Summa Theologiae A Concise Translation:

Summa Theologiae Saint Thomas (Aquinas),1989 God's Advocates Rupert Shortt,2005-10-10 Religion journalist Rupert Shortt s lively interviews introduce readers to eighteen respected Christian thinkers who have contributed to the recent renaissance in theology Central Works of Philosophy v1 John Shand,2015-01-28 This collection of essays showcases the most important and influential philosophical works of the ancient and medieval period roughly from 600 BC to AD 1600 Each chapter takes a particular work of philosophy and discusses its proponent its content and central arguments These are Plato s Republic Aristotle Nichomachean Ethics Lucretius On the Nature of the Universe Sextus Emperiicus Outlines of Pyrrhonism Plotinus The Enneads Augustine s City of God Anselm s Proslogion Aquinas Summa Theologia Duns Scotus Ordinatio William of Ockham s Summa Logicae Exploring Lost Dimensions in Christian Mysticism Louise Nelstrop,Simon D. Podmore,2016-04-15 Mystical theology has developed through a range of meanings from the hidden dimensions of divine significance in the community s interpretation of its scriptures to the much later science of the soul s ascent into communion with God The thinkers and questions addressed in this book draws us into the heart of a complicated beautiful and often tantalisingly unfinished conversation continuing over centuries and often brushing allusively into parallel concerns in other religions Raising fundamental matters of epistemology representation metaphysics and divine reality contributors approach the mystical from postmodern feminist sociological and historical perspectives through thinkers such as Meister Eckhart Thomas Aquinas Catherine of Siena Ignatius of Loyola William James Evelyn Underhill Ernst Troeltsch Rudolf Otto Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Marion and Jean Louis Chr tien Medieval and early modern radical prophetic approaches are also explored This book includes new essays by Sarah Apetrei Tina Beattie Raphael Cadenhead Oliver Davies Philip Endean Brian FitzGerald Ann Loades George Pattison Simon D Podmore Joel D S Rasmussen and Johannes Zachhuber

Central Works of Philosophy, Volume 1 John Shand,2005-09-01 Ranging over 2 500 years of philosophical writing this five volume collection of essays is an unrivalled companion for studying and reading philosophy Each essay provides an overview of a work and a clear exposition of its central ideas Covering the most influential works of our greatest philosophers the series offers remarkable insights into the ideas out of which our present ways of thinking emerged VOLUME 1 offers readers a deep understanding of ancient philosophy and the medieval period in Western Europe during which philosophers sought to harmonize the great thinkers of antiquity with Christian belief The works of Plato Aristotle Lucretius Sextus Empiricus Plotinus Augustine Anselm Aquinas Duns Scotus and Ockham are considered Contributors include Hugh H Benson Stephen R L Clark Richard Cross Paula Gottlieb R J Hankinson Peter King Christopher Kirwan Harry Lesser John Marenbon and Paul O Grady Renewing Moral Theology Daniel A. Westberg,2015-05-02 Moral theology rooted in Thomas Aquinas has long found its home in the Catholic and Anglican traditions and in recent years it has become more familiar through the perspective known as virtue ethics Renewing Moral Theology unfolds an ethical perspective that is Thomistic in structure evangelical in conviction and Anglican in ethos Aquinas on Creation Saint Thomas (Aquinas), Steven E. Baldner, Steven Earl Baldner, 1997 The immense achievement of Aquinas is to have explained so much of the Christian teaching on creation in philosophical terms Nearly everything essential to the Christian idea of creation the existence of the Creator the uniqueness of the Creator the fact that the Creator creates without intermediaries the fact that the creation is properly out of nothing the fact that the Creator creates freely is not only philosophically comprehensible according to Aquinas but also philosophically demonstrable although it is certainly comprehensible philosophically For Aquinas philosophy and theology are perfect working partners what philosophy can know only incompletely is completed by the revelation of faith True philosophical knowledge is never rejected by theology but only perfected and brought to completion Natural Law and Civil Sovereignty I. Hunter, David Saunders, 2002-06-19 In Natural Law and Civil Sovereignty new research by leading international scholars is brought to bear on a single crucial issue the role of early modern natural law doctrines in reconstructing the relations between moral right and civil authority in the face of profound religious and political conflict In addition to providing fresh insights into the hard fought struggle to legitimate a desacralised civil order the book also shows the degree to which the legitimacy of the modern secular state remains dependent on this decisive set of developments

