and willingness to create and reproduce certain cultural modes that connect them to social entities such as the family the neighborhood and the amorphous and fleeting communities that emerge in large scale festivals and now on the Internet Italian Americans abandon reproduce and or revive various cultural elements in relationship to ever shifting political economic and social conditions The results are dynamic hybrid cultural forms such as valtarò accordion music Sicilian oral poetry a Columbus Day parade and witchcraft stregheria By taking a closer look and an ethnographic approach to expressive behavior we see that Italian American identity is far from being a linear path of assimilation from Italian immigrant to American of Italian descent but is instead fraught with conflict negotiation and creative solutions Together these essays illustrate how folklore is evoked in the continual process of identity revaluation and reformation Voices of Barrington

Along the way, travelers can read outstanding excerpts from the writers evoking the places, customs, colloquialisms, and characters that figure prominently in their poetry, fiction, creative nonfiction, and plays. More than 170 writers from the past and present are featured in this volume, including Sequoyah, Elizabeth Spencer, Fred Chappell, Charles Frazier, Kathryn Stripling Byer, Robert Morgan, William Bartram, Gail Godwin, O. Henry, Thomas Wolfe, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Anne Tyler, Lillian Jackson Braun, Nina Simone, and Romulus Linney. Each tour provides information about the libraries, museums, colleges, bookstores, and other venues open to the public where writers regularly present their work or are represented in exhibits, events, performances, and festivals.
