global issues A Mission for Justice Mary A. Ward, 2002 Founded in 1930 as the result of efforts by several black Catholic laywomen Queen of Angels was the first African American Catholic congregation in Newark New Jersey The church quickly embarked on an outreach campaign that endured for decades and affected the entire Newark community black and white Catholic and Protestant By the 1960 s many people looked to Queen of Angels as a model of social and civil rights activism In A Mission for Justice Mary Ward places Queen of Angels within its broader historical religious and social context and explores the church s struggle for justice within the Catholic Church and in society as a whole The reach of Queen of Angels extended far beyond its own membership For example while riots erupted in other cities across the country after the murder of Martin Luther King Jr Queen of Angels played an instrumental role in organizing the Walk for Understanding a peaceful march of twenty five thousand blacks and whites through the heart of the inner city That event and the ethos that inspired it gave birth to the New Community Corporation the largest nonprofit housing corporation in the country led by former Queen of Angels priest William Linder Today Queen of Angels is one of several African American Catholic parishes in Newark and its mission is now more pastoral than activist But the church continues as a home to various community based programs working to improve the lives of Newark s residents Based on nine years of research A Mission for Justice draws on oral histories of parishioners pastors nuns and layworkers at Queen of Angels as well as on documents from various private collections Ward s study will be valuable reading for those interested in African American and church history as well as the history of social activism and the Civil Rights Movement The Author Mary A Ward is an adjunct professor of religion at Fordham University The Catholic Encyclopedia: Laprade-Mass ,1913 Transforming Post-Catholic Ireland Gladys Ganiel, 2016-02-26 Transforming Post Catholic Ireland is the first major book to explore the dynamic religious landscape of contemporary Ireland north and south and to analyse the island s religious transition It confirms that the Catholic Church s long standing monopoly has well and truly disintegrated replaced by a mixed post Catholic religious market featuring new and growing expressions of Protestantism as well as other religions It describes how people of faith are developing extra institutional expressions of religion keeping their faith alive outside or in addition to the institutional Catholic Church Drawing on island wide surveys of clergy and laypeople as well as more than 100 interviews Gladys Ganiel describes how people of faith are engaging with key issues such as increased diversity reconciliation to overcome the island s sectarian past and ecumenism Ganiel argues that extra institutional religion is especially well suited to address these and other issues due to its freedom and flexibility when compared to traditional religious institutions She explains how those who practice extra institutional religion have experienced personal transformation and analyses the extent that they have contributed to wider religious social and political change On an island where religion has caused much pain from clerical sexual abuse scandals to sectarian violence to a frosty reception for some immigrants those who practice their faith outside traditional religious institutions may hold the key to transforming post Catholic Ireland into a more reconciled society
