The Publishers Weekly, 1875 Speaking in the Past Tense Herb Wyile, 2006-12-15 Speaking in the Past Tense participates in an expanding critical dialogue on the writing of historical fiction providing a series of reflections on the process from the perspective of those souls intrepid enough to step onto what is practically by definition contested territory Herb Wyile from the Introduction The extermination of the Beothuk the exploration of the Arctic the experiences of soldiers in the trenches during World War I the foibles of Canada's longest serving prime minister the Ojibway sniper who is credited with 378 wartime kills these are just some of the people and events discussed in these candid and wide ranging interviews with eleven authors whose novels are based on events in Canadian history These sometimes startling conversations take the reader behind the scenes of the novels and into the minds of their authors Through them we explore the writers motives for writing the challenges they faced in gathering information and presenting it in fictional form the sometimes hostile reaction they faced after publication and perhaps most interestingly the stories that didn't make it into their novels Speaking in the Past Tense provides fascinating insights into the construction of national historical narratives and myths both those familiar to us and those that are still being written Safe Book Paul E. Lingel, 2025-09-18 Safe Book is the story of an aspiring writer and the obstacles and struggles he encountered in his quest for recognition His journey took many turns and detours from the dangers of working the night shift in a convenience store in a crime infested neighborhood to a security guard in a hospital where the trauma unit was always filled His journey mirrors those of many who are trying to make ends meet while still pursuing their creative endeavors always hoping that the next mail delivery will bring the long awaited letter that his stories will be published After many rejections one day that letter did indeed arrive His many disappointments faded into the background whenever he stepped off the train and onto the platform at Penn Station On those days he was rejuvenated by the excitement of New York City and found peace wandering through the Metropolitan Museum of Art At the end of the day he was able to head back to his life across the Hudson River Share the joy he felt when his long awaited vacation arrived each year and he would rent a car and roam the shores of Long Island finding the waves of the ocean a tranquil quiet for his soul Follow his search for a soulmate after his wife gets on a bus over Christmas and never returns home leaving him with many unanswered questions This is a story of an unfulfilled dream to be able to support a home and a family with his writings A dream never realized in his lifetime

Globaletics and Radicant Aesthetics in Australian Fiction Salhia

Ben-Messahel,2018-01-23 This book focuses on the issues of space culture and identity in recent Australian fiction It discusses the work of 15 authors to show that in Australia the meaning of country remains critical and cultural belonging is still a difficult process Interrogating the definition of Australia as a post colonial nation and its underlying extension from Britain it applies Nicolas Bourriaud s concept of the Radicant to examine Australian writing beyond the post of post colonialism The book shows that some authors are engaged in writing about the country and the time in which they live but that they also share common critical views on the definition of multiculturalism the belonging to place and integration in the nation The volume suggests that theories of cultural hybridism presented as a decolonising methodology in fact dissolve singularity in the same way that globalisation creates standardisation It argues that 21st century Australian fiction depicts the subject as a radicant and that Australian culture constitutes a mobile entity unconnected to any soil David

Cronenberg David Schwartz,2021-03-01 From his early horror movies including Scanners Videodrome Rabid and The Fly with their exploding heads mutating sex organs rampaging parasites and scientists turning into insects to his inventive adaptations of books by William Burroughs Naked Lunch Don DeLillo Cosmopolis and Bruce Wagner Maps to the Stars Canadian director David Cronenberg b 1943 has consistently dramatized the struggle between the aspirations of the mind and the messy realities of the flesh I think of human beings as a strange mixture of the physical and the non physical and both of these things have their say at every moment we re alive says Cronenberg My films are some kind of strange metaphysical passion play Moving deftly between genre and arthouse filmmaking and between original screenplays and literary adaptations Cronenberg s work is thematically consistent and marked by a rigorous intelligence a keen sense of humor and a fearless engagement with the nature of human existence He has been exploring the most primal themes since the beginning of his career and continues to probe them with growing maturity and depth Cronenberg s work has drawn the interest of some of the most intelligent contemporary film critics and the fifteen interviews in this volume feature remarkably in depth and insightful conversations with such acclaimed writers as Amy Taubin Gary Indiana David Breskin Dennis Lim Richard Porton Gavin Smith and more The pieces herein reveal Cronenberg to be one of the most articulate and deeply philosophical directors now working and they comprise an essential companion to an endlessly provocative and thoughtful body of work
