Photographic Theory Andrew E. Hershberger, 2014-01-07 Hershberger is the winner of a 2015 Insight Award from the Society for Photographic Education for his work on this book and for his overall contributions to the field Photographic Theory An Historical Anthology presents a compendium of readings spanning ancient times to the digital age that are related to the history nature and current status of debates in photographic theory Offers an authoritative and academically up to date compendium of the history of photographic theory Represents the only collection to include ancient Renaissance and 19th 20th and 21st century writings related to the subject Stresses the drama of historical and contemporary debates within theoretical circles Features comprehensive coverage of recent trends in digital photography Fills a much needed gap in the existing literature Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21

In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual s relationship with light rather than the investigation of light s essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light s character No individual experience of light being truer than any other The Real Thing Miles

Orvell, 2014-08-25 In this classic study of the relationship between technology and culture Miles Orvell demonstrates that the roots of contemporary popular culture reach back to the Victorian era when mechanical replications of familiar objects reigned supreme and realism dominated artistic representation Reacting against this genteel culture of imitation a number of artists and intellectuals at the turn of the century were inspired by the machine to create more authentic works of art that were themselves real things The resulting tension between a culture of imitation and a culture of authenticity argues Orvell has become a defining category in our culture The twenty fifth anniversary edition includes a new preface by the author looking back on the late twentieth century and assessing tensions between imitation and authenticity in the context of our digital age Considering material culture photography and literature the book touches on influential figures such as writers Walt Whitman Henry James John Dos Passos and James Agee photographers Alfred Stieglitz Walker Evans and Margaret Bourke White and architect designers Gustav Stickley and Frank Lloyd Wright Urban Tomographies Martin H.

Krieger, 2011-03-08 Tomography is a method of exploring a phenomenon through a large number of examples or perspectives In medical tomography such as a CAT scan two dimensional slices or images of a three dimensional organ are used to envision the organ itself Urban tomography applies the same approach to the study of city life To appreciate different aspects of a community from infrastructure to work to worship urban planning expert Martin H Krieger scans the myriad sights and sounds of contemporary Los Angeles He examines these slices of life in Urban Tomographies The book begins by introducing tomographic methods and the principles behind them which are taken from phenomenological philosophy It draws from the examples of Lee Friedlander and Walker Evans as well as Denis Diderot Charles Marville and Eugène Atget who documented the many facets of Paris life in three crucial periods Rather than focus on singular extraordinary figures and events as do most documentarians Krieger looks instead at the typical presenting multiple specific images that call attention to people and activities usually rendered invisible by commonality He took tens of thousands of photographs of industrial sites markets electrical distributing stations and storefront churches throughout Los Angeles He also recorded the city's ambient sounds from the calls of a tamale vendor to the buzz of a workshop saw Krieger considers these samples from the urban sensorium in this innovative volume resulting in a thoughtful illumination of the interplay of people with and within the built environment With numerous maps and photographs as well as Krieger's unique insights Urban Tomographies provides an unusually representative and rounded view of the city

Camera, 1979 Disappearing Witness Gretchen Garner, 2003-07-25 In documenting this transformation in American photography Disappearing Witness forcefully rethinks the history of photography itself

American Photography and the American Dream James Guimond, 1991 Looks at how documentary photographers have contested the idea of the American dream and discusses the work of Francis Benjamin Johnston Lewis Hine Walker Evans Dorothea Lange William Klein Diane Arbus and Robert Frank

Popular Photography, 1980 The Ongoing Moment Geoff Dyer, 2009-11-11 Great photographs change the way we see the world The Ongoing Moment changes the way we look at both Focusing on the ways in which canonical figures like Alfred Stieglitz Paul Strand Walker Evans Andrzej Kertész Edward Weston Dorothea Lange Diane Arbus and William Eggleston have photographed the same things barber shops benches hands roads signs award winning writer Geoff Dyer seeks to identify their signature styles In doing so he constructs a narrative in which these photographers many of whom never met constantly encounter one another The result is a kaleidoscopic work of extraordinary originality and insight

The Camera Viewed Peninah R. Y. Petruck, Peninah R. Petruck, 1979 Divided into two volumes this anthology is organized to follow a loose chronological reading of twentieth century photography The first volume focuses on photography before World War II the second on more current developments Each selection is introduced with a brief explanation of its significance and identification of its author Both volumes contain photographs that highlight the author's viewpoint Title page verso

Depression Glass Monique Vescia, 2014-02-04 First Published in 2006 This is part of the literary criticism and cultural theory collection Situated within the larger narrative of the symbiosis between photography and modern poetry in America during the 1930s each text examined by the author is a discrete object constituting a series of empirical statements expressing certain empirical truths particular to its time and place

