The Boycott Of The Milner Mission A Study In Egyptian Nationalism:

The Boycott of the Milner Mission John D. McIntyre, 1985 This book examines the Egyptian nationalist movement following the First World War and focuses its attention on the passive stage of the revolution of 1919 associated with the boycott of Lord Milner's commission of inquiry By analyzing the respective roles of the Central Committee of the Wafd Muslim and Coptic religious leaders and institutions Egyptian women and Egyptian students in the boycott movement McIntyre shows that the Milner Mission which was sent to Egypt in order to seek a method of preserving the British protectorate actually stimulated the further development of Egyptian nationalist sentiment and strengthened the consensus in Egypt demanding complete independence

Egyptian-Indian Nationalist Collaboration and the British Empire N. Khan, 2011-10-24 An examination of the collaboration between Egyptian and Indian nationalists against the British Empire this book argues that the basis for Third World or Non Aligned Movement was formed long before the Cold War

The Copts of Egypt Vivian Ibrahim, 2010-12-02 The Coptic Christians of Egypt have traditionally been portrayed as a beleaguered minority persecuted in a Muslim majority state and by the threat of political Islam Vivian Ibrahim offers a vivid portrayal of the community and an alternative interpretation of Coptic agency in the twentieth century through newly discovered sources Dismissing the monolithic portrayal of this community she analyses how Copts negotiated a role for themselves during the colonial and Nasserist periods and their multifaceted response to the emergence of the Muslim Brotherhood She examines reform within the Church itself and how it led to power struggles that redefined the role of the Pope and Church in Nasser's Egypt The findings of this book hold great relevance for understanding identity politics and the place of the Coptic community in the fast changing political landscape of today's Egypt

The League of Nations Experience Aurora Almada e Santos, Yvette Santos, 2024-12-16 As an early experiment in the creation of multilateral institutions the League of Nations was entrusted by its members to maintain peace but also to be a standard maker and a manager of contemporary problems and challenges requiring a global response Nevertheless after a while it became clear that its performance in addressing major conflicts did not live up to the expectations of guaranteeing collective security In the functional areas although the organization created precedents it also showed limitations Due to its complexity increasingly the League of Nations has been studied not only from an institutional perspective but also from a more multidimensional and comparative point of view that allows to consider the presence and role of the organization in various scales and spaces besides its relationship with a diversity of actors and themes The League of Nations Experience Overlapping Readings offers a multitude of interpretations evincing some of the promising avenues through which the League of Nations continues to inspire academic research

Nurturing the Nation Lisa Pollard, 2005-01-31 Publisher Description Egypt as a Woman Beth Baron, 2005 Can anything new be said about modern Egyptian nationalism Beth Baron's book Egypt as a Woman one of the best modern Egyptian history books to appear in several years leaves no doubt that it can With evenhandedness and generosity Baron shows how vital women were to mobilizing opposition to British authority and modernizing Egypt Robert L Tignor author of Capitalism and Nationalism at the End of Empire A wonderful contribution to understanding Egyptian national and gender politics between the two world wars Baron explores the paradox of women's exclusion from political rights at the very moment when visual and metaphorical representations of Egypt as a woman were becoming widespread and real women activists both secularist and Islamist were participating more actively in public life than ever before Donald Malcolm Reid author of Whose Pharaohs Archaeology Museums and Egyptian National Identity from Napoleon to World War I

I Midnight in Cairo: The Divas of Egypt's Roaring '20s Raphael Cormack, 2021-03-09 A vibrant portrait of the talented and entrepreneurial women who defined an era in Cairo One of the world's most multicultural cities twentieth century Cairo was a magnet for the ambitious and talented During the 1920s and 30s a vibrant music theater film and cabaret scene flourished defining what it meant to be a modern Egyptian Women came to dominate the Egyptian entertainment industry as stars of the stage and screen but also as impresarios entrepreneurs owners and promoters of a new and strikingly modern entertainment industry Raphael Cormack unveils the rich histories of independent enterprising women like vaudeville star Rose al Youssef who launched one of Cairo's most important newspapers nightclub singer Mounira al Mahdiyya the first woman to lead an Egyptian theater company and her great rival Oum Kalthoum still venerated for her soulful lyrics and other fabulous female stars of the interwar period a time marked by excess and unheard of freedom of expression Buffeted by crosswinds of colonialism and nationalism conservatism and liberalism religious and secular values patriarchy and feminism this new generation of celebrities offered a new vision for women in Egypt and throughout the Middle East The 20th Century O-Z Frank N. Magill, 2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Mussolini's Propaganda Abroad Manuela Williams, 2006-11-22 This is the first major study in English of Fascist Italy's overseas propaganda Using rare Italian and French captured documents this is also the first investigation into the relationship between Mussolini's regime and Arab nationalist movements This new account covers propaganda and subversive activities engineered by the Italian government in the Mediterranean and the Middle East from 1935 until 1940 when Italy entered the war It assesses the nature of the challenge brought by the Fascist regime to British security and colonial interests in the region Fascist propaganda in particular in the Arab Middle East must be regarded as an expression of Mussolini's foreign policy and his attempts to build an Italian empire that would stretch beyond the Mediterranean gaining control over the exits

