Sulla Letteratura:

La questione romantica. Rivista interdisciplinare di studi romantici vol. 15-16: Viaggio e paesaggio. Autunno 2003 primavera 2004 ,2007 Rewriting and Rereading the XIX and XX-Century Canons Brian Zuccala, Samuele Grassi, 2022-07-21 The book takes its lead from academic Annamaria Pagliaro's experience straddling Australia and Italy over a thirty year period. As both former colleagues and collaborators of Pagliaro, we editors intend to open a kaleidoscope of perspectives on the international research landscape in the fields of Italian and Anglophone studies starting from Pagliaro's own contribution to the creation of relations between the two cultures in the period that saw her work transnationally as Director of the Monash University Prato Centre 2005-2008 Italian Neorealism Charles L. Leavitt IV, 2020-07-02 This book seeks to redefine, recontextualize and reassess Italian neorealism, an artistic movement characterized by stories set among the poor and working class through innovative close readings and comparative analysis Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length. The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities, various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons, aphorisms, individual major works, notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays. The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch, nationality, era, selected writings, list of additional readings and anthologies Trends in Contemporary Italian Narrative 1980-2007 Gillian Ania, Ann Hallamore Caesar, 2009-05-05 The new Italian narrative that began to be spoken about in the 1980s was not associated with a single writer or movement but with an eclectic and varied production. The eight essays that make up this volume set out to give a flavour of the breadth and range of recent trends and developments. The collection opens with two essays on crime fiction. In the first Luca Somigli examines novels dealing with topical issues or recent history and which reveal a strong indigenous and regional tradition while in the second Nicoletta McGowan discusses the particular case of a noir by Claudia Salvatori. They are followed by essays on two of Italy's best known contemporary writers. Marina Spunta's essay explores the representation of space, place and landscape in the work of Gianni Celati and photographer Luigi Ghirri while Darrell O'Connell analyses the fiction of Vincenzo Consolo and his struggle to find a means of representing an ethical stance within fiction. Two essays then examine the role of the anthology for young writers. Charlotte Ross and Derek Duncan in the context of lesbian and gay writing looking at identity politics and the problematics of categorization. Monica Jansen and Inge Lanslots in that of the Young Cannibals and their often unsettling non-literary language and orientation towards cinema, pop music and slang. The penultimate essay by Jennifer Burns discusses the literature of migrants to Italy focusing on questions of identity, memory, mobility and language while the final contribution by Gillian Ania is a study of apocalypse and dystopia in contemporary writing looking at novels by Vassalli, Capriolo, Avoledo and Pispisa. This volume examines Italian narrative from the 1980s to the present from the original viewpoint of genres categories trends rather than author based analyses It highlights the innovations of the last twenty years incorporating into the various themes well known writers like Consolo Celati and Vassalli with relative newcomers like Avoledo and Pispisa The contributors to the volume academics from the UK Ireland Canada Belgium cover a wide range of themes which have come to the fore during this period ranging from detective stories both the giallo and the noir to lesbian and gay writing to immigration literature in Italian to the study of apocalypse and dystopia The themes are contextualized in the socio political and cultural changes taking place in Italy and parallel to this the temporal moments of the narratives are in turn related to their historical realities This is a richly woven account which presents post 80s Italian narrative from a new and stimulating angle in eight lucid and informative essays which will be welcomed by all those interested in contemporary fiction in its cultural context Professor Anna Laura Lepschy Department of Italian University College London Gramsci and the History of Dialectical Thought Maurice A.

