A Critique of Conformist Psychology
from Adler
to Laing

"I know of no other analysis which succeeds as well in discussing the internal links between psychology and society in the contemporary period."

Social Amnesia:

Social Amnesia Russell Jacoby, 1975 Russell Jacoby defines social amnesia as society's repression of remembrance society's own past In this book Jacoby excavates the critical and historical concepts that have fallen prey to the dynamic of a society that strips them both of their historical and critical content Social Amnesia is an effort to remember what is perpetually lost under the pressure of society It is simultaneously a critique of present practices and theories in psychology Jacoby's new self evaluation has the same sharp edge as the book itself offering special insights into the evolution of psychological theory during the past two decades In his probing self critical new introduction Jacoby maintains that any serious appraisal of psychology or sociology or any discipline must seek to separate the political from the theoretical He discusses how in the years since Social Amnesia was first published society has oscillated from extreme subjectivism to extreme objectivism which feed off each other and constitute two forms of social amnesia a forgetting of the past and a pseudo historical consciousness Social Amnesia contains a forceful argument for thinking against the grain an endeavor that remains as urgent as ever It is an important work for sociologists psychologists and psychoanalysts

As Leaven in the World Thomas M. Landy, 2001 Offers illuminating essays by passionate and well recognized American Catholic intellectuals on the interaction between faith and work By envisioning Catholicism as a cultural force that shapes morality the arts creativity cultural conversation social justice spirituality and vocation the authors invite educational leaders and intellectuals to take seriously their holy work of teaching others how to understand and engage the world from a Catholic perspective Stemming from nearly a decade of conferences sponsored by Collegium a consortium of sixty Catholic colleges and universities this book offers new ways of connecting the content and concerns of Catholic faith to intellectual life across academic disciplines This book helps form a community of inquiry around the issues central to Catholic intellectual enterprise

