Queer Words, Queer Images R. Jeffrey Ringer, 1994 In many arenas the debate is raging over the nature of sexual orientation Queer Words Queer Images addresses this debate but with a difference arguing that homosexuality has become an issue precisely because of the way in which we discuss debate and communicate about the concept and experience of homosexuality The debate over homosexuality is fundamentally an issue of communication as we can see by the recent controversy over gays in the military This controversy termed by one gay man as the annoying habit of heterosexual men to overestimate their own attractiveness has been debated in communication sensitive terms such as morale and discipline The twenty chapters address such subjects as gay political language homosexuality and AIDS on prime time television the politics of male homosexuality in young adult fiction the identification of female athleticism with lesbianism the politics of identity in the works of Edmund White and coming out strategies This is must reading for students of communication practices and theory and for everyone interested in human sexuality Contributing to the book are James Chesebro Indiana State James Darsey Ohio State Joseph A Devito Hunter College CUNY Timothy Edgar Purdue Mary Anne Fitzpatrick Wisconsin Madison Karen A Foss Humboldt State Kirk Fuoss St Lawrence Larry Gross Pennsylvania Darlene Hantzis Indiana State Fred E Jandt California State San Bernardino Mercilee Jenkins San Francisco State Valerie Lehr St Lawrence Lynn C Miller Texas Austin Marguerite Moritz Colorado Boulder Fred L Myrick Spring Hill Emile Netzhammer Buffalo State Elenie Opffer Dorothy S Painter Ohio State Karen Peper Michigan Nicholas F Radel Furman R Jeffrey Ringer St Cloud State Scott Shamp Georgia Paul Siegel Gallaudet Jacqueline Taylor Depaul Julia T Wood North Carolina Chapel Hill

On Intimate Terms Beverly Burch, 1993 On Intimate Terms looks at the internal logic of lesbian relationships arguing that they are not patterned after heterosexual ones but rely on the interplay of psychosexual differences between women The book suggests that everyone seeks psychic complementarity with an Other in intimate relationships as a way of supporting personal growth and development A complementary partner is one who is different in some individually meaningful way not necessarily in terms of gender Drawing upon interviews with individuals and lesbian couples literature on lesbian psychology and contemporary psychoanalytic theory Beverly Burch observes a special attraction between primary lesbians women who have been attracted to other women from an early age and lesbians who formerly were heterosexual This difference may be a source of tension for lovers but it also attracts and bonds them in conscious and unconscious ways The intimacy between lesbian partners permits interpersonal exchanges that foster the continuing development of each according to Burch This development can occur in three areas with the significance of each varying from couple to couple It can be a source of both conscious and unconscious psychosexual exchanges a way in which each partner can experience the road not taken through her relationship with the other The partners different histories can reflect different ways of negotiating difference itself a pivotal theme in the development of adult women And gender role identities related to different developmental experiences can be played with expanding the experience of being female in a way that can challenge gender categories
