The Busy Mans Old Testament:

The Busy Man's Old Testament Leslie Dixon Weatherhead,1971 Many people today avoid reading the Old Testament simply because these books present such a mixture of the relevant and the irrelevant that the busy man can find little time to discover the passages which speak to his contemporary situations With this problem in view Leslie D Weatherhead offers an invaluable and thoroughly delightful guide to the Old Testament Dr Weatherhead assumes each person will use his Bible in conjunction with this book and suggests the verses and books which should be read and those which may be omitted In this way less important passages such as the regulations for priests in Leviticus are excluded by the author while he unites the great themes of both Testaments explains much of the history behind the familiar stories and brings a greater insight into God s plan for mankind Here at last is a guide to the Old Testament which will be welcomed by the busy man everywhere
