Bulliet,1990 Why for many centuries was the wheel abandoned in the Middle East in favor of the camel as a means of transport This richly illustrated study explains this anomaly Drawing on archaeology art technology anthropology linguistics and camel husbandry Bulliet explores the implications for the region s economic and social development during the Middle Ages and into modern times On the Ecology of Australia's Arid Zone Hans Lambers,2018-08-21 This book will appeal to an international audience as well as be irresistible to local readers Anyone working or with an interest in Australia s arid zone should need ready access to this book There is no equivalent publication out there at the moment and this book has many authoritative chapters richly illustrated with colourful material The challenge of this book was to assemble current knowledge on particular topics and concepts and principles relating to them It is also forward looking by identifying where there are gaps or inadequacies in knowledge and where future research needs to be directed Lead authors were encouraged to take such an approach they had the opportunity to involve any author they considered appropriate The final product should be a fabulous resource also for university courses especially at MSc level Successful Exploration through the Interior of Australia

Valentine Williams,Douglas Valentine,2021-11-12 Successful Exploration through the Interior of Australia offers a profound exploration into the thematic intricacies of survival cultural encounters and the unyielding spirit of discovery This anthology fuses a rich tapestry of narratives drawing together various literary styles ranging from journalistic recounts to reflective prose The collection is significant for its ability to portray the harshness and beauty of the Australian interior while unearthing the human stories tied to the land s uncharted vastness Each piece distinct in its portrayal of exploration collectively amplifies the overarching theme of human perseverance amid the enigmatic wilderness of Australia The anthology shines through the contributions of Valentine Williams and Douglas Valentine whose backgrounds and expertise bring unique perspectives to the exploration narrative Their writings align with the historical context of Australian exploration capturing the essence of an era marked by curiosity and cultural convergence The authors deeply entrenched in their cultural and literary movements offer insights that span not only geographical discoveries but also delve into the sociocultural dynamics of the time Their works collectively enrich the narrative providing a layered understanding of Australia s interior landscapes and its historical significance Readers are invited to engage with this collection for a multifaceted exploration of Australia s interior The book serves as an educational journey offering a panoramic view of the diverse challenges and triumphs of exploration endeavors Emphasizing the multiplicity of perspectives styles and themes it is an essential read for those seeking a deeper understanding of Australia s exploration history and its cultural repercussions This anthology stands as a testament to the enduring dialogue between explorers and the untamed landscapes they navigated

Australia and the Middle East Fethi Mansouri,2006-08-25 What is the history behind Australia s relations with the Muslim world and the Middle East in particular which led Australia to be described as a frontline of the so called War on Terror Australia s encounters with the Middle East have historically been defined through the British Empire the Commonwealth and more recently through its close strategic ties with the US This book traces the nature of the Australia

Middle East relationship from an insular White Australia ideology through to the ongoing global impact of September 11 and the decision to send troops to Iraq and Afghanistan Comprehensive analysis of these complex ties provides an essential basis for understanding past encounters evaluating present policies and developing a framework for future interactions Australia and the Middle East draws together the various dimensions and themes of this relationship from trade and migration to increasing strategic interest and military involvement in the region

Colonial Cousins Joyce P. Westrip, Peggy Holroyde, 2010 An exploration of the historic relationship between Australia and India

The Last Blank Spaces Dane Kennedy, 2013-03-01 The challenge of opening Africa and Australia to British imperial influence fell to a coterie of proto professional explorers who sought knowledge adventure and fame but often experienced confusion fear and failure The Last Blank Spaces follows the arc of these explorations from idea to practice intention to outcome myth to reality

Australia's Greatest Need James William Sackett Tomlin, 1914

Historical Animal Geographies Sharon Wilcox, Stephanie Rutherford, 2018-05-11 Arguing that historical analysis is an important yet heretofore largely underexplored dimension of scholarship in animal geographies this book seeks to define historical animal geography as the exploration of how spatially situated human animal relations have changed through time This volume centers on the changing relationships among people animals and the landscapes they inhabit taking a spatio temporal approach to animal studies Foregrounding the assertion that geography matters as much as history in terms of how humans relate to animals this collection offers unique insight into the lives of animals past how interrelationships were co constructed amongst and between animals and humans and how nonhuman actors came to make their own worlds This collection of chapters explores the rich value of work at the contact points between three sub disciplines demonstrating how geographical analyses enrich work in historical animal studies that historical work is important to animal geography and that recognition of animals as actors can further enrich historical geographic research

Muslims In Australia Nahid Kabir, 2013-01-11 Muslims in Australia investigates the basis of Australian society s fear of Muslims by tracing their history since the Afghan settlement in 1860 The author investigates how events such as September 11 and Bali terrorist attacks reinforce suspicion and fear giving an insight into what it means to be a Muslim in contemporary Australia and how the actions of militant Islamic groups have impacted upon Muslims in general in Western society

Religious Change and Indigenous Peoples Helena Onnudottir, Adam Possamai, 2016-04-08 Exploring religious and spiritual changes which have been taking place among Indigenous populations in Australia and New Zealand this book focuses on important changes in religious affiliation in census data over the last 15 years Drawing on both local social and political debates while contextualising the discussion in wider global debates about changing religious identities especially the growth of Islam the authors present a critical analysis of the persistent images and discourses on Aboriginal religions and spirituality This book takes a comparative approach to other Indigenous and minority groups to explore contemporary changes in religious affiliation which have raised questions about resistance to modernity challenges to the nation state and or rejection of Christianity or Islam Helena Onnudottir Adam Posssamai and Bryan Turner offer a critical analysis to on going public political and sociological debates about religious conversion especially to Islam and changing religious affiliations including an increase in the number of people who claim no religion among Indigenous populations This book also offers a major contribution to the growing debate about conversion to Islam among Australian Aborigines Maoris and Pacific peoples

Sporting and Leather Goods Trader, 1914

The Making of Modern Muslim Selves through Architecture Farhan S. Karim, Patricia Blessing, 2023-10-20 This collection seeks to explore alternative definitions of bounded identities facilitating new approaches to spatial and architectural forms Taking as its starting point the emergence of a new sense of boundary emerged from the post 19th century dissolution of large heterogeneous empires into a mosaic of nation states in the Islamic world This new sense of boundaries has not only determined the ways in which we imagine and construct the idea of modern citizenship but also redefines relationships between the nation citizenship cities and architecture It brings critical perspectives to our understanding of the interrelation between the accumulated flows and the evolving concepts of boundary in predominantly Muslim societies and within the global Muslim diaspora Essays in this book seeks to investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness that have been devised to define enable obstruct accumulate and or control flows able to disrupt bounded territories or identities More generally the book explores how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implication of defining modern self The essays in this volume collectively address how the construction of self is primarily a spatial event and operated within the crucial nexus of power knowledge space Contributors investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implications for how we define the modern self Part of the Critical Studies in Architecture of the Middle East series
