DeGlopper,1995-10-12 Based on anthropological fieldwork in Lukang an old seaport in Taiwan this book examines the city s history economic structure and social organization It addresses such matters as an annual rock fight between the city s major clans the way votes are bought in local elections and why the inhabitants of a fairly large industrial and commercial city describe it as a cozy community where everyone knows everyone else The book uses the framework of a community study to address such large questions as the adequacy of Confucianism as model for Chinese society the nature of Chinese social organization beyond the realm of the family and kinship and the structure of Chinese cities rather than villages The argument of the book is propelled by a set of intellectual puzzles concerning the disjunctions if not contradictions between the structure of Chinese society or the city of Lukang and the ways the members of that society talk about their society and their own places in it      Philadelphia Year Book ... Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce,1918      Sugar United States.
