The British School At Athens The First Hundred Years:

The British School at Athens, 1986 A Century of British Medieval Studies Alan Deyermond, 2007-11-29 This is an authoritative guide to the full range of medieval scholarship undertaken in twentieth century Britain history archaeology language culture Some of the twenty nine essays focus on changes in research method or on the achievements of individual scholars others are personal accounts of a lifetime s work The Oxford Handbook of the History of Archaeology Margarita Díaz-Andreu, Laura Coltofean, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of the History of Archaeology offers comprehensive perspectives on the origins and developments of the discipline of archaeology and the direction of future advances in the field Written by thirty six archaeologists and historians from all over the world it covers a wide range of themes and debates including biographical accounts of key figures scientific techniques and archaeological fieldwork practices institutional contexts and the effects of religion nationalism and colonialism on the development of archaeology The Annual of the British School at Athens British School at Athens, 1926 A short history of the British school at Athens 1886 1911 by G A Macmillan no 17 p ix xxxviii History of Universities: Volume XXXIV/1 Ku-Ming Chang, Alan Rocke, 2021 History of Universities XXXIV 1 contains the customary mix of learned articles which makes this publication an indispensable tool for the historian of higher education This volume offers a global history of research education in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Organisation of Knowledge in Victorian Britain Martin Daunt, 2005-05-26 This collection of essays explores the questions of what counted as knowledge in Victorian Britain who defined knowledge and the knowledgeable by what means and by what criteria During the Victorian period the structure of knowledge took on a new and recognizably modern form and the disciplines we now take for granted took shape The ways in which knowledge was tested also took on a new form with the rise of written examinations New institutions of knowledge were created museums were important at the start of the period universities had become prominent by the end Victorians needed to make sense of the sheer scale of new information to popularize it and at the same time to exclude ignorance and error a role carried out by encyclopaedias and popular publications By studying the Victorian organization of knowledge in its institutional social and intellectual settings these essays contribute to our wider consideration of the complex and much debated concept of knowledge Classics in 19th and 20th Century Cambridge Christopher Stray, 2020-08-30 Eight essays in which Classicists examine the history of their own subject as taught and practised at Cambridge University in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries when the foundations were laid for the modern contours of the subject Encyclopedia of the History of Classical Archaeology Nancy Thomson de Grummond, 2015-05-11 With 1 125 entries and 170 contributors this is the first encyclopedia on the history of classical archaeology It focuses on Greek and Roman material but also covers the prehistoric and semi historical cultures of the Bronze Age Aegean the Etruscans and manifestations of Greek and Roman culture in Europe and Asia Minor The Encyclopedia of the History of Classical Archaeology includes entries on individuals whose activities influenced the knowledge of sites and monuments in their own time articles on famous monuments and sites as seen changed and interpreted through time and entries on major works of art excavated from the Renaissance to the present day as well as works known in the Middle Ages As the definitive source on a comparatively new discipline the history of archaeology these finely illustrated volumes will be useful to students and scholars in archaeology the classics history topography and art and architectural history

Inventing Ancient Culture Mark Golden, Peter Toohey, 2020-03-25 Inventing Ancient Culture discusses aspects of antiquity which we have tended to ignore It asks the reader how far we have reinvented antiquity by applying modern concepts and understandings to its study Furthermore it challenges the common notion that perceptions of the self of modern societal and institutional structures originated in the Enlightenment Rather the authors and contributors argue there are many continuities and marked similarities between the classical and the modern world Mark Golden and Peter Toohey have assembled a lively cast of contributors who analyse and argue about classical culture its understandings of philosophy friendship the human body sexuality and historiography

Knossos James Whitley, 2023-10-19 Knossos is one of the most important sites in the ancient Mediterranean It remained amongst the largest settlements on the island of Crete from the Neolithic until the late Roman times but aside from its size it held a place of particular significance in the mythological imagination of Greece and Rome as the seat of King Minos the location of the Labyrinth and the home of the Minotaur Sir Arthur Evans discovery of the Palace of Minos has indelibly associated Knossos in the modern mind with the lost civilisation of Bronze Age Crete The allure of this lost civilisation together with the considerable achievements of Minoan artists and craftspeople remain a major attraction both to scholars and to others outside the academic world as a bastion of a romantic approach to the past In this volume James Whitley provides an up to date guide to the site and its function from the Neolithic until the present day This study includes a re appraisal of Bronze Age palatial society as well as an exploration of the history of Knossos in the archaeological imagination In doing so he takes a critical look at the guiding assumptions of Evans and others reconstructing how and why the received view of this ancient settlement has evolved from the Iron Age up to the modern era

Recent Danish Research in Classical Archaeology Tobias Fischer-Hansen, 1991 This volume celebrates the centenary of Classical Archaeology as a University discipline in Denmark by presenting nineteen articles on classical archaeological research within Greek Etruscan and Roman archaeology ranging from fieldwork and research projects to the publication of material in Danish collections