Gibraltar and Suez which were in the hands of the British and the French The activities of individual agents and organizations are carefully reconstructed and analyzed to highlight the seemingly contradictory objectives of the Italian government on the one hand Rome was courting the Arab nationalist movements in Egypt and Palestine which were seeking the support of external forces capable of providing political financial and military backing needed to overthrow foreign rulers on the other the regime was promoting further territorial expansion in Africa These aspects build into an excellent picture of this fascinating period of modern history This book will be of great interest to all students and scholars of politics media Italian history and propaganda Britain in Egypt Jayne Gifford, 2019-12-12 Egypt under the British tends to be looked at now through a post Suez lens an inevitable disaster and the last puncturing of a doomed empire But in fact Egypt for many years was the cornerstone of British success across the Middle East and North Africa This image of empire was shattered after the First World War by the development of nationalism in Egypt the foundation and growth of the nationalist Wafd party led by Saad Zaghlul and the creation of the Muslim Brotherhood in 1928 Throughout this period Britain continued to control the Nile Valley under Field Marshal Allenby and then George Lloyd through a policy of deliberate containment of nationalism and a slow relinquishing of powers culminating in the Anglo Egypt Treaty of 1936 This book will be the first to study that process in the Nile Valley in any great detail and contains previously unpublished primary sources In Defence of Britain's Middle Eastern Empire Timothy Paris, 2015-10-30 T E Lawrence of Arabia described his war time chief as the perfect leader a man who worked by influence rather than by loud direction He was like water or permeating oil creeping silently and insistently through everything It was not possible to say where Clayton was and was not and how much really belonged to him This is the first biography of General Sir Gilbert Clayton 1875 1929 Britain's pre eminent man on the spot during the formative years of the modern Middle East Serving as a soldier administrator and diplomat in ten different Middle Eastern countries during a 33 year Middle Eastern career Clayton is best known as the Director of British Intelligence in Cairo during the Great War 1914 16 and as the instigator and sponsor of the Arab Revolt against the Turks Dedicated to the preservation of Britain's Middle Eastern empire Clayton came to realize that in the transformed post war world Britain could ill afford to control all aspects of the emerging nation states in the region In his work as adviser to the Egyptian government 1919 22 he advocated internal autonomy for the Egyptians while asserting Britain's vital imperial interests in the country As chief administrator in Palestine 1923 5 he sought to reconcile the Arabs to Britain's national home policy for the Jews and at the same time to solidify Britain's position as Mandatory power In Arabia Clayton negotiated the first post war treaties with the emerging power of Ibn Saud 1925 1927 but curtailed his designs on the British Mandates in Iraq and Transjordan And in Iraq where Clayton served as High Commissioner 1929 he backed Iraq's independence within the framework of the British Empire Re-envisioning Egypt 1919-1952 Arthur Goldschmidt, Amy J. Johnson, Barak A. Salmoni, 2005 Re Envisioning Egypt 1919 1952 presents new and often dismissed aspects of the constitutional monarchy era in Egyptian history It demonstrates that many of the domestic and regional sociopolitical and cultural changes credited to the 1952 revolutionaries actually began in the decades before the July coup. Arguing against the predominant view of the pre-revolutionary era in Egypt as one of creeping decay, the volume restores understandings of the 1919-1952 years as integral to modern nation-state formation and social transformation. The book's contributors show that Egypt's real revolutions were long-term processes emerging over several decades prior to 1952. The leaders of the 1952 coup capitalized on these developments yet earlier changes in Egyptian society fundamentally facilitated their actions and policies. This volume includes revisionist discussion of domestic political issues and foreign policy, the military, education, social reform, and class, as well as popular media, art, and literature. By introducing new approaches to these underappreciated categories of analysis through exploration of untapped sources and by re-examining the political context of the time, Re-Visioning Egypt 1919-1952 proposes innovative methodologies for understanding this crucial period in Egyptian history, casting these years as fundamental to the country's twentieth-century trajectory. Contributors: Tewfik Aclimandos, Malak Badrawi, Andrew Flibbert, Nancy Gallagher, Arthur Goldschmidt, Mervat Hatem, Misako Ikeda, Amy J. Johnson, Anne Claire Kerboeuf, Samia Kholoussi, Hanan Kholoussy, Fred Lawson, Shaun T. Lopez, Scott David McIntosh, Roger Owen, Lucie Ryzova, Barak A. Salmoni, James Whidden, Caroline Williams. The Wilsonian Moment, Erez Manela, 2007-07-23. During the Paris Peace Conference of 1919, while key decisions were debated by the victorious Allied powers, a multitude of smaller nations and colonies held their breath, waiting to see how their fates would be decided. President Woodrow Wilson in his Fourteen Points had called for a free, open-minded and absolutely impartial adjustment of all colonial claims, giving equal weight to the opinions of the colonized peoples and the colonial powers. Among those nations now paying close attention to Wilson's words and actions were the budding nationalist leaders of four disparate non-Western societies: Egypt, India, China, and Korea. That spring, Wilson's words would help ignite political upheavals in all four of these countries. This book is the first to place the 1919 Revolution in Egypt, the Rowlatt Satyagraha in India, the May Fourth movement in China, and the March First uprising in Korea in the context of a broader Wilsonian moment that challenged the existing international order. Using primary source material from America, Europe, and Asia, historian Erez Manela tells the story of how emerging nationalist movements appropriated Wilsonian language and adapted it to their own local culture and politics as they launched into action on the international stage. The rapid disintegration of the Wilsonian promise left a legacy of disillusionment and facilitated the spread of revisionist ideologies and movements in these societies' future leaders of Third World liberation movements: Mao Zedong, Ho Chi Minh, and Jawaharlal Nehru, among others, were profoundly shaped by their experiences at the time. The importance of the Paris Peace Conference and Wilson's influence on international affairs far from the battlefields of Europe cannot be underestimated. Now, for the first time, we can clearly see just how the events played out at Versailles sparked a wave of nationalism that is still resonating globally today.

