Earth, Stone, and Light Gloria Fraser Giffords,2007-12-06 Over nearly three centuries Jesuit Franciscan and Dominican missionaries built a network of churches throughout the new world of New Spain Since the early twentieth century scholars have studied the colonial architecture of southern New Spain but they have largely ignored the architecture of the north However as this book clearly demonstrates the colonial architecture of Northern New Spain an area that encompasses most of the southwestern United States and much of northern Mexico is strikingly beautiful and rich with meaning After more than two decades of research both in the field and in archives around the world Gloria Fraser Giffords has authored the definitive book on this architecture Giffords has a remarkable eye for detail and for images both grand and diminutive Because so many of the buildings she examines have been destroyed she sleuthed through historical records in several countries and she discovered that the architecture and material culture of northern New Spain reveal the influences of five continents As she examines objects as large as churches or as small as ornamental ceramic tile she illuminates the sometimes subtle sometimes striking influences of the religious social and artistic traditions of Europe from the beginning of the Christian era through the nineteenth century of the Muslim countries ringing the Mediterranean from the seventh through the fifteenth centuries and of Northern New Spain's indigenous peoples whose art influenced the designs of occupying Europeans. Sanctuaries of Earth, Stone, and Light is a pathbreaking book featuring 200 stunning photographs and over 300 illustrations ranging from ceremonial garments to detailed floor plans of the churches.

The Nature of Desert Nature Gary Paul Nabhan, 2020-11-10

In this refreshing collection, one of our best writers on desert places, Gary Paul Nabhan, challenges traditional notions of the desert. Beautiful, reflective, and at times humorous, Nabhan's extended essay, also called The Nature of Desert Nature, reveals the complexity of what a desert is and can be. He passionately writes about what it is like to visit a desert and what living in a desert looks like when viewed through a new frame, turning age-old notions of the desert on their heads. Nabhan invites a prism of voices—friends, colleagues, and advisors from his more than four decades of study of deserts—to bring their own perspectives. Scientists, artists, desert contemplatives, poets, and writers bring the desert into view and investigate why these places compel us to walk through their sands and beneath their cacti and acacia. We observe the spines and spears, stings and songs of the desert anew. Unexpected, surprising, enchanting. Like the desert itself, each essay offers renewed vocabulary and thoughtful perceptions. The desert inspires wonder. Attending to history, culture, science, and spirit, The Nature of Desert Nature celebrates the bounty and the significance of desert places.

A Desert Feast Carolyn Niethammer, 2020-09-22

Southwest Book of the Year Award Winner, PubWest Book Design Award Winner. Drawing on thousands of years of foodways, Tucson cuisine blends the influences of Indigenous Mexican, mission-era Mediterranean, and ranch-style cowboy food traditions. This book offers a food pilgrimage where stories and recipes demonstrate why the desert city of Tucson became America's first UNESCO City of Gastronomy. Both family supper tables and the city's trendiest restaurants feature native desert plants and innovative dishes incorporating ancient agricultural staples. Award-winning writer Carolyn Niethammer deliciously shows how the Sonoran Desert's first farmers grew tasty crops that continue to influence Tucson menus and how the arrival of Roman Catholic missionaries, Spanish soldiers, and Chinese farmers influenced what Tucsonans ate. White Sonora wheat, tepary beans, and criollo cattle steaks make Tucson's cuisine unique. In A Desert Feast, you'll see pictures of kids learning to grow food at school and you'll meet the farmers, small-scale food entrepreneurs, and chefs who are dedicated to growing and using heritage foods. It's fair to say Tucson tastes like nowhere else.

Field Man Julian D. Hayden, 2016-10-01
