The Cape Town Intellectuals Ruth Schechter And Her Circle 1907/1934:

The Cape Town Intellectuals Baruch Hirson, 2001 Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris

Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magma Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa

A People's History of Classics Edith Hall, Henry Stead, 2020-02-26 A People's History of Classics explores the influence of the classical past on the lives of working class people whose voices have been almost completely excluded from previous histories of classical scholarship and pedagogy in Britain and Ireland from the late 17th to the early 20th century This volume challenges the prevailing scholarly and public assumption that the intimate link between the exclusive intellectual culture of British elites and the study of the ancient Greeks and Romans and their languages meant that working class culture was a Classics Free Zone Making use of diverse sources of information both published and unpublished in archives museums and libraries across the United Kingdom and Ireland Hall and Stead examine the working class experience of classical culture from the Bill of Rights in 1689 to the outbreak of World War II They analyse a huge volume of data from individuals groups regions and activities in a huge range of sources including memoirs autobiographies Trade Union collections poetry factory archives artefacts and documents in regional museums This allows a deeper understanding not only of the many examples of interaction with the Classics but also what these cultural interactions signified to the working poor from the promise of social advancement to propaganda exploited by the elites to covert and overt class war A People's History of Classics offers a fascinating and insightful exploration of the many and varied engagements with Greece and Rome among the working classes in Britain and Ireland and is a must read not only for classicists but also for students of British and Irish social intellectual and political history in this period Further it brings new historical depth and perspectives to public debates around the future of classical education and should be read by anyone with an interest in educational policy in Britain today Changing Childhoods in the Cape Colony S. Duff, 2015-05-26 This book opens up histories of childhood and youth in South African historiography It looks at how childhoods changed during South Africa's industrialisation and traces the ways in which institutions first the Dutch Reformed Church and then the Cape government attempted to shape white childhood to the future benefit of the colony Cape Radicals Crain Soudien, 2019-06-01 The history of a radical group of intellectuals who founded the New Era Fellowship which shaped human rights precedents and social justice policy in South Africa In 1937 a group of young Capetonians socialist intellectuals from the Workers Party of South Africa embarked on a project they called the New Era Fellowship NEF In doing so they sought to disrupt and challenge not only prevailing political narratives but the very premises class and race on which they were based In different forums public debates lectures study circles and cultural events the seeds of radical thinking were planted nurtured and brought to full flower Taking a position of non collaboration and non racialism the NEF played a vital role in challenging society's responses to events ranging from the problem of taking up arms during the Second World War for an empire intent on stripping people of colour of their human rights to the Hertzog Bills which foreshadowed apartheid in all its ruthless effectiveness In subsequent narratives of liberation their significance has been overlooked even disparaged and has never been fully understood and acknowledged By shining a contemporary light on the NEF and locating its contribution in current sociological and political discourse educationist Crain Soudien shows how its members were at the forefront of redefining the debate about social difference in a racially divided society

Classics and Irish Politics, 1916-2016 Isabelle Torrance, Donncha O'Rourke, 2020 This interdisciplinary collection written by experts in their fields addresses how models from ancient Greece and Rome have permeated Irish political discourse in the century since 1916 Topics covered include the reception and rejection of classical culture in Ireland and the politics of Irish language engagement with Greek and Roman models Uncertain Empire Elizabeth E. Imber, 2025-04-08 Following the British conquest of Ottoman Palestine Jews across the British Empire from Jerusalem to Johannesburg London to Calcutta found themselves at the heart of global Jewish political discourse As these intellectuals politicians activists and communal elites navigated shifting political landscapes some envisioned Palestine as a British dominion leveraging imperial power for Jewish state building while others fostered ties with anticolonial movements contemplating independent national aspirations Uncertain Empire considers this intricate interplay between British imperialism Zionism and anticolonial movements from the 1917 British conquest of Palestine to the establishment of the state of Israel in 1948 Elizabeth Imber highlights diverse and sometimes conflicting visions of Jewish political futures offering detailed case studies of key figures including Chaim Arlosoroff Moshe Shertok Helen Bentwich Rachel Ezra and Hermann Kallenbach She explores a politics of uncertainty in which Jews engaged with both imperial stability and the rise of anticolonial mobilization when many were likewise forced to reconsider Palestine as a viable refuge and political solution Ultimately this book provides a nuanced understanding of how the British Empire's fate became central to Zionist and broader Jewish political thought revealing the complex intersections of empire state power and Jewish politics during a time marked by profound urgency and exigency

