Sunday Classic Contemporaries:

Contemporary Reconfigurations of American Literary Classics Betina Entzminger, 2013 The number and popularity of novels that have overtly reconfigured aspects of classic American texts suggests a curious trend for both readers and writers an impulse to retell and reread books that have come to define American culture This book argues that by revising canonical American literature contemporary American writers are re writing an American myth of origins creating one that corresponds to the contemporary writer s understanding of self and society Informed by cognitive psychology evolutionary literary criticism and poststructuralism Entzminger reads texts by canonical authors Poe Hawthorne Melville Alcott Twain Chopin and Faulkner and by the contemporary writers that respond to them In highlighting the construction and cognitive function of narrative in their own and in their antecedent texts contemporary writers highlight the fact that such use of narrative is universal and essential to human beings This book suggests that by revising the classic texts that compose our cultural narrative contemporary writers mirror the way human individuals consistently revisit and refigure the past through language via self narration in order to manage and understand experience

Political Anxiety in Golden Age Children's Classics and Their Contemporary Adaptations Jasmin Sültemeyer, 2021-07-05 As striking counter intuitive and distasteful as the combination of children and anxiety may seem some of the most popular children s classics abound in depictions of traumatic relationships bloody wars and helpless heroes This book draws on Freudian and Lacanian anxiety models to investigate the psychological and political significance of this curious juxtaposition as it stands out in Golden Age novels from both sides of the Atlantic and their present day adaptations The stories discussed in detail so the argument goes identify specific anxieties and forms of anxiety management as integral elements of hegemonial middle class identity Apart from its audacious link between psychoanalysis and Marxist feminist as well as postcolonial ideology criticism this study provides a nuanced analysis of the ways in which allegedly trivial texts negotiate questions of individual and trans national identities In doing so it offers a fresh look at beloved tales like Alice s Adventures in Wonderland The Wizard of Oz and Peter Pan contributes to the dynamic field of adaptation studies and highlights the necessity to approach children s entertainment more seriously and more sensitively than it is generally the case Classical and Contemporary Sociological Theory Scott Appelrouth, Laura Desfor Edles, 2008 A unique hybrid of text and readings this book combines the major writings of sociology s core classical and contemporary theorists with an historical as well as theoretical framework for understanding them Laura Desfor Edles and Scott A Appelrouth provide not just a biographical and theoretical summary of each theorist reading but an overarching scaffolding which students can use to examine compare and contrast each theorists major themes and concepts No other theory text combines such student friendly explanation and analysis with original theoretical works Key features include Pedagogical devices and visual aids charts figures and photographs to help summarize key concepts illuminate complex ideas and provoke student interest Chapters on well known figures such as Marx Weber Durkheim Parsons and Foucault as well as an in depth discussion of lesser known voices such as Charlotte Perkins Gilman WEB Du Bois and Leslie Sklair Photos of not only the theorists but of the historical milieu from which the theories arose as well as a glossary at the back Contemporary Doctrine Classics Church of England. Doctrine Commission, 2005 This volume brings together three classic books from the Church of England s Doctrine Commission We Believe in God 1987 We Believe in the Holy Spirit 1991 and The Mystery of Salvation 1996

Contemporary Art and Classical Myth Jennie Hirsh, 2017-07-05 Contemporary art is deeply engaged with the subject of classical myth Yet within the literature on contemporary art little has been said about this provocative relationship Composed of fourteen original essays Contemporary Art and Classical Myth addresses this scholarly gap exploring and in large part establishing the multifaceted intersection of contemporary art and classical myth Moving beyond the notion of art as illustration the essays assembled here adopt a range of methodological frameworks from iconography to deconstruction and do so across an impressive range of artists and objects Francis Al s Ghada Amer Wim Delvoye Luciano Fabro Joanna Frueh Felix Gonzales Torres Duane Hanson Yayoi Kusama Roy Lichtenstein Kara Walker and an iconic photograph by Richard Drew subsequently entitled The Falling Man Arranged so as to highlight both thematic and structural affinities these essays manifest various aspects of the link between contemporary art and classical myth while offering novel insights into the artists and myths under consideration Some essays concentrate on single works as they relate to specific myths while others take a broader approach calling on myth as a means of grappling with dominant trends in contemporary art Classical and

Handbook of Contemporary Sociological Theory Seth Abrutyn,2016-06-22 This Handbook provides the hidden common threads that tie sociological inquiry together and featuring eminent scholars it separates itself from its predecessors in substance and organization Rather than rehashing old debates or longingly gazing at the past this book presents sociologists with new ways of conceptualizing the organization and presentation of sociological theory At the heart of this Handbook s vision is the twin goals of making theory a viable enterprise by reconceptualizing how we teach theory and keeping theory closely tied to its empirical applications Three strategies are offered 1 Elucidating how classic issues like integration or interaction are interrogated today 2 Presenting a coherent vision of the social levels of reality that theorists work on such as communities groups and the self as well as how the coherence of these levels speaks to the macro micro link and 3 Theorizing the social world rather than celebrating theorists or theories that is one can look at how theory is used holistically to understand the constraints the social world places on our lived experience or the dynamics of social change Hence in the second decade of the 21st century it has become clear that sociology is at a crossroads as the number of theorists and amount of theory available is increasingly unmanageable and unknowable by the vast majority of professionals and students As such this Handbook of Contemporary Sociological Theory presents the novice and the expert with the a roadmap for traversing this crossroad and building a more coherent robust and cumulative sociology Classical Spirituality in

Indian Classical Dance and the Making of Postcolonial National Identities Sitara Thobani, 2017-03-27 Previous studies have analysed Indian classical dance as an expression of Indian religious and nationalist culture examining the art form solely in the context of Indian history and culture In investigating performances of Indian classical dance in the UK it is possible to argue that classical Indian dance has become a key aspect of the mutual constitution of not only postcolonial Indian and South Asia diasporic identities but also of British multicultural and transnational identity This book explores what happens when national cultural production is reproduced outside the immediate social political and cultural context of its construction
