put a handkerchief over its face and take things easy for a bit But not Chas Bywater At the moment at which this story begins he was all bustle and activity and had just finished selling to Colonel Meredith Wyvern a bottle of Brophy s Paramount Elixir said to be good for gnat bites Having concluded his purchase Colonel Wyvern would have preferred to leave but Mr Bywater was a man who liked to sweeten trade with pleasant conversation Moreover this was the first time the Colonel had been inside his shop since that sensational affair up at the Hall two weeks ago and Chas Bywater who held the unofficial position of chief gossip monger to the village was aching to get to the bottom of that With the bare outline of the story he was of course familiar Rudge Hall seat of the Carmody family for so many generations contained in its fine old park a number of trees which had been planted somewhere about the reign of Queen Elizabeth This meant that every now and then one of them would be found to have become a wobbly menace to the passer by so that experts had to be sent for to reduce it with a charge of dynamite to a harmless stump Well two weeks ago it seems they had blown up one of the Hall s Elizabethan oaks and as near as a toucher Rudge learned had blown up Colonel Wyvern and Mr Carmody with it The two friends had come walking by just as the expert set fire to the train and had had a very narrow escape Thus far the story was common property in the village and had been discussed nightly in the eleven tap rooms of its eleven public houses But Chas Bywater with his trained nose for news and that sixth sense which had so often enabled him to ferret out the story behind the story when things happen in the upper world of the nobility and gentry could not help feeling that there was more in it than this He decided to give his customer the opportunity of confiding in him