A Three Cornered Life Jim Davidson, 2010 Australia 1930 remains one of the classic accounts of this country A Three Cornered Life is a superbly written and thorough biography of one of the finest twentieth century historians Israel and the European Left Colin Shindler, 2011-12-22 Why has the European Left become so antagonistic towards Israel To answer this question Colin Shindler looks at the struggle between Marxism Leninism and Zionism from the October Revolution to today Is such antagonism in opposition to the policies of successive Israeli governments Or is it due to a resurgence of anti-Semitism The answer is far more complex Shindler argues that the new generation of the European Left was more influenced by the decolonization movement than by wartime experiences which led it to favor the Palestinian cause in the post 1967 period Thus the Israeli drive to settle the West Bank after the Six Day war enhanced an already existing attitude but did not cause it Written by a respected scholar this accessible and balanced work provides a novel account and analytical approach to this important subject Israel and the European Left will interest students in international politics Middle Eastern studies as well as anyone who seeks to understand issues related to today's Left and the Arab Israeli conflict Red Road to Freedom Tom Lodge, 2022 Definitive and gripping narrative history of the Communist Party of South Africa

Rediscovering E.R. Dodds Christopher Stray, C. B. R. Pelling, S. J. Harrison, 2019 Famous for his visionary book The Greeks and the Irrational 1951 E R Dodds was not only a remarkable classical scholar but also a poet with extensive links to 20th century English and Irish literary culture This volume explores his life career and legacy including a group of memoirs by some of his pupils and friends Jewish Affairs, 2003 Edward Carpenter Sheila Rowbotham, 2020-05-05 The gay socialist writer Edward Carpenter had an extraordinary impact on the cultural and political landscape of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries A mystic advocate of among other causes free love recycling nudism women's suffrage and prison reform his work anticipated the sexual revolution of the 1960s Sheila Rowbotham's highly acclaimed biography situates Carpenter's life and thought in relation to the social aesthetic and intellectual movements of his day and explores his friendships with figures such as Walt Whitman E M Forster Isadora Duncan and Emma Goldman Edward Carpenter is a compelling portrait of a man described by contemporaries as a weather vane for his times South Africa, Greece, Rome Grant Parker, 2017-08-31 How have ancient Greece and Rome intersected with South African histories This book canvasses architecture literature visual arts and historical memory Some of the most telling manifestations of classical reception in South Africa have been indirect for example neo classical architecture or retellings of mythical stories Far from being the mere handmaiden of colonialism and later apartheid classical antiquity has enabled challenges to the South African establishment and provided a template for making sense of cross cultural encounters Though access to classical education has been limited many South Africans black and white have used classical frames of reference and drawn inspiration from the ancient Greeks and Romans While classical antiquity may seem antithetical to post apartheid notions of heritage it deserves to be seen in this light Museums historical sites and artworks up to the present day reveal juxtapositions in which classical themes are integrated into South African pasts Community and Conscience Gideon Shimoni,2003 The first thorough account of South African Jewish religious political and educational institutions in relation to the apartheid regime

The Jewish Quarterly ,1953 The Jews in South Africa Richard Mendelsohn,Milton Shain,2008 Spanning the past two centuries this book explores the fascinating role played by this small but highly significant community in the economic political social and cultural life of this country This richly illustrated story the first comprehensive history to appear in over 50 years includes a wide range of historically important photographs many long unseen and encompasses a broad swathe of Jewish life from the bimoh and the boardroom to the bowling green Beginning with the first Jewish immigrants to South Africa and depicting the fragility of the early foundations and the shifting fortunes of this infant community the book traces its development to robust maturity amidst turbulent social and political currents These include the strident anti semitism of the 1930s the moral dilemmas of the apartheid era the subsequent turbulent transition towards a non racial democracy the birth of the New South Africa and the fresh challenges and promise that have followed in its wake up to the present day Included are such personalities as Barney Barnato Helen Suzman Joe Slovo Sol Kerzner and Rabbi Cyril Harris as well as many others who have made an important mark in their fields This book will be of great interest to every member of the Jewish community living both in South Africa and in their adoptive countries as well as to all wishing to learn more about this highly energetic and innovative community whose contribution in many spheres of life has so greatly influenced and enriched the history of South Africa Place and Displacement in Jewish History and Memory David Cesarani,Milton Shain,2009 The 12 essays in this collection originated in an international conference on Place and Displacement in Jewish History and Memory Zakor v Makor held at the University of Cape Town in January 2005 The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,2002 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Jewish Culture and History ,2007
