Ecocritical Approaches to Literature in French Douglas L. Boudreau,Marnie M. Sullivan,2015-12-24 Ecocriticism is a critical approach that focuses on the representation in literature of the non human elements of the natural world a method of inquiry that has been largely limited to literature written in English The aim of Ecocritical Approaches to Literature in French is twofold to introduce ecocriticism to scholars of French language literature and to open ecocriticism to the vision and voices of French literature The chapters look at work not only from France but also from North America the Caribbean and Africa The discussions include fiction poetry film and pedagogy The goal of the collection is to demonstrate not only the applicability of ecocritical inquiry to literature in French but to demonstrate the possibilities of ecocritical theory on the study of French literature and also for ecocriticism itself This collection will be a useful resource both for scholars of French language literature and also for ecocritics who may have had only limited contact with literatures in languages other than English

Women Imagine Change Eugenia DeLamotte C,Natania Meeker,Jean F. O'Barr,1997-09-24 This global multicultural anthology shows how women from some thirty countries across twenty six centuries have found ways to resist oppression and gain power over their lives Organized around themes of concern to contemporary readers Women Imagine Change explores relationships between women s sexuality and spirituality women s interlinked s The American Medical Association on the Case for Teaching Racism Francis Kwarteng,2021-04-26 The public lynching of George Floyd re exposed the rotten underbelly of America and this together with the disproportionate impact of COVID 19 on Black and Brown communities the global Black Lives Matter protests and the racist xenophobic demagoguery of Donald Trump resurrected the old debates about medical racism race relations implicit bias vaccine nationalism vaccine imperialism structural inequality police brutality vaccine hesitancy unethical human experimentation vaccine diplomacy qualified immunity conspiracy theories and social justice Then in 2020 the American Medical Association formally declared racism a public health crisis defined racism as a social determinant of health and embraced the idea of medical schools teaching medical students about racism Alas the nursing curriculum is somewhat silent on these questions Decolonizing the nursing curriculum long overdue is therefore imperative This book explores the question of decolonizing the nursing curriculum from the angles of postcolonial theory critiquing the Western literary canon American history literary criticism African literature cultural criticism Afrocentric theory democracy African American literature and critical race theory Epistolarity and World Literature, 1980-2010 Rachel Bower, 2017-09-29 This book examines the striking resurgence of the literary letter at the end of the long twentieth century It explores how authors returned to epistolary conventions to create dialogue across national linguistic and cultural borders and repositions a range of contemporary and postcolonial authors never considered together before including Monica Ali John Berger Amitav Ghosh Michael Ondaatje and Alice Walker Through a series of situated readings the book shows how the return to epistolarity is underpinned by ideals relating to dialogue and human connection Several of the works use letters to present non anglophone material to the anglophone reader Others use letters to challenge policed borders the prison occupied territory the nation state Elsewhere letters are used to connect correspondents in different cultural and linguistic contexts Common to all of the works considered in this book is the appeal that they make to us as readers and the responsibility they place on us to respond to this address By taking the epistle as its starting point and pursuing Auerbach's speculative ideal of weltliteratur this book turns away from the dominant trend of distant reading in world literature and shows that it is in the close situated analysis of form and composition that the concept of world literature emerges most clearly This study seeks to re think the ways in which we read world literature and shows how the literary letter in old and new forms speaks powerfully again in this period Language, Literature and Culture in a Multilingual Society Ozo-mekuri Ndimele, Mustapha Ahmad, 2016-12-14 The papers here were selected from presentations made at the 24th Annual Conference of the Linguistic Association of Nigeria LAN which held at Bayero University Kano The book contains seventy seven 77 papers addressing various issues in linguistics literature and cultures in Nigeria The book is organized into four sections as follows Section One Language and Society Section Two Applied Linguistics Section Three Literature Culture Stylistics and Gender Studies and Section Four Formal Linguistics Transnational Africana Women's Fictions Cheryl Sterling, 2021-09-30 This book explores the works of women writers and filmmakers across the African and African Diaspora world reflecting on how the transnational sphere can serve to highlight voices that were at the margins of gender and race hierarchies The book demonstrates how in discourse and theory Africana women are the centers of their own knowledge production and agency as the artists and their characters point the way forward Their multi perspectivism leads to avenues of selective mutuality and influence to generate transformative creative work scholarship and practices Writers included are Sylvia Wynter Edwidge Danticat Amanda Smith Werewere Liking