The Women's Awakening in Egypt Beth Baron, 1997-01-01 Between 1892 and 1920 nearly thirty Arabic periodicals by for and about women were produced in Egypt for circulation throughout the Arab world This flourishing women s press provided a forum for debating such topics as the rights of woman marriage and divorce and veiling and seclusion and also offered a mechanism for disseminating new ideologies and domestic instruction In this book Beth Baron presents the first sustained study of this remarkable material exploring the connections between literary culture and social transformation Starting with profiles of the female intellectuals who pioneered the women s press in Egypt the first generation of Arab women to write and publish extensively Baron traces the women s literary output from production to consumption She draws on new approaches in cultural history to examine the making of periodicals and to reconstruct their audience and she suggests that it is impossible to assess the influence of the Arabic press without comprehending the circumstances under which it operated Turning to specific issues argued in the pages of the women s press Baron finds that women s views ranged across a wide spectrum The debates are set in historical context with elaborations on the conditions of women s education and work Together with other sources the journals show significant changes in the activities of urban middle and upper class Egyptian women in the decades before the 1919 revolution and underscore the sense that real improvement in women s lives the women s awakening was at hand Baron s discussion of this extraordinary trove of materials highlights the voices of the female intellectuals who championed this awakening and broadens our understanding of the social and cultural history of the period

Decolonization, Sovereignty, and Peacekeeping Hanny Hilmy, 2020-09-29 This book analyses three major themes decolonization sovereignty and peacekeeping Their interaction during the national liberation struggle during the Cold War culminating in the 1956 Suez War addresses the principle of national sovereignty after World War II in the framework of the UN Charter The new peacekeeping operations were used in many conflicts during which the Charter s theory and application were tested The rise of the USA as the key Western power and Israel s special role in the Middle East have created a new confrontational dynamic for the entire region The interaction between the book s main themes in the field has led to the principles of peacekeeping in international and national conflicts being reviewed in light of the discredited Capstone Doctrine The author argues that state sovereignty is sacrosanct but humanitarian interventions are equally imperative in his view Striking the right balance is crucial for managing conflicts The author offers a well informed historical account and an authoritative political analysis was exposed to UNEF deployments and termination and knows key peacekeeping actors draws on original documents memoirs and interviews includes unpublished photos and previously unavailable documentary material has experience in government and academia
