Social And Political Contexts Of Family:

Sourcebook of Family Theories and Methods Pauline Boss, William J. Doherty, Ralph LaRossa, Walter R. Schumm, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, 1993-03-31 Origins We call this book on theoretical orientations and methodological strategies in family studies a sourcebook because it details the social and personal roots i e sources from which these orientations and strategies flow Thus an appropriate way to preface this book is to talk first of its roots its beginnings In the mid 1980s there emerged in some quarters the sense that it was time for family studies to take stock of itself A goal was thus set to write a book that like Janus would face both backward and forward a book that would give readers both a perspective on the past and a map for the future There were precedents for such a project The Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Harold Christensen and published in 1964 the two Contemporary Theories about the Family volumes edited by Wesley Burr Reuben Hill F Ivan Nye and Ira Reiss published in 1979 and the Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Marvin Sussman and Suzanne Steinmetz then in production

The Family in Christian Social and Political Thought Brent Waters, 2007-07-19 An alternative voice in the culture wars over family values Brent Waters proposes a normative account of the family's role in social and political ordering that draws upon a spectrum of theological and philosophical resources He contends that when families are properly ordered they are oriented toward broader spheres of human association

Global Social Work in a Political Context Ferguson, Iain, Ioakimidis, Vasilios, Michael Lavalette, 2018-01-10 How is social work shaped by global issues and international problems and how should it address them Taking a radical perspective this book reveals what we can learn from different approaches from across the globe

Exploring Family Relationships With Other Social Contexts Ross D. Parke, Sheppard G. Kellam, 2013-07-04 In the 1990s it is no longer news that families do not operate independently from other social organizations and institutions Instead it is generally recognized that families are embedded in a complex set of relationships with other institutions and contexts outside the family In spite of this recognition a great deal remains to be discovered about the ways in which families are influenced by these outside agencies or how families influence the functioning of children and adults in these extra familial settings school work day care or peer group contexts Moreover little is known about the nature of the processes that account for this mutual influence between families and other societal institutions and settings The goal of this volume is to present examples from a series of ongoing research programs that are beginning to provide some tentative answers to these questions The result of a summer workshop characterized by lively exchanges not only between speakers and the audience but among participants in small group discussions as well this volume attempts to communicate some of the dynamism and excitement that was evident at the conference In the final analysis this book should stimulate further theoretical and empirical advances in understanding how families relate to other contexts

Family Support: Prevention, Early Intervention and Early Help Nick Frost, Shaheen Abbott, Tracey Race, 2015-11-12 Family Support introduces and explores the state of the art in preventative social work with children and young people Drawing on contemporary thinking and research the book aims to make a contribution to current debates about how we can best support families in need Underpinning the book is an analysis of how family support is changing having moved from prevention through to contemporary debates about family support early intervention and early help The authors draw on their own practice experiences to ensure the discussion remains highly relevant to everyday realities The book consists of three parts Part I examines the history and context of family support Part II outlines a number of practice approaches to family support and Part III suggests how family support work can be further developed The book provides think points and case studies to support the reader in reflecting on the material presented and how this can be best applied as well as including a guide to useful resources Family Support will be a welcome companion for anyone involved in child welfare and safeguarding services including students at undergraduate and post graduate level practitioners policy makers and academics

Political and Social Change in Pakistan's Tribal Areas Naveed Ahmad Shinwari, 2025-05-23 This book analyses agency and place of youth within the Pashtun tribal social order in Pakistan It looks at Pashtun youth as a separate social category analysing their changing trends of political leadership in Pakistan's former Federally Administered Tribal Areas FATA Presenting an in depth ethnographic inquiry into the intricate dynamics of political leadership manifest among the Pashtun youth hailing from the erstwhile FATA this book adds more depth to the understanding of political developments and the peculiar relationship between FATA and Pakistan in general The author argues that events following the Soviet invasion and post 9 11 have disrupted traditional age based relations in Pashtun society enabling young adults to assert their political agency in unprecedented ways This book demonstrates how Pashtun youth have emerged at the forefront of politics through avenues such as Talibanisation migration elite politics and the Pashtun social movement These young individuals are redefining politics in FATA and across Pakistan playing a pivotal role in shaping new relationships between the Pashtun community and the Pakistani nation By demystifying longstanding misconceptions and stereotypes perpetuated since British colonial times and post independence Pakistan and the evolving political dynamics in the context of the post withdrawal phase of US forces from Afghanistan in August 2021 this book provides new empirical evidence and insights into social injustices faced by Pashtun youth Analysing themes such as political alliances among diverse youth groups identity politics expressions of agency migration and the importance of urban spaces for activism and rights claims the study sheds light on the dynamic role of Pashtun youth in contemporary South Asia making it essential reading for understanding the region's socio political landscape It will be of interest to researchers studying politics and society in Pakistan and Afghanistan anthropology and post conflict reconstruction in South Asia