Excavating Women Magarita Díaz-Andreu, Marie Louise Stig Sorensen, 2005-08-11 Archaeologists are increasingly aware of issues of gender when studying past societies women are becoming better represented within the discipline and are attaining top academic posts However until now there has been no study undertaken of the history of women in European archaeology and their contribution to the development of the discipline Excavating Women discusses the careers of women archaeologists such as Dorothy Garrod Hanna Rydh and Marija Gimbutas who against all odds became famous as well as the many lesser known personalities who did important archaeological work The collection spans the earliest days of archaeology as a discipline to the present telling the stories of women from Scandinavia Mediterranean Europe Britain France Germany and Poland The chapters examine women s contributions to archaeology in the context of other often socio political factors that affected their lives It examines issues such as women s increased involvement in archaeological work during and after the two World Wars and why so many women found it more acceptable to work outside of their native lands This critical assessment of women in archaeology makes a major contribution to the history of archaeology It reveals how selective the archaeological world has been in recognizing the contributions of those who have shaped its discipline and how it has been particularly inclined to ignore the achievements of women archaeologists Excavating Women is essential reading for all students teachers and researchers in archaeology who are interested in the history of their discipline and its sociopolitics

Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB s first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain s recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It s hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick s Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly

Badham John DeLorean's gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery

The Classical Archaeology of Greece Michael Shanks, 2003-09-02 Archaeologists do not discover the past but take the fragmentary remains which they recover and make something of them Archaeology is a process of detection and supposition this is what makes it so fascinating However the interpretations of archaeologists differ and change over time They depend upon the amount of evidence available the ideas and preconceptions of the archaeologist and their interests and aims Michael Shanks's enlivening work is a guide to the discipline of classical archaeology and its objects It assesses archaeology as a means of reconstructing ancient Greek society using the latest approaches of social archaeology In addition The Classical Archaeology of Greece outlines the history of the discipline and discusses why Classical Greece continues to fascinate us and why it has had such an impact on European civilization and identity

Artifact & Artifice Jonathan M. Hall, 2022-12-22 Is it possible to trace the footprints of the historical Sokrates in Athens Was there really an individual named Romulus and if so when did he found Rome Is the tomb beneath the high altar of St Peter's Basilica home to the apostle Peter To answer these questions we need both dirt and words that is archaeology and history Bringing the two fields into conversation Artifact and Artifice offers an exciting excursion into the relationship between ancient history and archaeology and reveals the possibilities and limitations of using archaeological evidence in writing about the past Jonathan M Hall employs a series of well known cases to investigate how historians may ignore or minimize material evidence that contributes to our knowledge of antiquity unless it correlates with information gleaned from texts Dismantling the myth that archaeological evidence cannot impart information on its own he illuminates the methodological and political principles at stake in using such evidence and describes how the disciplines of history and classical archaeology may be enlisted to work together He also provides a brief sketch of how the discipline of classical archaeology evolved and considers its present and future role in historical approaches to antiquity Written in clear prose and packed with maps photos and drawings Artifact and Artifice will be an essential book for undergraduates in the humanities

Ancient Economies of the Northern Aegean Zosia H. Archibald,2013-11 Using the most up to date methods and theories about ancient economies Archibald explores how the cultural and economic dynamics of the ancient kingdoms of Macedon and Thrace worked

Sophocles' Jebb Chris Stray,2020-05-31 Sir Richard Jebb 1841 1905 was the most celebrated classical scholar in late Victorian Britain his edition of Sophocles which remains a classic brought him a knighthood Professor of Greek at Cambridge from 1889 and MP for the University from 1891 until his death Jebb became a national spokesman for the humanities Sophocles Jebb charts his career through 275 newly discovered letters presented here with introductions and full annotation By allowing Jebb and his contemporaries to speak in their own words it enables a significant reassessment of a key cultural figure of late Victorian Britain and sheds fresh light on public and academic debate of the time The volume ends with a new comprehensive list of Jebb s publications

The World of Disney: From Antiquarianism to Archaeology David W. J. Gill,2020-12-17 A biography of Dr John Disney 1779 1857 the benefactor of the first chair in archaeology at a British university He also donated his major collection of Classical sculptures to the University of Cambridge The sculptures continue to be displayed in the Fitzwilliam Museum

Breaking Ground Getzel M. Cohen,Martha Sharp Joukowsky,2010-06-02 At the close of the Victorian era two generations of intrepid women abandoned Grand Tour travel for the rigors of archaeological expeditions shining the light of scientific exploration on Old World antiquity Breaking Ground highlights the remarkable careers of twelve pioneers a compelling narrative of personal social intellectual and historical achievement Claire Lyons The Getty Museum Behind these pioneering women lie a wide range of fascinating and inspiring life stories Though each of their tales is unique they were all formidable scholars whose important contributions changed the field of archaeology Kudos to the authors for making their stories and accomplishments known to us all Jodi Magness University of North Carolina Chapel Hill This book presents twelve fascinating women whose contributions to the development and progress of Old World archaeology in an area ranging from Italy to Mesopotamia have been immeasurable Each essay in this collection examines the life of a pioneer archaeologist in the early days of the discipline tracing her path from education in the classics to travel and exploration and eventual international recognition in the field of archaeology The lives of these women may serve as models both for those interested in gender studies and the history of archaeology because in fact they broke ground both as women and as archaeologists The interest inherent in these biographies will reach well beyond defined disciplines and subdisciplines for the life of each of these exciting and accomplished individuals is an adventure story in itself
