carriages stuck for a long time Sometimes a hurricanelike wind would begin to blow from the steppes lying toward the northwest and then the tops of the trees would bend down to the ground and again sweep 1 up like waves during a storm the iron roofs of the country houses would rattle at night as though some one were walking over them in iron shod boots the window panes would jingle the doors snap and the flues howl dismally Several fishing barks lost their way in the sea and two of them never returned to shore it was only a week later that the bodies of the fishermen were washed ashore in different places The inhabitants of the shore resort which lay on the outskirts of a large city mostly Greeks and Jews who like all people of the south are fond of comforts hastened to move to the city And endless lines of wagons loaded with mattresses furniture trunks wash stands samovars and all kinds of household goods stretched down the muddy road Sad and pitiable and even disgusting was the sight of this procession as one caught glimpses of it through the thick net of rain for everything seemed so old and worn out and sordid Maids and cooks Quarterly Bulletin of the Providence Public Library Providence Public Library (R.I.),1916 Monthly Bulletin St. Louis Public Library,1916 The Publishers Weekly ,1928 The Bookman's Manual Bessie Graham,1924 Bookman's Manual Bessie Graham,1921