Critical Issues in Anti-racist Research Methodologies George Jerry Sefa Dei, Gurpreet Singh Johal, 2005 Anti racism studies have blossomed over the years with scholarship and political work reinforcing each other to cement anti racist change But how do we understand anti racist research How is anti racist research methodology different from other methods of research investigation What are the principles of anti racism research This edited collection attempts to provide some answers by bringing together works that examine the perils and desires of anti racist research with a particular focus on the notion of difference and a serious consideration of the race gender class and sexuality intersections implications of educational research History from Things Stephen Lubar, David W. Kingery, 2013-06-04 History from Things explores the many ways objects defined broadly to range from Chippendale tables and Italian Renaissance pottery to seventeenth century parks and a New England cemetery can reconstruct and help reinterpret the past Eighteen essays describe how to read artifacts how to listen to landscapes and locations and how to apply methods and theories to historical inquiry that have previously belonged solely to archaeologists anthropologists art historians and conservation scientists Spanning vast time periods geographical locations and academic disciplines History from Things leaps the boundaries between fields that use material evidence to understand the past The book expands and redirects the study of material culture an emerging field now building a common base of theory and a shared intellectual agenda Principles and Methods of Transformative Action Research John A. Bilorusky, 2021-04-21 Principles and Methods of Transformative Action Research delves into both general principles and specific methods for basic steps in the action research process asking questions gathering and analyzing data communicating findings and pursuing action The role of collaboration is emphasized with strategies of value to experts and engaged citizens in doing participatory research and community based knowledge building Detailed attention is given to specific strategies of interviewing participant observation and judging and weighing evidence The book draws on creative and critically minded elements of scientific traditions such as transparency in telling the story of one's inquiry identifying data that are exceptions to the rule and the value of non formulaic improvisational designs Quite distinctively the book addresses how to write in one's own voice how to integrate action and inquiry into one's everyday life issues of ethics and social responsibility and how to consider both immediate practical needs and bigger picture systemic challenges This book can serve as an undergraduate or graduate social sciences text on research methods It is also a guidebook for action oriented research by academics professionals and lay people alike in community agencies schools and grassroots organizations and for socially relevant academic research concerned with social justice multiculturalism and inclusiveness Ideology, Culture & the Process of Schooling Henry A. Giroux, 1984-10 This book lays bare the ideological and political character of the positivist rationality that has been the primary theoretical underpinning of educational research in the United States These assumptions have expressed themselves in the form and content of curriculum classroom social relations classroom cultural artifacts and the experiences and beliefs of teachers and students Have existing radical critiques provided the theoretical building blocks for a new theory of pedagogy The author attempts to move beyond the abstract negative characteristics of many radical critiques which are often based on false dualisms that fail to link structure and intentionality content and process ideology and hegemony etc He also is critical of the over determined models of socialization and the abstract celebration of subjectivity that underlies much of the false utopianism of many radical perspectives Professor Giroux begins to lay the theoretical groundwork for developing a radical pedagogy that connects critical theory with the need for social action in the interest of individual freedom and social reconstruction Author note Henry A Giroux is Assistant Professor of Education at Boston University He is the co editor of Curriculum and Instruction Alternatives in Education and The Hidden Curriculum and Moral Education     Opposing Colonialism, Antisemitism, and Turbo-Nationalism Marina Gržinić, Jovita Pristovšek, 2019-11-25 This volume gathers together reflections on racism and nationalism empowerment and futurity It focuses on collective amnesia in regards to traumatic events of the European past and the ways in which memory and history are presented for the future The essays cover and oppose the seemingly disparate genocides committed during Belgian colonialism Austrian antisemitism and turbo nationalism in Republika Srpska Bosnia and Herzegovina implying by no means a homogenization of the experiences What connects these historical situations is the fact that despite available documents to this very day nation states are built on practices of oblivion regarding their past This volume is indispensable for theoreticians philosophers and historians as well as the general public It expresses the demand to critically question our inherited knowledge and to rethink the past for a new future of conviviality     From Fritzl to #metoo Alessia Tranchese, 2023-03-31 This is the first longitudinal study of the language used by the British press to talk about rape Through a diachronic analysis informed by corpus linguistics and feminist theory Tranchese examines how rape discourse has or has not changed over the past decade With its detailed investigation of media representations the book explores how age old myths about sexual violence re emerge in different forms within news narratives Against the backdrop of twelve years of newspaper coverage of rape including many high profile cases this study also traces the rise of celebrity culture the emergence of metoo and the development of the backlash against it The author places these historical events and recent trends within broader debates on feminism and the role played by social media in shaping contemporary rape discourse This book provides a much needed linguistic analysis which will be of particular interest to scholars and students of feminist studies language and gender corpus assisted discourse studies and gendered crime     Remembering Digitally Segah Sak, 2020-04-14 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2012 The notion of digital memories emerged mainly from the encounter of memory studies and media studies as a result of the opportunities of storage and dissemination of data provided by information technologies Yet the notion has become an area of focus for many researchers and artists as the notion of memory itself has always been subject to discussions and works from various disciplines Accordingly Digital Memories project has become an important branch of interdisciplinary studies and of the Interdisciplinary Net network In March 2012 the 4th Global Conference on Digital Memories has been organized in Prague This e book is a compilation of the six papers that were presented by researchers and practitioners from different geographies and disciplines in the conference The authors introduce different approaches to the contemporary issue of remembering digitally elaborating on theoretical practical and creative aspects of the relation between remembering and digital technologies Russia's Denial of Ukraine Nataliya Shpylova-Saeed, 2024-05-16 In 2022 Russia heightened its initial 2014 assault and launched its imperialist full scale war against Ukraine The Kremlin continued to perpetrate its denial of Ukrainians as a nation distinct from the Russians Russia's Denial of Ukraine: Letters and Contested Memory explores the gradual and long lasting integration of contested memory in the cultural memory of Ukraine It emphasizes how narratives which formed the contested memory in the nineteenth century appeared to come to the fore with the onset of the Russo Ukrainian War At the same time it offers the theoretical premise for exploring contested memory social forgetting and remembering The ambivalent nature of contested memory manifests in weakening national aspirations and strengthening resilience and resistance against violence Contested memory nuances the discussion of undermining a metropolitan center and dismantling oppression Letters reveal public discourses shaped by cultural and political developments centering on the Ukrainians endeavors to remember themselves as a nation distinct from the Russians Epistolary expressions by Mykola Hohol Taras Shevchenko Lesia Ukrainka Ivan Franko and Volodymyr Vynnychenko illustrate the circulation of contested memory sponsored and supported in many ways by Russia Writers comment on their Ukrainianness and situate themselves in Ukraine's entangled past in which empires clash and fall apart

