Christ Our Passover Has Been Sacrificed Mark G. Boyer,2018-01-03 Christ Our Passover Has Been Sacrificed examines the paschal mystery as it is presented throughout the liturgical year in The Roman Missal After offering an in depth definition of the paschal mystery the author guides the reader through Lent Holy Week Easter Pentecost and more mining the riches of paschal mystery spirituality Biblical accounts interpret the death and resurrection of Jesus liturgical texts in The Roman Missal present a rich seam of spiritual truth for the reader to apply to his or her life By remembering Jesus death and resurrection Roman Catholics celebrate daily dying and rising to new life The author serves as a guide through paschal mystery spirituality while also noting the mystical theology reflections on experiences of God represented by the prayers in The Roman Missal particularly those dealing with Jesus suffering death resurrection ascension and gift of the Spirit Through reflections and meditation questions readers are invited to name their own personally transforming mystical experiences which connect them to God in deep levels and move them outward into the community to share spirituality The HTML of Cruciform Love John Frederick,Eric Lewellen,2019-03-12 The topic of the Internet is vastly underrepresented in the current literature on the intersection of technology and theology Studies on Internet theology are certainly viewed as a topic of special interest relevant it might be thought only to eccentric academics and tech geeks Yet this book contends that there is no topic more pertinent to our daily walk as contemporary followers of Jesus Christ than the theological implications of the Internet The twelve essays of this volume though standalone pieces also work in conjunction to investigate the themes of community and character formation in the digital realm A host of interrelated sub themes are represented in the book including the application of patristic theology to contemporary Internet praxis a demonology of the Internet virtue ethics in cyberspace and studies that consider the implications of Internet technology on aesthetics personhood and the self Together the chapters work toward a collaborative constructive cruciform theology of the Internet The Internet is more than a supplementary component to our personal lives rather it is a medium of vital connection for the digital communion of the saints through the HTML of cruciform love The Emergence of Contemporary Judaism, Part I and II Phillip

Sigal,1980-01-01 The Lamb Eternal Dr. Christine Van Horn,2017-03-30 When Jesus died on Passover He became the sacrificial lamb for the salvation of the world Since He died as the sacrificial lamb He also had to begin His life on earth as the Lamb the Lamb of God Jesus was the Lamb of God from the foundation of the world Revelation 13 8 Jesus was the Lamb of God even before His appearance on earth as the babe in the manger John the Baptist revealed Jesus to the world as the Lamb of God He lived and died as the Lamb He is the Lamb to come in the Book of Revelation Jesus was is and always will be the Lamb of God May this book take you on a journey to learn more about the birth life death and eternal nature of our Lord Jesus Christthe Lamb of God Your understanding of what Jesus did for us on Calvary will be enriched Jesus' Death and Heavenly Offering in Hebrews R. B. Jamieson,2019 Examines Hebrews exposition of Jesus death his self offering in heaven at his ascension and the link between them Faith That Endures J. Dwight Pentecost,2000 Hebrews is a thorough and wide ranging look at Jesus fulfillment of the expectations and religious requirements of the Old Testament Dr Pentecost guides the reader through the rich historical meaning and contemporary applications of Hebrews Purifying the Consciousness in Hebrews Joshua D. A. Bloor,2023-02-23 Joshua D A Bloor argues that the purification of the consciousness of sin via Jesus perpetual heavenly blood offering is a vital motif for understanding Hebrews sacrificial argumentation and vice versa Jesus objective earthly achievements are many yet only his subjective heavenly blood offering purges the heavenly tabernacle and subsequently the consciousness of sin Bloor views the Levitical cult as having a positive role in Hebrews with Levitical guilt foreshadowing and informing Hebrews notion of the consciousness of sin Levitical sacrifices could purge the consciousness but only Jesus heavenly blood can offer complete perpetual purgation This blood is a qualitative type of purgation which continually speaks in heaven offering eternal assurance for the recipients regarding their consciousness of sin Bloor begins with the defiled consciousness and situates the world of Hebrews within cultic defilement enabling the consciousness of sin and its cosmic implications to be properly understood From here the solution to a defiled consciousness is explored by examining Hebrews cultic argumentation Bloor highlights the distinctive purposes inherent in both Jesus earthly and heavenly achievements with the latter concerned particularly with Yom Kippur imagery and the purgation of the consciousness Bloor concludes by differentiating between Jesus' present heavenly activity and perpetual heavenly blood offering Throughout this volume Bloor engages critiques and advances current discourse concerning the nature and timing of Jesus' offering in Hebrews

The Making of a Heretic Virginia Burrus, 2024-06-12 Silenced for 1 600 years the heretics speak for themselves in this account of the Priscillianist controversy that began in fourth century Spain In a close examination of rediscovered texts Virginia Burrus provides an unusual opportunity to explore heresy from the point of view of the followers of Priscillian and to reevaluate the reliability of the historical record Her analysis takes into account the concepts of gender authority and public and private space that informed established religion's response to this early Christian movement Priscillian who began his career as a lay teacher with particular influence among women faced charges of heresy along with accusations of sorcery and sexual immorality following his ordination to the episcopacy He was executed along with several of his followers circa 386 His purportedly gnostic doctrines produced controversy and division within the churches of Spain dissension that continued into the early decades of the fifth century Burrus's thorough and wide ranging study enlarges upon previous scholarship particularly in bringing a feminist perspective to bear on the gendered constructions of religious orthodoxies making a valuable contribution to the recent commentary that explores new ways of looking at early Christian controversies This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996

The Social Visions of the Hebrew Bible J. David Pleins, 2001-01-01 J. David Pleins presents a sociological study of the Hebrew Bible seeking to uncover its social vision by examining biblical statements about social ethics He does this within the framework provided by Israel's social institutions the social locations of its actors and the historical struggles for power and survival that are reflected in the transmission of the texts
