The Works of George Moore: The Brook Kerith, a Syrian story. 1931 George Moore, 1931 The Brook Kerith; a Syrian Story. By: George Moore George Moore, 2016-12-03 1916 Irish novelist playwright poet and critic his epic The Brook Kerith begins It was at the end of a summer evening long after his usual bedtime that Joseph sitting on his grandmother's knee heard her tell that Kish having lost his asses sent Saul his son to seek them in the land of the Benjamites and the land of Shalisha whither

they might have started But they were not in these lands Son she continued nor in Zulp whither Saul went afterwards and being then tired out with looking for them he said to the servant we shall do well to forget the asses lest my father should ask what has become of us See other titles by this author available from Kessinger Publishing George Augustus Moore 24 February 1852 21 January 1933 was an Irish novelist short story writer poet art critic memoirist and dramatist Moore came from a Roman Catholic landed family who lived at Moore Hall in Carra County Mayo He originally wanted to be a painter and studied art in Paris during the 1870s There he befriended many of the leading French artists and writers of the day As a naturalistic writer he was amongst the first English language authors to absorb the lessons of the French realists and was particularly influenced by the works of mile Zola His writings influenced James Joyce according to the literary critic and biographer Richard Ellmann and although Moore s work is sometimes seen as outside the mainstream of both Irish and British literature he is as often regarded as the first great modern Irish novelist George Moore was born in Moore Hall in 1852 As a child Moore enjoyed the novels of Walter Scott which his father read to him He spent a good deal of time outdoors with his brother Maurice George Moore and also became friendly with the young Willie and Oscar Wilde who spent their summer holidays at nearby Moytura Oscar was to later quip of Moore He conducts his education in public His father had again turned his attention to horse breeding and in 1861 brought his champion horse Croagh Patrick to England for a successful racing season together with his wife and nine year old son For a while George was left at Cliff s stables until his father decided to send George to his alma mater facilitated by his winnings Moore s formal education started at St Mary s College Oscott a Catholic boarding school near Birmingham where he was the youngest of 150 boys He spent all of 1864 at home having contracted a lung infection brought about by a breakdown in his health His academic performance was poor while he was hungry and unhappy In January 1865 he returned to St Mary s College with his brother Maurice where he refused to study as instructed and spent time reading novels and poems That December the principal Spencer Northcote wrote a report that he hardly knew what to say about George By the summer of 1867 he was expelled for in his own words idleness and general worthlessness and returned to Mayo His father once remarked about George and his brother Maurice I fear those two redheaded boys are stupid an observation which proved untrue for all four boys

Henry Handel Richardson Vol 2
Edited By Clive Probyn and Bruce Steele, 2013-07-17 The publication of Henry Handel Richardson's correspondence will be a major event in Australian scholarly publishing It will be the first time any Australian literary writer has had his/her correspondence published in its entirety The letters of Henry Handel Richardson deposited in the National Library of Australia in Canberra and in the Mitchell Library in Sydney were opened in March 1996 to unrestricted access after a fifty year period of closed access The executrix of the HHR estate has determined however that none of the letters may be published in whole or in part until after Probyn and Steele's edition of the complete correspondence has been released At present there are approximately 1800 unpublished manuscript letters to and from HHR of which at least 1000 are in her own hand They form a correspondence between Australia England Germany Italy and the USA for the period 1874 to 1946 Within the total number there are two quite distinct and major sub groups the first 1910-14 being a collection of both sides of the correspondence between HHR and the French translator of Maurice Guest Paul Solanges the second 1911-46 letters between HHR and Mary A Kernot of Melbourne As well as the letters held in the National and Mitchell libraries the editors possess an entire sequence of letters from William Heinemann to HHR and her husband John George Robertson detailing the publication history of Ultima Thule the final volume of The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney the trilogy which cemented her international reputation They are adding to the collection almost monthly but have reason to believe that about 90% of the extant letters are now in their possession The letters as might be expected shed much new light on HHR's biography her artistic methods her personal life her friendships and antagonisms her response to Australian readers and to expatriation and her efforts to maintain a literary life apart from her personal life The series includes HHR's earliest letter her student days in Leipzig the publication of Maurice Guest The Getting of Wisdom The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney The End of a Childhood and The Young Cosima and her experience of life in wartime England Some of the most vivid letters describe her schooldays the biographical context for The Getting of Wisdom her memories of the Australian bush her relationship with Vance and Nettie Palmer her meetings with Miles Franklin her views on contemporary writing and life in wartime England In particular the letters to and from Solanges are packed with information about the writing the autobiographical roots and the meaning of Maurice Guest The letters to Kernot provide constant linkages between life in England and Australia during the most formative period for modern Australian literature including the negotiations for HHR's Nobel Prize nomination

The Historical Jesus and the Literary Imagination, 1860-1920 Jennifer Stevens, 2010-01-01 A PDF version of this book is available for free in open access via the OAPEN Library platform www.oapen.org Fictional reconstructions of the Gospels continue to find a place in contemporary literature and in the popular imagination Present day writers of New Testament fiction and drama are usually considered as part of a tradition formed by mid to late twentieth century authors such as Robert Graves

Nikos Kazantzakis and Anthony Burgess This book looks back further to the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries when the templates of the majority of today's Gospel fictions and dramas were set down In doing so it examines the extent to which significant works of biblical scholarship both influenced and inspired literary works Focusing on writers such as Oscar Wilde George Moore and Marie Corelli this timely new addition to the English Association Monographs series will be essential reading for scholars working at the intersection of literature and theology