Water and War at Pyreneus Mountains: Historical Eco-Archaeology of Lavras do Abade Diogo M. Costa, 2011-02 The Lavras do Abade research is a multiple perspective archaeological study about the environmental impacts of a gold mining village in Mid Western Brazil that was destroyed by neighboring villages at the end of the nineteenth century According to local narratives the conflict was the consequence of a dispute about the control and use of natural resources such as water However this investigation reveals that the conflict was caused also by economic and political disputes between the villages in the region In this work each stage of investigation is presented in separate chapters Research was conducted to validate hypotheses and to combine different approaches to each element that compounds this mosaic of information The result of this work is a combination of various complementary investigations into the same object and is a theoretical and methodological referential that establishes the Lavras do Abade case study as an original bridge to understanding many Water Wars in the modern world today

Dialectic of Enlightenment in the Anglosphere Howard Prosser, 2020-02-29 This book explores the reception of Max Horkheimer and Theodor W Adorno's Dialectic of Enlightenment It examines a variety of perspectives on the text supplied by e.g. American critical theorists British New Leftists Transatlantic Cultural Studies scholars Postmodernists and those working in the current after theory moment from 1970 to 2010 It considers the works of the Frankfurt School especially Horkheimer and Adorno alongside the secondary literature on the subject The main focus is on how various intellectual circles and trends have responded to the Dialectic making scholarly discussions the primary sources

While the work is a history of the Dialectic of Enlightenment's Anglophone reception it also reflects the post 1968 left's retreat to academia which echoes the Frankfurt School's own stance of political resignation The Feeling of Forgetting John Corrigan, 2023-07-06 A provocative examination of how religious practices of forgetting drive white Christian nationalism The dual traumas of colonialism and slavery are still felt by Native Americans and African Americans as victims of ongoing violence toward people of color today In The Feeling of Forgetting John Corrigan calls attention to the trauma experienced by white Americans as perpetrators of this violence By tracing memory's role in American Christianity Corrigan shows how contemporary white Christian nationalism is motivated by a widespread effort to forget the role race plays in American society White trauma Corrigan argues courses through American culture like an underground river that sometimes bursts forth into brutality terrorism and insurrection Tracing the river to its source is a necessary first step toward healing

The New Earth Reader David Rothenberg, Marta Ulvaeus, 1999 This is a collection of the best essays stories and interviews from Terra Nova the cutting edge literary journal It explores the complex and multifarious ways humanity is loose in the natural world Find out who really wrote the famous Chief Seattle speech Read why Jaron Lanier wants to turn us all into giant squid so we can talk to one another without language Rick Bass travels to the country with the most grizzly bears per square mile Romania Gary Nabhan dreams of raven stew Val Plumwood is half swallowed by a crocodile and lives to tell the tale and affirm her vegetarianism Charles Bowden enters Tuna Country in Mexico and struggles to find his way back across the border Ray Isle fights with a wild turkey see who wins And find out why filmmaker Errol Morris thinks that human dreamers are the most endangered species around

Varieties of Cultural History Peter Burke, 2013-07-08 The aim of this book is both to illustrate and to discuss some of the main varieties of cultural history which have emerged since the questioning of what might be called its classic form exemplified in the work of Jacob Burckhardt and Johan Huizinga Among the themes of individual chapters are the history of popular culture the history of Carnival the history of mentalities the history of gestures the history of jokes and even the history of dreams The emphasis of both the introduction and the case studies which follow is on the variety of forms taken by cultural history today The classic model has not been replaced by any new orthodoxy despite the importance of approaches inspired by social and cultural anthropology Variety is to be found in the cultures studied as well as among their historians The case studies included in the volume come not only from Europe and in particular from Italy but also from the New World especially Brazil Particular emphasis is placed on the importance of cultural encounters cultural conflicts and their consequences whether these consequences should be described in terms of mixing syncretism or synthesis Written by one of the leading cultural historians in Europe today this book will be of particular interest to students of early modern Europe of the encounters between European culture and the New World and to students and scholars interested in problems of historiography

Uprooted Minds Nancy Caro Hollander, 2014-04-08 In our post 9 11 environment our sense of relative security and stability as privileged subjects living in the heart of Empire has been profoundly shaken Hollander explores the forces that have brought us to this critical juncture analyzing the role played by the neoliberal economic paradigm and conservative political agenda that emerged in the West over the past four decades with devastating consequences for the hemisphere's citizens Narrative testimonies of progressive U S and Latin American psychoanalysts illuminate the psychological meanings of living under authoritarian political conditions and show how a psychoanalysis beyond the couch contributes to social struggles on behalf of human rights and redistributive justice By interrogating themes related to the mutual effects of social power and ideology large group dynamics and unconscious fantasies affects and defenses Hollander encourages reflections about our experience as social psychological subjects
