The Epic Films of David Lean Constantine Santos, 2012 In this volume David Lean's now undervalued epics The Bridge on the River Kwai, Lawrence of Arabia, Doctor Zhivago, Ryan's Daughter and A Passage to India are restored to the elevated esteem they once held Film Review, 1996 The Design of Sites van Duyne (Douglas K.), James A. Landay, Jason I. Hong, 2003 Creating a Web site is easy Creating a well crafted Web site that provides a winning experience for your audience and enhances your profitability is another matter It takes research skill experience and careful thought to build a site that maximizes retention and repeat visits The Laser Disc Newsletter, 1996 Dvd Savant Glenn Erickson, 2004-11-01 A compilation of selected review essays from Erickson's DVD Savant internet column Japanese and Hong Kong Film Industries Shuk-ting, Kinnia Yau, 2009-09-11 Drawing on first hand materials collected from the Chinese and Japanese literature as well as interviews with more than twenty filmmakers and scholars Kinnia Shuk-ting Yau provides a solid historical account of the complex interactions between Japanese and Hong Kong film industries from the 1930s to 1970s The author describes in detail how Japan's efforts during the 1930s and 1940s to produce a Greater East Asian cinema led to many different kinds of collaborations between the filmmakers from China Hong Kong and Japan and how such development had laid the foundation for more exchanges between the cinemas in the post war period The period covered by the book is the least understood period of the East Asian film history Filling the gaps surrounding one of the most important but least understood periods of Asian film history this book discusses facts and resources once obscured by controversial issues related to wartime affairs with new insights and perspectives This book is an invaluable source of information for understanding how the current East Asian film networks came into existence by looking beyond conventional single case studies and adopting a transnational perspective in tracing the connections between different film industries Ultimate DVD Peter M. Bracke, 2004 Enhanced by interviews with producers directors and other champions of the DVD format this helpful handbook profiles the one hundred finest DVDs currently available covering such areas as documentaries cast and crew commentaries trailers deleted scenes interactive video games and more as well as tips on building the ultimate home DVD library The Distorters of History: Unexpected Changes in the Media and the Motion Picture Industry with Movies Forever Expanded-Updated Edition Robert D. Ronson, 2013-06-20 If some authorities say the political history is Ronson's interpretation then ask them why the facts are found in the World Almanac Controversial issues in politics and greed dominate our society with power struggles for change My book tries to show how past mistakes lead up to how our system is working now but also discusses what I think are enjoyable films that adequately entertain the average person looking for temporary escapism Most critics or journalists analyze evaluate and review films in terms of production values or political reasons I simply buy a ticket and walk in as a member of the audience After the movie asking myself questions how well I liked it is what I pass on to the viewer When Eagles Dared Howard Hughes, 2012-01-30 When Eagles Dared is a salute to the men and women who participated in World War II and the filmmakers who have immortalised their stories on screen It tells both the story of the historical events of this first truly world war and of the films that have depicted these events comparing the cinematic myth with the historical reality as a guide to history through cinema When Eagles Dared portrays the people who participated in the war from the evacuation of the Allied forces from France at Dunkirk through to the battle for Berlin and beyond Each chapter discusses a theatre of war an event a campaign or battle by explaining the historical events as they unfold and then examines how filmmakers have represented them Chapters discuss the war in the skies Battle of Britain and The Dam Busters the sea Sink the Bismarck and The Cruel Sea and the North African desert The Battle of El Alamein and Tobruk There are special mission movies including Where Eagles Dare and The Dirty Dozen classic tales of ingenuity The Great Escape valour Saving Private Ryan and human endurance The Bridge on the River Kwai Offering a unique view of war through the lenses of over 150 diverse films that have shaped our perceptions of the conflict When Eagles Dared is illustrated with rare stills and posters from this ever popular genre      Movie Roadshows Kim R.

