Suicide Of American Churches:

Religion and Suicide in the African-American Community Kevin E. Early, 1992-10-26 Suicide among African Americans occurs at about half the rate with which it occurs among white Americans Why is the black rate of suicide so much lower particularly when one considers the effects of racism and other socio economic factors on African Americans One answer that has been offered is that churches within the African American community have a greater influence than among white Americans and that they provide amelioration of social forces that would otherwise lead to suicide To date no other book has provided an in depth ethnographic study of the buffering effect of the black church against suicide Findings from Early's study indicate that there is a consensus within the black community in terms of its attitudes and beliefs toward suicide Early concludes that suicide is alien to underlying African American belief systems and a complete denial of what it means to be black This important study will be invaluable to sociologists and others studying contemporary race relations and social problems

Religion, Death, and Dying Lucy Bregman, 2009-11-25 A wide ranging anthology for general readers covering many religious ethical and spiritual aspects of death dying and bereavement in American society What do various spiritual and ethical belief systems have to say about modern medicine's approach to the end of life Do all major religions characterize the afterlife in similar ways How do funeral rites and rituals vary across different faiths Now there is one resource that gathers leading scholars to address these questions and more about the many religious ethical and spiritual aspects of death dying and bereavement in America Religion Death and Dying compares and contrasts the ways different faiths and ethical schools contemplate the end of life The work is organized into three thematic volumes first an examination of the contemporary medicalized death from the perspective of different religious traditions and the professions involved second an exploration of complex often controversial issues including the death of children AIDS capital punishment and war and finally a survey of the funeral and bereavement rituals that have evolved under various religions

