice Outstanding Academic Title for 2012. Suicide: The Philosophical Dimensions is a provocative and comprehensive investigation of the main philosophical issues surrounding suicide. Readers will encounter seminal arguments concerning the nature of suicide and its moral permissibility, the duty to die, the rationality of suicide, and the ethics of suicide intervention. Intended both for students and for seasoned scholars, this book sheds much needed philosophical light on one of the most puzzling and enigmatic human behaviors. The Proliferation Of Rights Carl Wellman, 2018-02-07 The Proliferation of Rights explores how the assertion of rights has expanded dramatically since World War II. Carl Wellman illuminates for the reader the historical developments in each of the major categories of rights, including human rights, civil rights, women's rights, patient rights, and animal rights. He concludes by assessing where this proliferation has been legitimate and helpful, cases where it has been illusory and unproductive, and alternatives to the appeal to rights. Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia Mr. Craig Paterson, 2012-10-01 As medical technology advances, and severely injured or ill people can be kept alive and functioning long beyond what was previously medically possible, the debate surrounding the ethics of end-of-life care and quality of life issues has grown more urgent. In this lucid and vigorous book, Craig Paterson discusses assisted suicide and euthanasia from a fully fledged but non-dogmatic, secular, natural law perspective. He rehabilitates and revitalises the natural law approach to moral reasoning by developing a pluralistic account of just why we are required by practical rationality to respect and not violate key demands generated by the primary goods of persons, especially human life. Important issues that shape the moral quality of an action are explained and analysed: intention, foresight, action, omission, action consequences, killing, letting die, innocence, non-innocence, person, non-person. Paterson defends the central normative proposition that it is always a serious moral wrong to intentionally kill an innocent human person, whether self or another, notwithstanding any further appeal to consequences or motive. Assisted Dying and Legal Change Penney Lewis, 2007-03-08 Exploring how the way in which assisted dying is legalised affects the regime produced, this text suggests that the experience of one jurisdiction cannot readily be translated to another and argues for a subtler understanding of euthanasia against the backgrounds of diverse legal and political cultures. Bioethics Reporter, 1984 Cases, Materials and Problems on Bioethics and Law Michael H. Shapiro, Roy G. Spece, 1981