Russell Lee: A Photographer's Life and Legacy Mary Jane Appel, 2020-11-17 Russell Lee a contemporary of Walker Evans and Dorothea Lange now emerges from the shadows as one of the most influential documentary photographers in American history The most prolific photographer of the Great Depression Russell Lee has never been canonized for his iconic images With this compulsively readable and definitive biography historian and archivist Mary Jane Appel finally uncovers Lee s rebellious life tracing his journey from blue blood beginnings to intrepid years of activism and pioneering creativity through the incredible body of work he left behind Born in the quintessential turn of the century small town of Ottawa Illinois in 1903 Lee grew up in a wealthy family riddled with tragedy He trained in college to become a chemical engineer but was quickly drawn to Greenwich Village where he developed an interest in social change and the arts In 1935 the charismatic bohemian picked up a camera and a year later walked into the office of Roy Stryker head of the Historical Section of the Resettlement Administration later renamed the Farm Security Administration FSA setting in motion a new life trajectory The Historical Section aimed to capture rural poverty and the New Deal programs designed to abolish it But Stryker imagined a much broader pictorial sourcebook for America and no one on his legendary team including Dorothea Lange Walker Evans and Gordon Parks among others would be more dedicated to reaching this goal than Russell Lee As Appel demonstrates Stryker and Lee developed a fascinating symbiotic relationship that resulted in a massive and complex breadth of work Living out of his car from the fall of 1936 to mid 1942 Lee crisscrossed America s back roads more than any photographer of his era During this time he shot 19 000 negatives that were captioned and printed more than twice that of any other FSA photographer He captured arresting images of sweeping dust storms and devastating floods and chronicled the World War II home front and the last gasp of a small town America that was inexorably vanishing all the while focusing prophetically on issues like segregation and climate change decades before they became national concerns Meticulously weaving previously unseen letters and diaries Appel brilliantly reveals why Lee s profile has remained obscured while his contemporaries became broadly celebrated With more than 100 images spread throughout Russell Lee speaks not only to the complexity of a pioneering documentary photographer s work but to a seminal American moment captured viscerally like never before

Human Creation Between Reality and Illusion Anna-Teresa

Tymieniecka, 2006-06-30 Identifying quickly illusion with deception we tend to oppose it to the reality of life However investigating in this collection of essays illusion s functions in the Arts which thrives upon illusion and yet maintains its existential roots and meaningfulness in the real we might wonder about the nature of reality itself Does not illusion open the seeming confines of factual reality into horizons of imagination which transform it Does it not like art belong essentially to the makeup of human reality Papers by Lanfranco Aceti John Baldacchino Maria Avelina Cecilia Lafuente Jo Ann Circosta Madalina Diaconu Jennifer Anna Gosetti Ferencei Brian Grassom Marguerite Harris Andrew E Hershberger James Carlton Hughes Lawrence Kimmel Jung In Kwon Ruth Ronen Scott A Sherer Joanne Snow Smith Max Statkiewicz Patricia Trutty Coohill Daniel Unger James Werner

On the Museum's Ruins Douglas Crimp, 1993 What determines the significance of a work of art Does it abide eternally within the work Or is it continually constructed and reconstructed from the outside through the work's presentation The historical shift from autonomous modernist object to postmodernist critique of institutions from artwork to discursive context is the subject of Douglas Crimp's essays and Louise Lawler's photographs in On the Museum's Ruins Taking the museum as paradigmatic institution of artistic modernism Crimp surveys its historical origins and current transformations The new paradigm of postmodernism is elaborated through analyses of art practices broadly conceived not only the practices of artists but also those of critics and curators of international exhibitions and of new or refurbished museums back cover

Visual Culture Jessica Evans, Stuart Hall, 1999-07-06 This collection of classic essays in the study of visual culture fills a major gap in this new and expanding intellectual field Its major strength is its insistence on the importance of three central aspects of the study of visual culture the sign the institution and the viewing subject It will provide readers teachers and students with an essential text in visual and cultural studies Janet Wolff University of Rochester

Visual Culture provides an invaluable resource of over 30 key statements from a wide range of disciplines including four editorial essays which place the readings in their historical and theoretical context Although underpinned by a focus on contemporary cultural theory this Reader puts the study of visual culture and the rhetoric of the image at centre stage Divided into three parts Cultures of the Visual Regulating Photographic Meaning and Looking and Subjectivity the Reader enables students to make hitherto unmade connections between art film and photography history and theory history semiotics and communications media studies and cultural theory Visual Culture sets the agenda for the study of Visual Culture and will be essential reading for researchers and students alike

The Eye's Mind Karen Jacobs, 2018-09-05 The Eye's Mind significantly alters our understanding of modernist literature by showing how changing visual discourses techniques and technologies affected the novels of that period In readings that bring philosophies of vision into dialogue with photography and film as well as the methods of observation used by the social sciences Karen Jacobs identifies distinctly modernist kinds of observers and visual relationships This important reconception of modernism draws upon American British and French literary and extra literary materials from the period 1900-1955 These texts share a sense of crisis about vision's capacity for violence and its inability to deliver reliable knowledge Jacobs looks closely at the ways in which historical understandings of race and gender inflected visual relations in the modernist novel She shows how modernist writers increasingly aware of the body behind the neutral lens of the observer used diverse strategies to displace embodiment onto those others historically perceived as cultural bodies in order to reimagine for themselves or their characters a purified gaze The Eye's Mind addresses works by such high modernists as Vladimir Nabokov Virginia Woolf and more distantly Ralph Ellison and Maurice Blanchot as well as those by Henry James Zora Neale Hurston and Nathanael West which have been tentatively placed in the modernist canon although they forgo the full blown experimental techniques often seen as synonymous with literary modernism Jacobs reframes fundamental debates about modernist aesthetic practices by demonstrating how much those practices are indebted to the changing visual cultures of the twentieth century