Church Doctrine, Volume 3 Paul C. McGlasson, 2015-10-02 The present volume is the third in a five volume study of church doctrine The multivolume set covers the major parts of church doctrine Canon God Creation Reconciliation and Redemption The first volume begins with an introduction to the entire project on why doctrine matters which stresses the ecumenical global and above all biblical horizons of church doctrine as a primary expression of Christian witness The second volume discusses the doctrine of God The purpose of this third volume is to reaffirm the traditional church doctrine of Creation and yet to do so in a way that submits that tradition to the overruling overpowering authority of Scripture God the Creator according to the Bible owns the entire universe it does not belong to humankind We live in service of his covenant of grace but we do so along with our fellow creatures in a common vulnerability and finitude The volume addresses the question of how the church doctrine of Creation speaks to the manifold ecological crisis of our time Church doctrine is not a luxury but a necessity for the living community of faith by which its witness in word and deed is tested against the one true measure of Christ the risen Lord An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies, Second Edition Cyril Orji, 2021-01-07 An

Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies walks students through topical issues to be encountered in the study of the Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam as these religions encounter other religions in the context of the wider ecumenism The text is written from a Christian point of view and aims at helping students understand that to be Christian is to be ecumenical African Traditional Religions ATRs has been included in this survey to provide background for the religious traditions and cultures of peoples of Africa as Christianity moves inexorably southward The book has been written with undergraduate general education students in mind including meeting the needs of those in seminaries and theological institutes Theology, Rhetoric, Manuduction, Or Reading Scripture Together on the Path to God Peter M. Candler, 2006 Like medieval maps with their intricate illustrations unusual proportions and omission of seemingly crucial details medieval works of theology were designed to provide not an objective lay of the land for disinterested study but an itinerary for individuals traveling a specific route To read was to be taken by the hand and to join fellow travelers on a journey of participation and ultimately union with God From Truth and truth Francis Etheredge, 2016-04-26 What emerges in this second book of the trilogy is that the very ground and content of experience is richer than what can be reduced to a particular account of it As such dialogue develops from the natural diversity of what is of faith and what is of reason Neither faith nor reason however originates from experience rather both are witnessed in experience In other words taking up questions about the nature of man whether philosophically psychologically or in terms of social structures manifests both a variety of points of departure and at the same time the manifold conversations that are possible in the field of culture Focusing particularly on the work of St John Paul II the first essay examines the answer of reason and the answer of faith to the same question What is man Conversion too entails an unexpected relationship to natural truth which in its own way is both adequate and inadequate to salvation Communication as it were runs throughout these essays however in particular there is a need to enrich our human understanding of the process of coming to ourselves with the insights of spiritual discernment Axiomatically however it is possible to say that just as we come to exist through a relationship to others so our healing and holiness are manifest through our relationship to others in the Other Furthermore while it is ultimately true that we exist as individually rooted in the social structure of our origin and the times in which we live we need to critically participate in the dialogue which identifies our common reality and not live our lives covered in psycho social labels of one kind or another As a whole then there is an incomparable range and depth to dialogue Indeed given the many critical situations in the world it is increasingly indispensable and essential that humanity choose the incredible wealth of dialogue in contrast to the possibility of a polarised and conflictual structure between people and peoples Science and Faith Hannah Eagleson, 2021-10-05 How does science enhance faith Is God relevant in an age of science Science and Faith Student Questions Explored investigates the relationship between science and Christianity in a series of thoughtful and accessible articles written by experts Chosen from InterVarsity's Emerging Scholars Network blog each chapter addresses common faith and science related questions In part one Science and Faith delves into why Christians should pursue scientific discovery as well as the Bible's viewpoint on scientific method and inquiry Part two begins the conversation on the direct relevance of science to faith and how Christian scientists can talk to their colleagues about their faith while part three discusses how conversations about science can take place between Christians Finally part four explores the history of science and the church and the question How can the history of science encourage the church While ideal for graduate students who are exploring their faith and their chosen scientific fields this book can also be used in church settings or as a personal resource The book provides questions to launch small group conversation about faith science whether you re a science PhD a ministry leader or an interested layperson Since each reading is based on questions from real students it may also be a resource for Christian faculty teaching the sciences Contributors include Ruth Bancewicz Gerald Rau Greg Cootsona Andy Walsh and more

