Memory Rose into Threshold Speech Paul Celan,Barbara Wiedmann,2025-09-23 Memory Rose into Threshold Speech gathers the poet Paul Celan s first four books written between 1952 and 1963 which established his reputation as the major post World War II German language poet Celan a Bukovinian Jew who lived through the Holocaust created work that displays both great lyric power and an uncanny ability to pinpoint totalitarian cultural and political tendencies His quest however is not only reflective there is in Celan s writing a profound need and desire to create a new inhabitable world and a new language for it In Memory Rose into Threshold Speech Celan s reader witnesses his poetry which starts lush with surrealistic imagery become gradually pared down its syntax tightens and his trademark neologisms and word formations increase toward a polysemic language of great accuracy that tries in the poet s own words to measure the area of the given and the possible Translated by the prize winning poet and translator Pierre Joris this bilingual edition follows the 2014 publication of Breathturn into Timestead Celan s collected later poetry All nine volumes of Celan s poetry are now available in Joris s carefully crafted translations accompanied here by a new introduction and extensive commentary The four volumes in this edition show the flowering of one of the major literary figures of the last century This volume collects Celan s first four books Mohn und Ged chtnis Poppy and Memory Von Schwelle zu Schwelle Threshold to Threshold Sprachgitter Speechgrille and Die Niemandrose NoOnesRose The Deluge Stephen Markley,2023-11-07 A cli fi dystopic novel set in the near distant future following several Americans in various social political and class strata as they bravely face a major impending climate disaster Northrop Frye's Uncollected Prose Northrop Frye,2015-01-01 The present volume includes talks Frye gave that were tape recorded but for which there is no extant manuscript taped interviews and responses to questions not included in the volume of interviews of the Collected Works a previously undiscovered notebook and portions of others including an extensive series of notes on romance 93 000 words a brief in opposition to the Macpherson Report on undergraduate education at the University of Toronto an address about the contribution of Victoria College to Canadian culture reviews that were until recently unknown to me and the other editors of the Collected Works a reply to a questionnaire from the American Scholar and an early essay on poetic diction Page xiii Memoir of a Gulag Actress Tamara Petkevich, 2010-10-15 In an abridged translation that retains the grace and passion of the original Klots and Ufberg present the stunning memoir of a young woman who became an actress in the Gulag Tamara Petkevich had a relatively privileged childhood in the beautiful impoverished Petrograd of the Soviet regime's early years but when her father a fervent believer in the Communist ideal was arrested 17 year old Tamara was branded a daughter of the enemy of the people She kept up a search for her father while struggling to support her mother and two sisters finish school and enter university Shortly before the Russian outbreak of World War II Petkevich was forced to quit school and against her better judgment she married an exiled man whom she had met in the lines at the information bureau of the NKVD People's Commissariat of Internal Affairs Her mother and one sister perished in the Nazi siege of Leningrad and Petkevich was herself arrested With cinematic detail Petkevich relates her attempts to defend herself against absurd charges of having a connection to the Leningrad terrorist center counter revolutionary propaganda and anti-Semitism that resulted in a sentence of seven years hard labor in the Gulag While Petkevich became a professional actress in her own right years after her release from the Gulag she learned her craft on the stages of the camps scattered across the northern Komi Republic The existence of prisoner theaters and troupes of political prisoners such as the one Petkevich joined is a little known fact of Gulag life Petkevich's depiction not only provides a unique firsthand account of this world within a world but also testifies to the power of art to literally save lives As Petkevich moves from one form of hardship to another she retains her desire to live and her ability to love More than a firsthand record of atrocities committed in Stalinist Russia Memoir of a Gulag Actress is an invaluable source of information on the daily life and culture of the Soviet Union at the time Russian literature about the Gulag remains vastly underrepresented in the United States and Petkevich's unforgettable memoir will go a long way toward filling this gap Supplemented with photographs from the author's personal archive Petkevich's story will be of great interest to general readers while providing an important resource for historians political scientists and students of Russian culture and history International Literature ,1970

Damnatio Memoriae Sebastian Barker, 2004 Damnatio Memoriae opens with an autobiographical sequence of poems in which he evokes past and present loves the urban landscape of London and the hidden beauties of the Lea Valley They are all occasions that point towards the reflections to come on the sacred dimension of love and the evil that arises when this dimension is lost These reflections become a springboard into the main section of the book in which Barker draws upon

Christian Jewish Muslim and Ancient Near Eastern traditions to chart the search of the soul for faith in the face of cynicism cruelty corruption and despair Damnatio Memoriae is in the highest European tradition of St John of the Cross or the terrible sonnets of Gerard Manley Hopkins It is a salutary reminder that we ignore our spiritual needs at our peril The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,1992 City Record Boston (Mass.),1949 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1975 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals
