Remembrance of Things Past: The Guermantes way Marcel Proust,1949      The Columbia Dictionary of Quotations

Robert Andrews,1993 Over 11 000 of these 18 000 quotations have never before appeared in a quotation book Chosen not for their familiarity but for their quality and their relevance in the 1990s these provocative quotations cover subjects from adolescence and adoption to yuppies and zoos      The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1919      Tolkien B.

Rosebury,2003-10-21 This comprehensive and discriminating account of Tolkien s work has been revised and expanded to take account both of recent developments in scholarship and of the recent films directed by Peter Jackson Tracing the development of Tolkien s creative technique over several decades it explores the bewildering profusion of shorter works as well as devoting an extended analysis to The Lord of the Rings Chapters consider Tolkien s contribution to the history of ideas and review the reception of the Lord of the Rings film adaptations and other popular adaptations of his work

Planning Research in Hospitality and Tourism Levent Altinay,Alexandros Paraskevas,2015-10-23 Planning Research in Hospitality and Tourism provides an accessible concise and practical guide to planning conducting and analysing research in tourism and hospitality The authors skilfully introduce the basic principles and techniques of research in the international hospitality and tourism sectors and provide detailed guidance on both quantitative and qualitative methods of research It includes a variety of features throughout to aid students understanding and offers practical tips to help students overcome any potential research issues Building on the success of the first edition the volume has been fully revised and updated and contains new chapters on mixed methods and how to make best use of recent technology in research practices The second edition also benefits from increased coverage of research design strategies including sampling ethnography and experimental design inclusion of computer mediated data collection techniques such as online interviews online focus groups and online observation netnographic research new and updated international case studies and extracts with a more even spread of tourism and hospitality examples of research online student and lecturer resources including PowerPoint slides and a test bank of multiple choice and true false questions for each chapter Written by three leading scholars with experience of both the industry and university courses globally this insightful text is an essential resource for all tourism and hospitality research students and early career research professionals around the world      Hardy the Writer F. Pinion,1990-03-05 These essays are arranged progressively to indicate Hardy s development as a writer and thinker and to present the major aspects of his work as a whole linking the poetry and the prose at all appropriate stages They suggest that his formative thought the product of a period of conflict between new scientific philosophy and humanism on the one hand and traditional Christian theology combined with Victorian restraints on the other developed when England was not as intellectually provincial as Matthew Arnold had affirmed Above all they illustrate the extent to which the creative imagination and the style of Hardy the writer were stimulated and strengthened by literary influences Important references are made throughout to his Life and Collected Letters      Planning Research in Hospitality & Tourism Levent Altinay,Alexandros Paraskevas,2009-11-04

Planning Research in Hospitality and Tourism provides a concise and clear approach to planning research projects which are a necessity in most hospitality and tourism courses taught at degree level The text considers the particular characteristics of the hospitality and tourism industry whilst providing a balanced approach toward both quantitative and qualitative methods of research The text also carefully considers the international aspect of the industry and the people it employees which supports the books aims of Providing an excellent understanding of the basic principles of conducting research in a straight forward no nonsense guide Carefully considering the particular characteristics of the hospitality and tourism sectors in relation to embarking on a research project in the area Including in each chapter an International Dimension section as well as case studies questions and reflections on the research process      The Severed Head Julia Kristeva,2025-03-04 Informed by a provocative exhibition at the Louvre curated by the author The Severed Head unpacks artistic representations of severed heads from the Paleolithic period to the present Surveying paintings sculptures and drawings Julia Kristeva turns her famed critical eye to a study of the head as symbol and metaphor as religious object and physical fact further developing a critical theme in her work the power of horror and the potential for the face to provide an experience of the sacred Kristeva considers the head as icon artifact and locus of thought seeking a keener understanding of the violence and desire that drives us to sever and in some cases keep such a potent object Her study stretches all the way back to 6 000 B C E with humans early decoration and worship of skulls and follows with the Medusa myth the mandylion of Laon a holy relic in which the face of a saint appears on a piece of cloth the biblical story of John the Baptist and his counterpart Salome tales of the guillotine modern murder mysteries and even the rhetoric surrounding the fight for and against capital punishment Kristeva interprets these capital visions through the lens of psychoanalysis drawing infinite connections between their manifestation and sacred experience and very much affirming the possibility of the sacred even in an era of faceless interaction      Insult and the Making of the Gay Self Didier Eribon,2004-07-07 Published in English for the first time Didier Eribon s well received and celebrated work on a philosophy of and examination of gay life      European Existentialism Nino Langiulli,2018-01-18

