Contractualisation of Family Law - Global Perspectives Frederik Swennen, 2015-07-06 This volume presents global and comparative perspectives on the perpetual pendular movement of family law between status and contract It contributes to the topical academic debate on family law exceptionalism by exploring the blurred lines between public law private law and family law and sheds light on the many shades of grey that exist The contributions focus on both substantive and procedural family law on parents and children and on life partners with particular attention for contractual arrangements of family formations and of conflict resolution The hypothesis underlying all contributions was the trend towards contractualisation of family law A convergent research outcome resulting from the comparison of national reports was the ambivalent position of family law in legal systems worldwide That comparison shows that whereas family law is clearly moving towards contract with regard to old family formations the contrary is true for new family formations The movement towards contract is rarely considered to be contractualisation pur sang with civil effect The movement towards status finally does not necessarily witness family law exceptionalism vis vis private law in view of the increasing State interventionism in private law relations in general In sum as the volume shows the high permeability of the demarcations between the State the family and the market impedes a categorial approach This volume is based on the general and selected national reports on the topic Contractualisation of Family Law that were presented at the XIXth International Congress of Comparative Law in Vienna in July 2014

The UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women and its Optional Protocol Patricia Schulz,Ruth Halperin-Kaddari,Beate Rudolf,Marsha A. Freeman,2022-12-01 This volume is the fully revised and updated version of the first comprehensive commentary on the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women and its Optional Protocol It reflects the developments during the decade following the publication of the first edition in 2012 which has also seen a notable rise in individual complaints more than 85 ten new General Recommendations and six new inquiry procedures as well as numerous statements partly in conjunction with other UN human rights bodies The Convention is a key international human rights instrument and the only one exclusively addressed to women It has been described as the United Nations landmark treaty in the struggle for women s rights At a time when the backlash against women s human rights and the concept of gender based discrimination is increasingly challenged by governments and powerful societal actors the Commentary is an important instrument to hold all state powers to account on their international obligations under the Convention The Commentary analyses the interpretation of the Convention through the work of its monitoring body the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women It comprises detailed analyses of the Preamble and each article of the Convention and of the Optional Protocol including a separate chapter on the cross cutting substantive issue of violence against women The sources relied on are the treaty language and the general recommendations concluding observations and case law under the Optional Protocol individual complaints and inquiries through which the Committee has interpreted and applied the Convention Each chapter is self contained but the Commentary is conceived of as an integral whole The book also includes an introduction which provides an overview of the Convention and its embedding in the international law of human rights as well as the most recent challenges to women s human rights worldwide
