Ballynahatty Barrie Hartwell,Sarah Gormley,Catriona Brogan,Caroline Malone,2023-08-15 Just six miles from the center of Belfast County Down on the plateau of Ballynahatty above the River Lagan is one of Ireland's great Neolithic henge monuments the 200 m wide Giant's Ring For over a thousand years this area was the focus of intense funerary ritual seemingly designed to send the dead to their ancestors and secure the land for the living Scattered through the fields to the north and west of the Ring are flat cemeteries standing stones tombs cists and ring barrows ancient monuments that were leveled by the plough when the land was enclosed in the 18th and 19th centuries A great 90 m long timber enclosure with an elaborate entrance and inner temple was first observed through crop marks in aerial photos Excavation of the site between 1990 1999 revealed a complex structure composed of over 400 postholes many over 2 m deep This was a building in the grand style elegantly designed to control space views and access to an inner sanctum containing a platform for exposure of the dead By 2550 BC the timber temple had been swept away in a massive conflagration and the remains dismantled Ballynahatty was one of the last great public ceremonial enterprises known to have been constructed by the Neolithic farmers in Northern Ireland an enterprise proclaiming their enigmatic religion ancestral rights and territorial aspirations

This report reconstructs the remarkable building complex and explains the sophistication and organization of its construction and use. The report sets the site and excavation in the wider development of the Ballynahatty landscape and its study to the present day.

In the Lord's recovery during the past five hundred years the church's knowledge of the Lord and His truth has been continually progressing. This monumental and classical work by Brother Witness Lee builds upon and is a further development of all that the Lord has revealed to His church in the past centuries. It is filled with the revelation concerning the processed Triune God, the living Christ, the life-giving Spirit, the experience of life, and the definition and practice of the church. In this set, Brother Lee has kept three basic principles that should rule and govern every believer in their interpretation, development, and expounding of the truths contained in the Scriptures. The first principle is that of the Triune God dispensing Himself into His chosen and redeemed people; the second principle is that we should interpret, develop, and expound the truths contained in the Bible with Christ for the church; and the third governing principle is Christ, the Spirit, life, and the church. No other study or exposition of the New Testament conveys the life, nourishment, or ushers the reader into the divine revelation of God's holy Word according to His New Testament economy as this one does.
