Colavita, 2020-12-09 Help Me Find My Brother is a memoir about Maria Colavita's relationship with her brother Angelo It details the journey she and her parents endured as they discovered the person he had become and uncovered his years of self destructive addictive behavior and the resulting tragic accidents Growing up in an Italian American house Maria and Angelo's loving parents worked hard to provide many good opportunities for their children Maria enjoyed the brighter opportunities that came her way but struggled to understand why Angelo chose the darker path of life Her fun loving intelligent brother was lost to the world of drug addiction Maria has worked for the past 40 years to help Angelo trying to steer him toward a life with a brighter future She's shared her story of how an ordinary traditional family with old school values understood and handled their lost son and brother Help Me Find My Brother is Maria's attempt to understand the difference between Angelo's drug addict lifestyle and his traumatic brain injuries and mental illness While she may not have gotten her fun loving brother back she became a much better sister and daughter because of this journey Selecting the Right College - a Family Affair Joe A. Howell, 2004-10-01 Dr Joe A Howell born in Cape Girardeau Missouri in 1930 served as an educator in five different states and two foreign countries His experience came from being a teacher professor dean vice president counselor and for eighteen years president of Central Methodist College in Missouri He received his doctorates from George Peabody College Vanderbilt University Nashville Tennessee His publications in professional journals are extensive and he has authored five books on higher education Over the years he has given the same advice to parents and teachers When asked how to treat a student or child he answers Treat them as you would like to be treated Throughout forty years he learned many particulars about the selecting and graduating from college One of the factors often overlooked is the importance the entire family plays It is not either the child or the parent it is the entire family A partnership if you will between the prospective college student and the student's parents It is this important relationship that this book is all about All too often it takes more than the planned four years for the student to graduate from college All too often a four year supply of funds is not enough All too often the reason for the delaying graduation has nothing to do with the student's ability to accomplish the academic challenges Too often it has to do with selecting the wrong college This book is directed toward helping the family find the match between themselves and the institution Sound simple Perhaps but the statistics are clear Only about 50 percent of all entering freshman graduate in the planned four years Yes the match or mismatch between family and institution goes a long way toward graduating and enjoying college Bright Lights, Summer in the City John Phillipson, 2009 Set in 1986

Whispers from the Soul Antonia Guerrero, 2011-04-20 A book of poetry collected from family memories as a child Every poem in the collection pertains to a family member in my life or special moments Also writing was a moment when I could speak from the soul and ended being wonderful therapy I found out I could put my feelings away in a box and return when I wanted to remember my special people When my sister Annie was dying from cancerous tumors in the head was the most hurtful moments of life She inspired me to write because my love for her gave me so much power to write about her and preparation to say goodbye

A Place to Belong Gerald L. Pocius, 2000 A Place to Belong is a profusely illustrated intimate contemporary portrait of Calvert a three hundred year old fishing village on Newfoundland's southern shore Often using its residents own words Gerald Pocius describes in detail the continual creative encounters between past and present between individual and community that make up daily life in Calvert By accepted standards of tradition Calvert's culture is declining Old structures are regularly torn down or renovated antique household items are replaced with modern conveniences Pocius argues however that the tangible expressions of a culture can be misleading Calvert's essence is not in the things owned and used by its residents but in the spaces in which those things abide and in the attitudes values and obligations that delineate the order of those spaces From woodlands water and fields to yards gardens and homes Calvert's physical and social structure is governed by shared concerns about the community's livelihood and welfare As a resident of Calvert puts it Where you're working in the same space with people you know it's just not practical to be falling out with everyone The sense of community that pervades Calvert is best exemplified by its annual draw for fishing berths Because productivity varies among offshore fishing grounds there is no private ownership of fishing rights Rather a lottery instituted in 1919 ensures each family the same chances for periodic access to the best fishing berths The draw continues until all the fishing berths are awarded but it is common for a family to opt out once they have drawn enough good berths There are also instances of the most successful fishing operations sharing their catches From his observations of Calvert's people at work and leisure Pocius provides evidence to confirm the viability and durability of their culture He reveals that standard assumptions about culture are inadequate particularly those based on the primacy of artefacts and on sharp dichotomies between tradition and modernity Calvert he shows belies our notion that declining cultural values and social segmentation are unavoidable side effects of modernisation and a rise in material well being A Place to Belong will promote a constructive scepticism about the ways we perceive and interpret cultures and most important will remind us of what it really means to belong to a place