Social and Political Contexts of Family Therapy Marsha Pravder Mirkin, 1989-01-01 Succession and the Transfer of Social Capital in Chinese Family Businesses Xing Ke, 2018 This is the first systematic study of the succession process of Chinese family businesses which reveals what is truly happening during the time of hand over In explaining the features of the Chinese way of succession special attention is paid to the transfer of social capital and guanxi among other cultural and socioeconomic contexts which could impact the behaviours and decisions of the family business stakeholders Carefully selected 63 cases of family firms and the authentic words and experiences of the founders and their second generation are of high relevance in helping the readers to understand Chinese family businesses and their successions as well as to learn from their successes or failures

Political Activism across the Life Course Sevasti-Melissa Nolas, Christos Varvantakis, Vinnarasan Aruldoss, 2019-12-18 How do people of different ages experience and engage with politics in their everyday lives and how do these experiences and engagements change over their life course and across different generations Age life course and generation have become increasingly important experiences for understanding political participation and political outcomes and current policies of austerity across the world are affecting people of all ages This book contributes towards an interdisciplinary understanding of the temporalities of everyday political encounters At a time when social science is struggling to understand the rapid and unexpected changes to contemporary political landscapes the contributors to this book present examples of activism and politics across everyday experiences of homes communities online platforms local environment playgrounds and educational spaces The research takes ethnographic biographical and action research approaches and the studies described feature interlocutors as young as four and as old as ninety two who reside in European North and South America and South Asia This is an eclectic text that brings together a number of themes and ideas not typically associated with political activism and is intended for students and academic researchers across the humanities social and political sciences interested in the temporalities of everyday political participation This book was originally published as a special issue of Contemporary Social Science

Family Background Influence on Romanian's [sic] Youth Voting Behaviour Corina Moruțan, 2009 Portraits of Everyday Literacy for Social Justice Susan Jones, 2018-05-07 Based on an ethnographic study involving three families who live on a Midlands council housing estate this book presents portraits of everyday lives and the literacy practices that are part of them as a way to explore the complex relationship between literacy and social justice Each portrait focuses on a different aspect of literacy in everyday life drawing on perspectives offered by the long and diverse tradition of literacy studies each is followed by discussion of a different way of looking at literacy and what this means for social justice The lens of literacy allows us to see the challenges faced by many families and communities as a result of social policy and how a narrow view of literacy is often implicated within these challenges It also illustrates the ways in which literacy practices are powerful resources in the creative and collaborative navigation of everyday lives Arguing for the importance of looking carefully at everyday literacy in order to understand the intertwining factors that threaten justice this book positions literary research and education as central to the struggle for wider social change It will be of interest and value to researchers educators and students of literacy for social justice

When Strangers Become Family Ronald Angel, Verónica Montes-de-Oca Zavala, 2021-09-30 As the 21st Century unfolds the traditional welfare state that evolved during the 20th Century faces serious threats to the solidarity that social programs were meant to strengthen The rise of populist and nationalist parties reflects the decline of a sense of belonging and inclusiveness that mass education and economic progress were meant to foster as traditional politics and parties are rejected by working and middle class individuals who were previously their staunchest supporters Increasingly these groups reject the growing gaps in income power and privilege that they perceive between themselves and highly educated and cosmopolitan business academic and political elites When Strangers Become Family examines the potential role of civil society organizations in guaranteeing the rights and addressing the needs of vulnerable groups paying particular attention to their role in advocacy for and service delivery to older people The book includes a discussion of the origins and functions of this sector that focuses on the relationship between the state and non governmental organizations as well as a close examination of Mexico a middle income nation with a rapidly aging population and limited state welfare for older people The data reveals important aspects of the relationship among government actors civil society organizations and political parties Ronald Angel and Verónica Montes de Oca Zavala ask the fundamental question about the extent to which civil society organizations represent a potential mechanism whereby vulnerable individuals can join together to further their own interests and exercise their individual and group autonomy

Control and Consolation in American Culture and Politics Dana Cloud, 1998 What are the consequences in American society when social and political activism is replaced by pursuit of personal psychological change How does such a shift happen Where is it visible In wide ranging case studies Control and Consolation in American Culture and Politics points out this change in American culture and attributes it to the rhetoric of therapy This rhetoric is defined as a pervasive cultural discourse that applies psychotherapy's lexicon the constructive language of healing coping adaptation and restoration of a previously existing order to social and political conflict The purpose of this therapeutic discourse is to encourage people to focus on themselves and their private lives rather than to attempt to reform flawed systems of social and political power Author Dana L Cloud focuses on the therapeutic discourse that emerged after the Vietnam War and links its rise to specific political and economic interests The critical case studies describe in detail not only what the therapeutic style looks like but how and why therapeutic discourses are persuasive These studies include the rhetoric of family values media coverage of support groups during the Persian Gulf War Gloria Steinem's Revolution from Within the film Thelma and Louise and literature of the New Age Movement Cloud concludes with a chapter urging resistance to the therapeutic persuasion she describes envisioning in its place engaged public politics At once unique and engaging Control and Consolation in American Culture and Politics is a must read for academics and students interested in communication studies cultural studies sociology political science and media studies