European Existentialism is a rich collection of major texts and is made all the more significant by the range and depth of its contributions This book aims to give greater intelligibility to existentialism by providing samples from antecedents of and influences upon it Although existentialism is regarded as an example of twentieth century philosophizing the book presents nineteenth century thinkers such as Kierkegaard and Nietzsche as its forerunners Thinkers such as Dilthey Husserl and Scheler frequently associated with other trends hi philosophy such as historicism and phenomenology are included because of their influence upon existentialism Informative biographies of each author represented are also included European Existentialism includes a broad range of philosophers working in the existentialist mode not only French and German but also Spanish Italian Jewish and Russian philosophers This volume is also distinctive in that it omits existentialists from the literary world While Dostoevsky is often included in other existentialist collections Langiulli represents Russian philosophy with a selection by Berdyaev In his new introduction Langiulli discusses how the themes of existentialism have led to contemporary aberrations He uses the language of political rights as an example whereas we once referred to freedom of speech we have transformed that phrase into a much wider category freedom of expression Langiulli also examines various trends that have derived from existentialism postmodernism deconstructionism and multiculturalism Langiulli s introduction and the contributions place existentialism as a genuine tradition in the history of philosophy European Existentialism is an invaluable collection for philosophers educators and all those interested in the existentialist tradition "The Yeats Circle, Verbal and Visual Relations in Ireland, 1880-1939 " Karen E. Brown, 2017-07-05 Focusing on W B Yeats s ideal of mutual support between the arts Karen Brown sheds new light on how collaborations and differences between members of the Yeats family circle contributed to the metamorphosis of the Irish Cultural Revival into Irish Modernism Making use of primary materials and fresh archival evidence Brown delves into a variety of media including embroidery print illustration theatre costume design poetry and painting Tracing the artistic relationships and outcome of W B Yeats s vision through five case studies Brown explores the poet s early engagement with artistic tradition contributions to the Dun Emer and Cuala Industries collaboration between W B Yeats and Norah McGuinness analysis of Thomas MacGreevy s pictorial poetry and a study of literary influence and debt between Jack Yeats and Samuel Beckett Having undertaken extensive archival research relating to word and image studies Brown considers her findings in historical context with particular emphasis on questions of art and gender and art and national identity Interdisciplinary this volume is one of the first full length studies of the fraternal arts surrounding W B Yeats It represents an important contribution to word and image studies and to debates surrounding Irish Cultural Revival and the formation of Irish Modernism Expectation Jean-Luc Nancy, 2021-05-20 A courtship between philosophy and literature that has never been presented with such wit grace and finesse from one of France s leading thinkers Jean Michel Rabat from the Introduction Expectation is a major volume of Jean Luc Nancy s writings on literature written across three decades but for the most part previously unavailable in English More substantial than literary criticism these essays collectively negotiate literature s relation to philosophy Nancy pursues such questions as literature s claims to truth the status of narrative the relation of poetry and prose and the unity of a book or of a text and he addresses a number of major European writers including Dante Sterne Rousseau Herderlin Proust Joyce and Blanchot The final section offers a number of impressive pieces by Nancy that completely merge his concerns for philosophy and literature and philosophy as literature These include a lengthy parody of Valéry s La Jeune Parque several original poems by Nancy and a beautiful prose poetic discourse on an installation by Italian artist Claudio Parmiggiani that incorporates the Faust theme Opening with a substantial Introduction by Jean Michel Rabat that elaborates Nancy's importance as a literary thinker this book constitutes the most substantial statement to date by one of today's leading philosophers on a discipline that has been central to his work across his career Among Nancy's many distinguished writings Expectation demands recognition Choice

The Novel Dorothy J. Hale, 2009-02-09 The Novel An Anthology of Criticism and Theory 1900-2000 is a collection of the most influential writings on the theory of the novel from the twentieth century Traces the rise of novel theory and the extension of its influence into other disciplines especially social cultural and political theory Broad in scope including sections on formalism the Chicago School structuralism and narratology deconstruction psychoanalysis Marxism social discourse gender post colonialism and more Includes whole essays or chapters wherever possible Headnotes introduce and link each piece enabling readers to draw connections between different schools of thought Encourages students to approach theoretical texts with confidence applying the same skills they bring to literary texts Includes a volume introduction a selected bibliography an index of topics and short author biographies to support study The captive Marcel Proust, 1957

Transforming Education Miranda Jefferson, Michael Anderson, 2021-04-22 Working away from trends in government policy this book takes a future oriented reimagining of schools with a focus on four innate human capacities collaboration critical reflection communication and creativity Miranda Jefferson and Michael Anderson draw together examples of practice from around the world to provide a reimagining of education They show how our schools can be sustainably transformed to be places of support challenge and joy in learning responsive to students needs and the needs in our workplaces and wider society Readers are empowered to use knowledge and experience to create the reality they would like to see in their school building engaged innovative and active learning pedagogy curriculum and leadership Key ideas are summarised at the end of each chapter along with an extensive referencing and bibliography and a supporting glossary