The Case for God Karen Armstrong, 2009-09-22 From the bestselling author of A History of God and The Great Transformation comes a balanced nuanced understanding of the role religion plays in human life and the trajectory of faith in modern times Why has God become incredible Why is it that atheists and theists alike now think and speak about God in a way that veers so profoundly from the thinking of our ancestors Moving from the Paleolithic Age to the present Karen Armstrong details the lengths to which humankind has gone to experience a sacred reality that it called God Brahman Nirvana Allah or Dao She examines the diminished impulse toward religion in our own time when a significant number of people either want nothing to do with God or question the efficacy of faith With her trademark depth of knowledge and profound insight Armstrong elucidates how the changing world has necessarily altered the importance of religion at both societal and individual levels And she makes a powerful convincing argument for structuring a faith that speaks to the needs of our dangerously polarized age

Brahman Michael Myers, 2013-09-13 This book is a critique of western systematic theology It borrows insights from India and other traditions it is not a synthesis of religious traditions The book includes two parts method and systematics It examines the traditional topics of systematic theology topics such as the existence and nature of God revelation and reason religious ethics and human practice the relation of God to the world Christology and eschatology and allows these topics to grow in conversation with India and to change according to dialogical insights The book is prompted by a perceived need to cross the boundaries between western and Indian worldviews in a systematic and comprehensive way The purpose of the book is to enable scholars worldwide to extend their theological resources and to look anew at the problems and prospects of a comparative systematic theology

Judgement Day Paul Collins, 2010-10 Global warming is now a reality that looms over us and ecological devastation continues apace Now more than ever there is clear recognition that we face a crisis But who is to blame for this crisis In this bold challenging and provocative book Paul Collins argues that Christianity has made a major contribution to the plight of the planet and must come to terms with a disaster that is now also the responsibility of the church

What Faith Is Not Mitch Finley, 2001-08 In his trademark accessible and thought provoking style Mitch Finley offers us a book that explores what faith is not so that we can understand what faith is Dispensing with common misconceptions of faith as a way around suffering a source of secret knowledge a security blanket a crutch a way to escape death an answer to all questions a solution to all problems and an antidote to doubt Finley helps us make the most of our finite human language in talking about our infinite God Mixing wisdom from Scripture tradition and everyday life with humor and insight Finley helps us understand faith as a gift that stretches our minds helps us learn from suffering motivates us to reach out to those in need and leads us to more meaningful and joyful living Faith and Place

Mark R. Wynn, 2009-05-07 Faith and Place takes knowledge of place as a basis for thinking about the relationship between religious belief and our embodied life Recent epistemology of religion has appealed to various secular analogues for religious belief especially analogues drawn from sense perception and scientific theory construction These approaches tend to overlook the close connection between religious belief and our moral aesthetic and otherwise engaged relationship to the material world By taking knowledge of place as a starting point for religious epistemology Mark Wynn aims to throw into clearer focus the embodied action orienting perception structuring and affect infused character of religious understanding This innovative study understands the religious significance of a site in terms of i its capacity to stand for some encompassing truth about human life ii its conservation of historical meanings where these meanings make a practical claim upon those located at the place at later times and iii its directing of the believer s attention to a sacred meaning through enacted appropriation of the site Wynn proposes that the notion of God functions like the notion of a genius loci where the relevant locus is the sum of material reality He argues that knowledge of God consists in part in a storied and sensuous appreciation of the significance of particular places On Evil Thomas Aquinas, 2003-03-20 The De Malo represents some of Aquinas most mature thinking on goodness badness and human agency In it he examines the full range of questions associated with evil its origin its nature its relation to good and its compatibility with the existence of an omnipotent benevolent God This edition offers Richard Regan s new clear readable English translation based on the Leonine Commission s authoritative edition of the Latin text Brian Davies has provided an extensive introduction and notes Please note this edition does not include the Latin text