The Sexual Politics of Black Churches Josef Sorett, 2022-02-08 Winner 2022 2023 Virginia Ramey Mollenkott Award for chapter 5 Everybody Knew He Was That Way Chicago's Clarence H Cobbs American Religion and Sexuality during the Post World War II Period by Wallace Best This book brings together an interdisciplinary roster of scholars and practitioners to analyze the politics of sexuality within Black churches and the communities they serve In essays and conversations leading writers reflect on how Black churches have participated in recent discussions about issues such as marriage equality reproductive justice and transgender visibility in American society They consider the varied ways that Black people and groups negotiate the intersections of religion race gender and sexuality across historical and contemporary settings Individually and collectively the pieces included in this book shed light on the relationship between the cultural politics of Black churches and the broader cultural and political terrain of the United States Contributors examine how churches and their members participate in the formal processes of electoral politics as well as how they engage in other processes of social and cultural change They highlight how contemporary debates around marriage gender and sexuality are deeply informed by religious beliefs and practices Through a critically engaged interdisciplinary investigation The Sexual Politics of Black Churches develops an array of new perspectives on religion race and sexuality in American culture Why People Die by Suicide Thomas Joiner,2009-07-01 Drawing on extensive clinical and epidemiological evidence as well as personal experience Thomas Joiner provides the most coherent and persuasive explanation ever given of why and how people overcome life s strongest instinct self preservation Suicide Across Cultures Meryam Schouler-Ocak,Murad Moosa Khan,2024-09-04 Over 700 000 people globally take their own lives every year which equates to one death by suicide every 40 seconds Among teenagers and young adults suicide is the second most common cause of death after road traffic accidents Overall almost three times as many men than women die by suicide There are however significant variations in the patterns of suicide across cultures gender age geographic locations and personal history due to the complex relationship of how these factors converge One thing that remains consistent is that every death is a tragedy for family friends and all colleagues Traditions of suicidal behaviour are deeply rooted in any given culture and so examining the cultural influences can be of paramount importance in the understanding and assessment of a suicidal crisis Suicide Across Cultures offers the opportunity to expand knowledge beyond majority groups and to look further than the dominant paradigm in suicide research treatment and prevention With the majority of global suicides taking place in non Western societies minority groups are an essential area in suicide research Written by experts from around the world this fascinating textbook includes topics and regions that are not usually covered in texts on suicide and self harm It provides a unique and important insight for academics and students in psychiatry as well as anyone from the wider public with an interest in the psychiatry of suicide across cultures Suicide Among Racial and Ethnic Minority Groups Frederick T.L. Leong,Mark M. Leach,2010-04-15 Suicide is increasingly understood and predicted as an intersection of biological psychological cognitive and sociocultural factors We have some basic knowledge of these factors and how they interact but presently we know very little about how culture can play a role as a variable that influences suicide Suicide Among Racial and Ethnic Minority Groups will go a long way towards filling that gap by pulling together cutting edge empirical research from general cultural diversity literature and applying it to suicide assessment treatment and prevention theory and practice By looking outside of the limited cross cultural studies done within suicidal populations the contributors all established experts in both multicultural counseling and suicidology expand the available empirical literature base in order to provide a deeper look into how culture can act as an important catalyst in suicidal intentions Following theoretical overviews the text focuses on six broad ethnic groups classified in the literature African American American Indian Asian American European American Hawaiian Pacific Islander and Hispanic with a main chapter devoted to each relating each culture to suicide research highlighting specific variables within the culture that can influence suicide and presenting appropriate treatment considerations A final section of the book consists of practical applications within specific settings therapy outreach schools psychiatric services and prevention and training issues      Suicide Among Diverse Youth Andres J Pumariiega, Neha Sharma, 2017-11-13 This book provides a comprehensive review of the complex growing mental health challenges faced by culturally diverse populations of children and adolescents Suicide Among Diverse Youth A Case Based Guidebook is the first book of its kind and is designed specifically to bridge the knowledge and skills gap encountered by most clinicians dealing with youth from diverse cultural backgrounds particularly those different than that of the clinician The title begins with two introductory chapters which cover cultural aspects of suicidality among youth culturally informed treatment of suicidality with diverse youth and examples of preventative approaches These are followed by population specific chapters which cover a broad spectrum of diverse populations including underserved ethnic and racial populations in the United States LGBTQ youth as well as various immigrant populations from Eastern European and Middle Eastern countries These case based chapters are structured in a cohesive easy to read format that promotes ease of reference beginning with a clinical case report review of literature unique characteristics and risk factors associated with suicidality and evidence based practice provided by the authors from their considerable experience The authors are often from the same ethnic racial or cultural group that they discuss in their writings providing experiential knowledge where scientific knowledge is lacking Suicide Among Diverse Youth A Case Based Guidebook is a unique resource that offers the clinical material needed to treat diverse adolescent patients with sensitive intersectional and culturally informed care and will provide an indispensable resource for medical professionals working with and caring for these patients      The Suicide Funeral (or Memorial Service) Melinda Moore, Daniel A. Roberts, 2017-05-16 To our knowledge nothing with The Suicide Funeral or Memorial Service Honoring Their Memory Comforting Their Survivors scope and depth has ever been published This is an aid to anyone who will be called upon to do a funeral for the nearly 43 000 suicides in America each year This book is designed to assist clergy chaplains and other faith leaders as they develop sermons and homilies for a funeral service Its mandate is to help those searching for inspiration even though they may feel confused or uncertain undertaking such a daunting assignment Those who plan and lead a funeral service may enable family and friends to understand and participate intentionally in their grief process Clergy can have a significant impact on how people react to the suicide as well as provide comfort and assistance to those left behind on their journey through grief Your leadership will influence how the suicide s bereaved are treated by others in the days weeks and months following the death Because suicide does not discriminate by race socio economic status or religion a broad range of faiths and denominations are represented in this book s sermons services and perspectives      Death and Dying in Colonial Spanish America Martina Will de Chaparro, Miruna Achim, 2011-12-01 When the Spanish colonized the Americas they brought many cultural beliefs and practices with them not the least of which involved death and dying The essays in this volume explore the resulting intersections of cultures through recent scholarship related to death and dying in colonial Spanish America between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries

