Driving by Memory William L. Fox, 1999 Road trips to Las Vegas are the occasion for this entertaining meditation on the quintessentially American experience of driving across the desert William Fox successively exiled from California Nevada and New Mexico has spent more time than most of us driving to Las Vegas and he has taken notes on three recent trips his own way of bringing cohesion to the vast and mind numbing aspects of the freeway Approaching the most postmodern city on the planet from three directions he examines the landscape and what we do to it while also trying to figure out who he is what that means and the nature of the transformations of land into landscape through art and architecture landscape design and advertising Fox's history of the region both natural and cultural highlights the creep of the urban supergrid across the most extensively traveled desert in the world This is a profoundly personal even idiosyncratic book about the most public of subjects living in the postmodern West at the end of the millennium and what the cities the freeways the open spaces and the billboards tell us about ourselves The Politics of Public Memory Martha K. Norkunas,1993-01-01 This book examines American public culture and the means by which communities in the U S reconstruct the past and reinterpret the present in the development of tourism Norkunas shows how public culture is not confined to just museums or monuments but can be constructed on many different levels and in different settings such as community ethnicity natural setting environment literary landscape and history In her case study of Monterey the author explores the particular ideologies that prompt the community to represent itself in tourism and that also act to legitimate the current social structure

Mountains Of Memory Don Scheese,2001-11 In Mountains of Memory seasoned wilderness dweller Don Scheese charts a long season of watching for and fighting fires in Idaho's River of No Return Wilderness 151the largest federal wilderness area in the mainland United States An inspiring tale of self discovery Mountains of Memory paints a complex portrait of the natural institutional and historical forces that have shaped the great forested landscapes of the American West A student of nature writing as well as a fire lookout with over a decade of experience Scheese recounts his life at the top of the world along with daring adventures such as backpacking and mountaineering in the Bighorn Crags and kayaking down the Middle Fork of the Salmon River All the while he touches upon the mysterious and powerful realities of the wilderness around him and stunning dawns visible within the glass cage perched on a 9 000 foot mountain stirring flashes of lightning visible all around the dark landscape as the radio crackles with reports of strikes observed and fires spotted long awaited trips down the mountain to civilization for cold beer and hot pizza In the tradition of Edward Abbey and Gary Snyder Don Scheese offers readers a meditation on the meaning and value of wilderness at the beginning of the twenty first century

A Disposition to Be Rich Geoffrey C. Ward,2013-04-23 A New York Times Notable Book The compelling behind the scenes story of the greatest swindler of the Gilded Age whose villainy bankrupted Ulysses S Grant and stunned the world of finance told by his great grandson award winning historian Geoffrey C Ward Ferdinand Ward the son of a Protestant missionary and small town pastor moved to New York at twenty one and in less than a decade made himself the business partner of a former president and established himself as the Young Napoleon of Finance In truth he was running a massive pyramid scheme Drawing from thousands of family documents never before examined Geoffrey C Ward traces his great grandfather's rapid rise to riches and fame and his even more dizzying fall from grace in a narrative populated with mistresses crooked bankers corrupt New York officials and a desperate kidnapping scheme Here is a great story about a classic American con artist
