Chambers,2011-07-27 An Introduction to Visual Research Methods in Tourism is the first book to present discuss and promote the use of a range of visual methods including still images such as photographs postcards drawings and moving images such as video within the context of tourism research The book focuses on key issues important for students researchers and academics actively doing visual tourism research or those who are contemplating using these methods. These range from the questions surrounding philosophical approaches, interdisciplinary location, range and choice of methods, implementation and data analysis techniques to provide an essential guide to using visual methods in tourism research. While recognising that visual methods are predominantly employed within qualitative research, this text will discuss various philosophical approaches and academic disciplines indicating how these influence a particular choice of visual method, mode of implementation and type of analysis. In this regard, this book will incorporate perspectives from a range of disciplines including anthropology, geography and sociology, demonstrating how these might be applied within the context of studies in tourism. The discussions surrounding these key issues are supplemented with international case studies from existing research to show how these methods are used in practice. In addition to this, practical tip boxes are included to help avoid some of the pitfalls associated with visual research. This book is an essential guide for tourism students, academics and researchers embarking on research using visual methodology in this field.

Flights of Imagination Sonja Dümpelmann, 2014-09-19. In much the same way that views of the earth from the Apollo missions in the late 1960s and early 1970s led indirectly to the inauguration of Earth Day and the modern environmental movement, the dawn of aviation ushered in a radically new way for architects, landscape designers, urban planners, geographers and archaeologists to look at cities and landscapes. As icons of modernity, airports facilitated the development of a global economy during the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries, reshaping the way people thought about the world around them. Professionals of the built environment awoke to the possibilities offered by the airports themselves as sites of design and by the electrifying new aerial perspective on landscape. In Flights of Imagination, Sonja Dümpelmann follows the evolution of airports from their conceptualization as landscapes and cities to modern-day plans to turn decommissioned airports into public urban parks. The author discusses landscape design and planning activities that were motivated, legitimized and facilitated by the aerial view. She also shows how viewing the earth from above redirected attention to bodily experience on the ground and illustrates how design professionals understood the aerial view as simultaneously abstract and experiential, detailed and contextual, harmful and essential. Along the way, Dümpelmann traces this multiple dialectic from the 1920s to the land camouflage activities during World War II and from the environmental and landscape planning initiatives of the 1960s through today.

A Short History of Finland Fred Singleton, 1998-10. Finland has often been ignored or misunderstood by the English-speaking world and this work presents the reader with a readable and authoritative introduction to the life of the Finns and the position of their country in the modern world. The book explains how a small nation placed in an unfavorable geopolitical situation won its independence and eventually achieved a high material standard of living together with an enviable degree of social and political stability by adapting itself to the realities of life in an unpromising environment. Connecting with Ambivalent Heritage Tiina Äikäs, Tuuli Matila, 2024-09-05 Exploring the difficult and contested sites of deindustrialized society on the brink of transformation to either heritage or wasteland this volume looks at the creative ways that such sites are re used and suggests that they are not always merely abject or abandoned As a result our understanding of the meanings given to left over spaces is enhanced by an examination of the ways they are used Ambivalent heritage sites are not always recognized for their potential although artists and people from different recreational activities such as industrial sites and parkour use and experience these places in different ways The contributors introduce fresh ideas on how to approach these sites and the people invested in them employing multidisciplinary methodologies from archaeology and heritage studies to ethnography and sociology Through the use of Northern European case studies such as a former sanatorium a prison and the Chornobyl Exclusion Zone the reader gains a new perspective on these sites of contestation which are cherished despite their problematic status The conclusion is that due to the rapid societal change we are experiencing in the contemporary world heritage professionals must start to acknowledge and deal with the difficulties that ambivalent heritage sites pose