The authors address such important questions as What were the relationships between the worlds of the living and the dead How were these relationships sustained not just through religious dogma and rituals but also through everyday practices How was unnatural death defined within different population strata How did demographic and cultural changes affect mourning The variety of sources uncovered in the authors original archival research suggests the wide diversity of topics and approaches they employ Nahua annals Spanish chronicles Inquisition case records documents on land disputes sermons images and death registers Geographically the range of research focuses on the viceroyalties of New Spain Peru and New Granada The resulting records both documentary and archaeological offer us a variety of vantage points from which to view each of these cultural groups as they came into contact with others Much less tied to modern national boundaries or old imperial ones the many facets of the new historical research exploring the topic of death demonstrate that no attitudes or practices can be considered either Western or universal

Emerging Adults in Therapy: How to Strengthen Your Clinical Competency Zachary Aaron Kahn, Juliana Martinez, 2022-06-07 Theoretical sociocultural and clinical essays on the psychology of today's young adults Emerging adulthood EA describes a developmental period between adolescence and adulthood typically spanning ages 18-29 It's a rough time for most people perhaps now more than ever Emerging Adults in Therapy contains contributions from various psychologists and psychiatrists many of whom are on the younger side with diverse backgrounds and specialties related to EA The book's editors Zachary Kahn and Juliana Martinez are both licensed psychologists in New York working predominantly with young adults in private practice Much of the focus here is on the psychological impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic and the reckoning on racial injustice that characterize this time period Other sections discuss theories of this age band and describe different treatment approaches specialized for young adults This book should appeal to training and practicing clinicians working with young people as well as young adults and their parents who are interested in both the psychological challenges and therapeutic practices that can help Contributors include Francis Bartolomeo Anna Lee Stafford Andrew Gerber Steve Tuber Karen Tocatly Chantel T Ebrahimi Alexandria G Bauer Denise Hien Lillian Polanco Roman Marjorine Henriquez Castillo Kathleen Isaac Elisa Lee Carolina Franco Annelisa Pedersen Peter Lemons Elizabeth F Baumann Zoe Berko Leora Trub Vendela Parker Zachary Geller Danielle La Rocco Kristin P Wyatt Colleen M Cowperthwait Kateri Berasi Sherina Persaud

Birth Control Battles Melissa J. Wilde, 2019-12-17 Conservative and progressive religious groups fiercely disagree about issues of sex and gender But how did we get here Melissa J Wilde shows how today s modern divisions began in the 1930s in the public battles over birth control and not for the reasons we might expect By examining thirty of America s most prominent religious groups from Mormons to Methodists Southern Baptists to Seventh Day Adventists and many others Wilde contends that fights over birth control had little to do with sex women s rights or privacy Using a veritable treasure trove of data including census and archival materials and more than 10 000 articles statements and sermons from religious and secular periodicals Wilde demonstrates that the push to liberalize positions on contraception was tied to complex views of race immigration and manifest destiny among America s most prominent religious groups Taking us from the Depression era when support for the eugenics movement saw birth control as an act of duty for less desirable groups to the 1960s by which time most groups had forgotten the reasons behind their stances on contraception but not the concerns driving them Birth Control Battles explains how reproductive politics divided American religion In doing so this book shows the enduring importance of race and class for American religion as it rewrites our understanding of what it has meant to be progressive or conservative in America

Dilemmas of Life and Death S. Cromwell Crawford, 1995-01-01 This is a breakthrough work expanding the debate of the dilemmas of life and death in contemporary American society by carrying it beyond the insights of Western religious and philosophic thought to include ethical perspectives of the Hindu tradition The topics covered are the timely ethical issues that concern both Americans and all people of the world abortion suicide euthanasia and the environment A lively East West dialogue probes the roots of each issue in its native setting and the fruit of this historical approach is a clear cut analysis of up to date cases giving their current status in terms of ethics religion philosophy medicine and law Unlike traditional textbooks that concentrate on a theoretical analysis to the exclusion of practical issues this book does justice to both theoretical and practical ethics

