The Buddhist Vision A Path To Fullfillment:

Hooked! Stephanie Kaza, 2005-02-08 At one time or another most of us have experienced an all consuming desire for a material object a desire so strong that it seems like we couldn't possibly be happy without buying this thing Yet when we give in to this impulse we often find ourselves feeling frustrated and empty Advertisers of course aim to hook us in this way and from a global perspective our tendency to get hooked fuels the rampant over consumption that is having a devastating impact on the world's stability and on the environment According to the contributors to this unique anthology Buddhism can shed valuable light on our compulsions to consume Craving and attachment how they arise and how to free ourselves of them are central themes of Buddhist thought The writings in this volume most of which have never been previously published offer fresh perspectives and much needed correctives to our society's tendency to believe that having more will make us happier Hooked includes a range of writings on how to apply Buddhist thought and ethics to understand and combat the problem of over consumption as individuals and collectively Contributors include popular Western teachers Asian masters scholars and practitioners such as Pema Chodron on what is actually happening at the moment we're hooked and how to get beyond that Joseph Goldstein on how mindfulness training can help us stop wanting to want Bhikshuni Thubten Chodron on how consumer mentality influences spiritual practice Judith Simmer Brown on how cultivating spiritually based activism and compassionate action can help us address the negative effects of consumerism Rita Gross on how understanding moderation can curb overconsumption Santikaro Bhikkhu on practicing generosity in a consumer world

The Buddha and Religious Diversity J. Abraham Vélaz de Cea, 2013 Providing a rigorous analysis of Buddhist ways of understanding religious diversity this book develops a new foundation for cross cultural understanding of religious diversity in our time Examining the complexity and uniqueness of Buddha's approach to religious pluralism using four main categories namely exclusivism inclusivism pluralistic inclusivism and pluralism the book proposes a cross cultural and interreligious interpretation of each category thus avoiding the accusation of intellectual colonialism The key argument is that unlike the Buddha most Buddhist traditions today including Theravada Buddhism and even the Dalai Lama consider liberation and the highest stages of spiritual development exclusive to Buddhism The book suggests that the Buddha rejects many doctrines and practices found in other traditions and that for him there are nonnegotiable ethical and doctrinal standards that correspond to the Dharma This argument is controversial and likely to ignite a debate among Buddhists from different traditions especially between conservative and progressive Buddhists The book fruitfully contributes to the literature on inter religious dialogue and is of use to students and scholars of Asian Studies World Religion and Eastern Philosophy

The Journey of One Buddhist Nun Sid Brown, 2001-09-27 Recounts the struggles of a young Thai woman to become a Buddhist nun and the challenges and rewards of that life

The Buddhist Experience Stephan V. Beyer, 1974 Buddhist Environmental Humanism Anthony Le Duc, 2025-03-11 Since the emergence of the field of religious environmentalism Buddhism has been a key resource in shaping a religious environmental ethics This book contributes to the global dialogue on religion and ecology by introducing the concept of Buddhist environmental humanism as a framework for understanding Buddhism's response to the contemporary ecological crisis The author argues that through a humanistic lens Buddhist environmentalism offers a deeper understanding of how Buddhism addresses the pressing challenges facing humanity while also properly ascribing agency and responsibility to humans within the broader community of beings Central to this proposal is a recognition of the essential human role within the ecological crisis while carefully avoiding the pitfalls of anthropocentrism and human chauvinism

Zen Ecology Christopher Ives, 2025-03-11 Discover a way of living that can help you slow down and stay grounded and at the same time reduce your ecological impact and engage more fully with the climate crisis It may seem as though living ecologically and engaging in activism sacrifices our own enjoyment and happiness on the altar of doing the right thing In this book professor naturalist and Buddhist author Christopher Ives offers an alternative a way of living that can actually be more fulfilling than the modern consumerist lifestyle Rather than deprivation it can bring us richness In Zen Ecology Chris outlines his environmental ethic as a series of concentric circles beginning with ourselves and then moving outward into our communities all the while focusing on spaciousness mindfulness generosity and contentment At the individual level we deal with distraction clutter and ecological harm Here Chris offers ways to help us pay attention simplify our lives and lower our impact Then we explore how to envision our home as a place of the Way with Zen monastic life as a model for this without having to be a monk Next we realize our embeddedness in nature and emplace ourselves in community with others including other forms of life Finally we build on this basis to engage in activism to create a world that is more supportive of ecological health and spiritual fulfillment In this way we avoid the two extremes of apathy and burnout and uncover a way of living that is simple joyful embedded in nature connected to others in community and supportive of collective action

