continent The book reads into encounters with the exotic animals from nanban art realist Dutch influenced illustrations through misemono roadshows of the first camel pair imported in 1821 Modernity and Japan's wars of Pan Asiatic fantasies associated camels with Asia's poverty bringing camels into zoos tourist venues and military zones as lowly beasts of burden while postwar images project the imago of exotica and foreignness on camels as Buddhist peace messengers Zohar convincingly argues that in the Japanese imagination camels serve as signifiers of Asia as Otherness the opposite of Japan's desire for self association with Western cultures

Sailing with Noah Jeffrey P. Bonner, 2013-06-03 Written by the president of the nation's number one zoo Sailing with Noah is an intensely personal behind the scenes look at modern zoos Jeffrey P Bonner who was trained as an anthropologist and came to the zoo world quite by accident shares some of the most compelling stories ever told about contemporary zoos The stories jump between zoos in different cities and between countries on different continents Some are fun and funny Others are sad even tragic Pete Hoskins the director of the Philadelphia Zoo is in bed sound asleep when his phone rings There's been a fire in the World of Primates he is told You've got to get over here Whatever he has been dreaming it is nothing like the nightmare he will find now that he is awake They're all gone They're all gone All of the animals in the building the gorillas the lemurs the orangutans and the gibbons all twenty three of them are dead Written in a lively accessible style Sailing with Noah explores the role of zoos in today's society and their future as institutions of education conservation and research Along the way Bonner relates a variety of true stories about animals and those who care for them or abuse them offering his perspective on heavily publicized incidents and describing less well known events with compassion and humor in turn By bringing the stories of the animals lives before us Bonner gives them a voice He strongly believes that zoos must act for living things and he argues that conservation is a shared responsibility of all mankind This book helps us to understand why biodiversity is important and what it means to be a steward of life on earth From the day to day aspects of caring for some of the world's most exotic creatures to the role of zoos as field conservation organizations saving wild things in wild places this book takes the reader on an incredible journey a journey that begins within the zoo and continues around the globe Everyone from zoo visitors to animal lovers to professional conservationists the young and old alike will be fascinated by this extraordinary book
