Bowker Company, 1982 Without My Cloak Kate O'Brien, 2016-06-09 AN AWARD WINNING AND REMARKABLE IRISH NOVELIST Rush out for the works of Kate O'Brien You are in for a treat VAL HENNESSY The first time I realised how powerful the small ordinary family life story can be MAEVE BINCHY A peculiarly beautiful and arresting piece of fiction J B PRIESTLY When Anthony Considine creeps into Mellick town with a stolen horse in 1789 it sets the destiny of his family for decades to come By the 1850s through thrift and hard work his son Honest John has made the Considines a leading Mellick family With his father's money John's son Anthony builds a grand country house for his wife and children but especially for his youngest son Denis who he adores little knowing that one day Denis will threaten the toil of generations with his love for a peasant girl The Novel in England, 1900-1950 Robert L. Caserio, 1999 In the first half of the twentieth century English fiction played a crucial role in the artistic and intellectual movement called modernism In recent decades however modernism and its proponents have come under attack Today's critics claim that modernist fiction has been socially and politically harmful and that literary modernism has fortunately been superseded by post modernism The Nation, 1988 Library Journal, 1991 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately AB Bookman's Weekly, 1988-03 Bringing Up War-Babies Amanda Jones, 2018-08-06 The figure of the wartime child in the mid twentieth century unsettles and disturbs This book employs a range of material biographical literary and historical to chart some of the surprising and unanticipated crossovers between women's writing and early psychoanalysis in the years of the Second World War and the decades before and after This volume includes examples of children's adventure fiction as well as works written for adult audiences and important and previously unrecognized similarities are noted The war was a disruptive influence in the lives of all who lived through it Although active self censorship is observed in the behaviour and attitudes of adults at this time this book demonstrates how fictional children are able to articulate feelings such as anxiety and fear that adults were under pressure to conceal or to repress and at times the figure of the wartime child becomes a surrogate for the writer herself or her suppressed fears and anxiety When peace returned this study finds women writers quick to identify and communicate a discomfiting new ambivalence between parents and children
