

A photograph of Cat Stevens performing on stage. He has long, curly brown hair and a beard, and is wearing a light blue button-down shirt under a dark, vertically striped vest. He is holding an acoustic guitar and singing into a vintage-style microphone on a stand. The background is dark with some stage lighting visible.

The Boy Who Looked At The Moon The Life And Times Of Cat Stevens:

The Boy who Looked at the Moon David Evans,1995 Popular Culture and Its Relationship to Conflict in the UK and Australia since the Great War Andrekos Varnava,Michael J.K. Walsh,2022-12-26 This book shows how cultural production derived from or in anticipation of conflict can be used to create specific social identities national histories and contemporary concepts of memory in Britain and Australia Studies on the politics of cultural production have usually focussed on one conflict or on one particular cultural medium at a time This volume however presents a broader horizon to draw attention to more popular forms of cultural production from the Great War up to and including its Centenary The chapters in this volume interrogate the contentious philosophical notion that culture thrives in times of war and expires in peace and asks whether art as a form of social barometer can anticipate conflict rather than merely respond to it This is a fascinating read for students researchers and academics interested in British and Australian History and its relationship with Popular Culture The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Contemporary British History

Ecotopia 2121 Alan Marshall,2016-10-04 A 2016 Green Book Festival Future Forecasts Winner A stunningly original lushly illustrated vision for a Green Utopia published on the 500th anniversary of the original Big Idea Five hundred years ago a powerful new word was unleashed upon the world when Thomas More published his book Utopia about an island paradise far away from his troubled land It was an instant hit and the literati across Europe couldn't get enough of its blend of social fantasy with a deep desire for a better world Five hundred years later Ecotopia 2121 once again harnesses the power of the utopian imagination to confront our current problems among them climate change and offer a radical alternative vision for the future of our troubled planet Depicting one hundred cities around the globe from New York to San Francisco London Tokyo Sydney Rio de Janeiro Mexico City Beijing Vienna Singapore Cape Town Abu Dhabi and Mumbai Alan Marshall imagines how each may survive and prosper A striking full color scenario painting illustrates each city The chapters tell how each community has found either a social or technological innovation to solve today's crises Fifteen American cities are covered Around the world urban planners like to tailor scenarios for the year 2020 to take advantage of the metaphor of 20/20 vision In Ecotopia 2121 the vision may be fuzzy but its sharp insights captivating illustrations and playful storytelling will keep readers coming back again and again The International Who's Who in Popular Music 2002 Andy Gregory,2002 TheInternational Who's Who in Popular Music 2002offers comprehensive biographical information covering the leading names on all aspects of popular music It brings together the prominent names in pop music as well as the many emerging personalities in the industry providing full biographical details on pop rock folk jazz dance world and country artists Over 5 000 biographical entries include major career details concerts recordings and compositions honors and contact addresses Wherever possible information is obtained directly from the entrants to ensure accuracy and reliability Appendices include details of record companies management companies agents and promoters The reference also details