African Americans and Depression Julia F. Hastings, Lani V. Jones, Pamela P. Martin, 2015-06-04 Depression does not discriminate and yet the ways in which people and communities view and react to depression differ The unique experiences of African Americans are often taken into account when examining other topics of interest but mental health in general is often overlooked African Americans and Depression helps to uncover the realities of depression among African Americans and the various ways in which sufferers and their families address or don t address it The authors provide guidance for understanding the illness suggestions on how to heal and recover holistically and pathways for getting help With a primary focus on the psychological and medical needs of African Americans the authors explore and offer an overview of clinical depression among African Americans discuss the signs of and cultural myths surrounding clinical depression outline the mental health help seeking process for African Americans and suggest potential barriers and strategies for healing Further they discuss community based interventions and innovations in service programs Lastly the authors offer insight on mental health and health policy in the United States care systems Including firsthand accounts from sufferers and families this work will aid readers to better understand depression and how and where to find help Seeing Depression Through a Cultural Lens Barry S. Fogel,Xiaoling Jiang,2024-11-26

Depression is a leading cause of suffering and disability worldwide and suicide is a leading cause of death in younger people and a remarkably common cause of mortality in older people Seeing Depression Through a Cultural Lens the collaborative work of a neuropsychiatrist and a tricultural humanities scholar explores broadly and deeply how cultural identity and its structural correlates relate to the occurrence phenomenology and narratives of depression The book synthesizes qualitative and quantitative perspectives theory and practice salient statistics and memorable stories from literature film and the clinic It offers readers valuable new perspectives on depression in diverse individuals and populations Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant,2003-10 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage The New American Church Monthly ... Charles Sears Baldwin,Selden

Peabody Delany,Charles Carroll Edmunds,Granville Mercer Williams,1919 Includes section Book reviews Social Work With African American Males Waldo E. Johnson Jr.,2010-05-26 African American males have never fared as poorly as they do currently on a number of social indicators They are less likely to complete high school than their white male and female or African American female peers they are more likely to exhibit depressive symptoms and they have fewer sanctioned coping strategies Arguably no other group in American society has been more maligned regularly faced with tremendous odds that uniquely threaten their existence When they do receive education mental health and physical health services it is often in correctional settings They are marginalized in public policies on secondary and higher education attainment marriage and parental expectations public welfare health housing and community development Yet they remain overlooked in health and social science research and are stereotyped in the popular media Taking a step back from the traditionally myopic view of African American males as criminals and hustlers this groundbreaking book provides a more nuanced and realistic portrait of their experiences in the world Chapter authors both established and emerging scholars of social problems relevant to African Americans offer a comprehensive overview of the social and economic data on black males to date and the significant issues that affect them from adolescence to adulthood Via in depth qualitative interviews as well as comprehensive surveys and data sets their physical mental and spiritual health and emerging family roles are considered within both individual and communal contexts Chapters cover health issues such as HIV and depression fatherhood and family roles suicide violence academic achievement and incarceration With original research and a special eye toward enhancing social work and social welfare intervention practice with this often overlooked subpopulation of American society this volume will be of great interest to researchers interested in African American issues students practitioners and policy makers     The Living Church

web from the examples  $a = \{2, 4, 8\}$   $b = \{x, y, z\}$   $c = \{5, 7\}$  we see that  $n_p a = 8$   $n_p b = 8$  each of the set  $a$  and  $b$  has three elements and  $n_p c = 4$   $c$  has two elements if we take the number of elements as  $k$  in each set then  $p_s n = 2k$  for  $n_p a = k = 2$   $2 \times 3 = 8$   $a$  has three elements so  $k = 3$  similarly  $n_p b = 2k = 3 \times 8 = 24$   $b$  also has three elements