In the Path of the Masters Denise Lardner Carmody, John Tully Carmody, 2015-05-20 Reflecting on the legacy of four great religious figures this book places each in their historical context offers glimpses of what they were like personally assesses how they saved their followers from confusion and traces each religious tradition after its founder's death

The Emptiness of Emptiness C. W. Huntington,Namgyal Wangchen,1995-01-01 The Emptiness of Emptiness presents the first English translation of the complete text of the Madhyamakavatara Entry into the Middle Way a sixth century Sanskrit Buddhist composition that was widely studied in Tibet and presumably in its native India as well In his lengthy introduction to the translation Huntington offers a judiciously crafted highly original discussion of the central philosophy of Mahayana Buddhism He lays out the principal ideas of emptiness and dependent origination not as abstract philosophical concepts but rather as powerful tools for restructuring the nature of human experience at the most fundamental level Drawing on a variety of Indian and Western sources both ancient and modern Huntington gradually leads the reader toward an understanding of how it is that sophisticated philosophical thinking can serve as a means for breaking down attachment to any idea opinion or belief All of this on the Buddhist premise that habitual unreflective identification with ideas opinions or beliefs compromises our appreciation of the ungraspable miracle that lies at the heart of everyday conventional reality The author shows how the spiritual path of the bodhisattva works to transform the individual personality from a knot of clinging into a vehicle for the expression of profound wisdom prajna and unconditional love karuna

Calming the Mind and Discerning the Real Tsong-kha-pa Blo-bzang-grags-pa,1997 Lam rim Chen mo roughly the great book on stages of the path to enlightenment is the abbreviated title of a massive encyclopaedic manual written by Tsonkha pa the founder of the gelugpa sect of Tibetan Buddhism Calming the mind and Discerning the Real marks the first appearance in English of the two most important segments of this work

To Become a Sage Hwang Yi, 1988 Yi Hwang 1501 1570 better known by his pen name T oegye is generally considered Korea s preeminent Neo Confucian scholar The Ten Diagrams on Sage Learning is his final masterpiece a distillation of the learning and practice of a lifetime and one of the most important works of Korean Neo Confucianism In it he crystallized the essence of Neo Confucian philosophy and spiritual practice in ten brief chapters that begin with the grand vision of the universe and conclude with a description of a well lived day In To Become a Sage Michael Kalton supplements a superb translation of this pivotal text with useful commentary that will greatly enhance its value and interest to the lay reader The Ten Diagrams is the first complete primary text of Korean Neo Confucianism to be translated into English Korea s Yi Dynasty 1392 1910 the only East Asian regime founded exclusively under Neo Confucian auspices was unique in its allegiance to the orthodox Ch eng Chu school predominant in China Korea and Japan Although the Ten Diagrams is a relatively short work it fully presents the entire vision of Neo Confucianism as framed in that school Kalton provides a brief history of Neo Confucianism in China and Korea as well as commentary that includes extensive passages from T oegye s voluminous personal correspondence These annotations expand the meaning distilled in each chapter They help the uninitiated reader understand the basic elements of the complex Ch eng Chu school of Neo Confucianism while enabling the scholar to distinguish characteristic aspects of Korean Neo Confucianism as presented in the thought of the nation s leading philosopher of the time of the Self is a groundbreaking investigation into what is known in Tibet as secret autobiography an exceptional rarely studied literary genre that presents a personal exploration of intimate religious experiences In this volume Janet Gyatso translates and studies the outstanding pair of secret autobiographies by the famed Tibetan Buddhist visionary Jigme Lingpa 1730-1798 whose poetic and self-conscious writings are as much about the nature of his own identity memory and the undecidabilities of autobiographical truth as they are narrations of the actual content of his experiences Their translation in this book marks the first time that works of this sort have been translated in a Western language Gyatso is among the first to consider Tibetan literature from a comparative perspective examining the surprising fit as well as the misfit of Western literary theory with Tibetan autobiography She examines the intriguing questions of why Tibetan Buddhists produced so many autobiographies far more than other Asian Buddhists and how autobiographical self-assertion is possible even while Buddhists believe that the self is ultimately an illusion Also explored are Jigme Lingpa's historical milieu his revelatory visions of the ancient Tibetan dynasty and his meditative practices of personal cultivation The book concludes with a study of the subversive female figure of the Dakini in Jigme Lingpa's writings and the implications of her gender her sexuality and her unsettling discourse for the autobiographical subject in Tibet