Holston,2012-12-13 This work examines a film distribution system paralleling the rise of early features and persisting until 1972 when Man of La Mancha was the final roadshow to require reserved seating Synonymous with Hollywood s star studded premieres roadshows were longer and cost more than regular features making the experience similar to attending the legitimate theater Roadshows often epic in subject matter played selected usually only one theaters in major urban centers until demand decreased De rigueur by the 1960s were musical overtures intermissions entre acte and exit music and souvenir programs for sale in the lobby Throughout the text are recollections by people who attended roadshows including actor John Kerr and actresses Barbara Eden and Ingrid Pitt The focus is on roadshows released in the United States but an appendix identifies international roadshows and films forecast but not released as roadshows Included are plots contemporary critical reaction premiere dates production background and methods of promotion i e the ballyhoo      Phil's Favorite 500 Phil Berardelli,2015-08-10 Phil Berardelli has been in love with movies ever since his first encounter as a little boy thrilled him and then scared the daylights out of him In the intervening years including a six year stint as a TV movie critic Phil has seen at least 5 000 titles Here he has put together a list of his 500 favorites which he has separated into 50 categories He has accompanied each one with informative witty and often insightful capsule comments along with bits of trivia formatting descriptions and where available links to online trailers clips and full length versions Newly updated for 2014 and containing 24 new titles plus a new section of recommended books Phil s Favorite 500 encompasses everything Phil has learned in over half a century of moviegoing The list includes something for everyone adults couples children teens and families and covers some of the greatest movies ever made both in the U S and elsewhere as well as some of the cinema s most entertaining clunkers Many of his choices and omissions may surprise you But in all cases Phil makes compelling arguments for sampling these titles If you do sample them you might just find yourself adding many of them to your own list of favorites Sampled browsed or read from beginning to end Phil's Favorite 500 reflects a love of the medium that is contagious and his descriptions will help you view even the most familiar movies in a new and very entertaining way Los Angeles Magazine, 2000-10 Los Angeles Magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles Magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian

Gehring, 2013-04-20 The poster child victim of a dysfunctional family from Beech Grove Indiana Steve McQueen experienced an unsettled early life with a rebellious and alcoholic mother McQueen channeled his difficult childhood into a masterful career on screen portraying tough self sufficient characters in such iconic films as The Magnificent Seven 1960 The Great Escape 1963 The Sand Pebbles 1966 Bullitt 1968 Gehring explores how McQueen rose from his days as a troubled youth into one of Hollywood's top box office stars and how he attempted to ease the lives of other troubled youth Gehring delves into McQueen's early success his rocky relationships with women his sense of humor his love of fast cars and motorcycles and his often neglected acting

Licence to Thrill James Chapman, 2000 Bondmania hasn't ebbed for 40 years and this book explains why Britain's most celebrated secret agent and the stories around him have enraptured the world for so long Film stills A Cinematic History of War & Epics Mark Wilshin, 2005 Examines the development of the war film genre from early works such as Ben Hur to realistic modern war films such as Saving Private Ryan Hollywood Remaking Kathleen Loock, 2024-04-02 From the inception of cinema to today's franchise era remaking has always been a motor of ongoing textual production Hollywood Remaking critically examines the persistent economic and cultural relevance of film remakes series sequels crossovers spin offs and prequels that emerge from the large scale system of remaking actively shape how the film industry cinema and audiences imagine themselves as these movies constantly negotiate past and present stability and change through a serial dynamic of repetition and variation The book develops a theory of Hollywood remaking as an inherently dynamic practice situated between the film industry's economic logic and the cultural imaginary and analyzes how remaking has developed as a business practice in the United States how it has been imagined discursively constructed and defined by networked stakeholders from production and reception contexts how it has shaped cinematic aesthetics and cultural debates and how it has fostered film historical knowledge promoted feelings of generational belonging among audiences and become deeply enmeshed with constructions of the self Movies for the Moron - 50 Movies to own, watch, and learn about so people don't think you're a movie moron Paul Lefebvre,2006-07-12 A guide to 50 movies you should watch learn about and own so people don't think you're a movie moron      The New Hollywood Historical Film Tom Symmons,2016-06-13

The New Hollywood of the late 1960s and 1970s is among the most exciting and influential periods in the history of film This book explores how the new wave of historical films were profoundly shaped by the controversies and concerns of the present

Past and Present James Chapman,2005-09-23 This ground breaking book takes as its focal point director Ken Loach's view that The only reason to make films that are a reflection on history is to talk about the present In the first book to take on this major genre in all its complexity James Chapman argues that historical films say as much about the times in which they are made as about the past they purport to portray Through in depth case studies of fourteen key films spanning the 1930s up to the turn of the twenty first century from The Private Life of Henry VIII and Zulu to Chariots of Fire and Elizabeth Chapman examines the place of historical films in British cinema history and film culture Looking closely at the issues that they present from gender class and ethnicity to militarism and imperialism he also discusses controversies over historical accuracy and the ways in which devices such as voice overs title captions and visual references to photographs and paintings assert a sense of historical verisimilitude Exploring throughout the book the dialectical relationship between past and present Chapman reveals how such films promote British achievements but also sometimes question them and how they project images of Britishness to audiences both in the UK and internationally