The Unpopular Realism of Vincenzo Padula Joseph Francese,2021-10-18 The Unpopular Realism of Vincenzo Padula provides a microhistory of life in a Southern Italian province in the decade following Unification and of Vincenzo Padula who wrote single handedly from March 1864 to July 1865 a period when pro Bourbon loyalists were attempting to exploit the discontent of the Region's poor masses by fomenting brigandage and reverse the Unification Il Bruzio a pro Government periodical published in Cosenza The pro government reformist Padula pointed out not only the successes but also the shortcomings and failures of the Savoy regime so as to consolidate their rule He gave particular attention to the problems of daily life through the correspondence of a literary creation Mariuzza Sbriffiti The difficult integration of the South in Padula's view was often exacerbated by the unwillingness of the piemontesi to learn the social political and economic realities of the South Padula enables us to view from multiple angles both macroscopic issues such as the relationship between the Church and the New Italy and the dire state of the infrastructure and economy and microscopic ones such as the peasantry's misplaced hopes in Garibaldi clerical obscurantism popular beliefs and culture contradictions in the structure of the new liberal regime and the status and role of women in such a society He views his subjects from a unique perspective one is defined by its empathy for and identification with the marginalized persons of Calabria Philosophia Translata: The Development of Latin Philosophical Vocabulary through Translation from Greek Christopher J. Dowson,2023-09-25 How Latin philosophical vocabulary developed through the translation of Greek sources the varieties of translation practices Roman philosophers favoured and how these practices evolved over time are the overarching themes of this monograph A first of its kind this comparative study analyzes the creation of philosophical vocabulary in Lucretius Cicero Apuleius Calcidius and Boethius It highlights a Latin literary tradition in which the dominance of Greek philosophical expression was challenged and renovated over time through the individual translation choices of different Latin authors Included are full glossaries of Latin

Illuminating Eco Charlotte Ross, 2017-03-02

Illuminating Eco covers the range of British scholarship on the prolific literary and theoretical work of Umberto Eco. With essays by scholars such as Michael Caesar and David Robey, the volume provides an overview of current research being carried out by a new generation of academics. In addition, it provides an opportunity to view the interaction between Eco's fiction and his theoretical texts and suggests future avenues of research. The interdisciplinary nature of the contributions makes this collection accessible to Italianists and non-Italian speakers alike in order to situate Eco's work in the wider literary and critical sphere. Contributions have been divided into four sections with the first containing essays that engage with Eco's writing through a strong awareness of the reading strategies suggested and required by his texts. The second section is composed of essays that discuss different approaches to interpretative strategies including the relationship between Eco's theoretical writing and his own fiction. The third part consists of new responses to Eco's work, each of which questions previous theoretical interpretations and creates new applications for established approaches. Finally, the fourth section contains a written response from Eco himself to some of the questions raised by these essays and a translation of the final chapter from his most recent publication Sulla letteratura, which discusses the development of his narrative works from conception to execution.

Heretical Aesthetics

Pier Paolo Pasolini, 2023-08-01. One of Europe's most mythologized Marxist intellectuals of the 20th century, Pier Paolo Pasolini was not only a poet, filmmaker, novelist, and political martyr. He was also a keen critic of painting. An intermittently practicing artist in his own right, Pasolini studied under the distinguished art historian Roberto Longhi, whose lessons marked a life-long affinity for figurative painting and its centrality to a particular cinematic sensibility. Pasolini set out wilfully to contaminate art criticism with semiotics, dialectology, and film theory, penning catalogue essays and exhibition reviews alongside poems, autobiographical meditations, and public lectures on painting. His fiercely idiosyncratic blend of Communism and classicism, localism and civic universalism, iconophilia and aesthetic heresy animated and antagonized Cold War culture like few European contemporaries. This book offers numerous texts previously available only in Italian, each accompanied by an editorial note elucidating its place in the tumultuous context of post-war Italian culture. Prefaced by the renowned art historian T. J. Clark, a historical essay on Pasolini's radical aesthetics anchors the anthology. One hundred years after his birth, Heretical Aesthetics sheds light on one of the most consequential aspects of Pasolini's intellectual life, further illuminating a vast cinematic and poetic corpus along the way.

Italian Cinema from the Silent Screen to the Digital Image Joseph Luzzi, 2020-02-20. E. Holzhey,2012 Pier Paolo Pasolini 1922 1975 was both a writer and filmmaker deeply rooted in European culture as well as an intellectual who moved between different traditions identities and positions

Early on he looked to Africa and Asia for possible alternatives to the hegemony of Western Neocapitalism and Consumerism and in his hands the Greek and Judeo Christian Classics morphed into unsettling multistable figures constantly shifting between West and East North and South the present and the past rationality and myth identity and otherness The contributions in this volume which belong to different intellectual and disciplinary fields are bound together by a fascination for Pasolini's ability to recognize contradictions to intensify and multiply them as well as to make them aesthetically and politically productive What emerges is a euro eccentric and multifaceted Pasolini of great interest for the present
