The Brinks Job

Johnny Barnes

The Brinks Job:

A History of Heists Jerry Clark, Ed Palattella, 2015-07-09 No crime is as synonymous with America as bank robbery. Though the number of bank robberies nationwide has declined, bank robbery continues to captivate the public and jeopardize the safety of banks and their employees. In A History of Heists, Jerry Clark and Ed Palattella explore how bank robbers have influenced American culture as much as they have reflected it. Jesse James, Butch Cassidy, Bonnie and Clyde, John Dillinger, Willie Sutton, and Patty Hearst are among the most famous figures in the history of crime in the United States. Jesse James used his training as a Confederate guerrilla to make bank robbery a political act. John Dillinger capitalized on the public's scorn of banks during the Great Depression and became America's first Public Enemy Number One. When she held up a bank with the leftist Symbionese Liberation Army, Patty Hearst fueled the country's social unrest. Jerry Clark and Ed Palattella delve into the backgrounds and motivations of the robbers and explore how they are as complex as the nation whose banks they have plundered. But as much as the story of bank robbery in America focuses on the thieves, it is also a story of those who investigate the heists. As bank robbers became more sophisticated, so did the police: the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other law enforcement agencies. This captivating history shows how bank robbery shaped the modern FBI and how it continues to cultivate America's fascination with the noble outlaw bandits, seen rightly or wrongly as battling unjust authority.

Behind the Seams Deahdra, 2016-01-08 Behind the Seams tells the true story of a Hollywood costumer who worked in tinsel town during the golden era of television and film. Author Deahdra worked for many years on motion picture and TV studio lots as well as in other settings as she dressed some of the biggest stars of the era. Chapters are broken down by movie or television title, detailing activities both on and off the sets. Her fun, exciting, and often humorous experiences with famous actors could fill a book. First-time author Deahdra was motivated to share her memories of working as a Hollywood costumer by a friend and mentor who convinced her to write the stories for everyone, not just a log for her son. She says, "My intentions were to write about the various times that I was away from home, being the absentee mom and backing up the many photo albums taken over the years. I wanted him to know who these movie stars were and to let him know of the places I traveled." After my mentor convinced me to just tell my stories, he kept persisting and pushing me until completion. Without that push, these stories and photos may have been lost forever. Dreams do come true. From Birmingham, Alabama to Hollywood, California, Deahdra invites readers to share her fun-filled and exciting life in tinsel town. Her journey began as a native Southerner whose uncle Phillip nicknamed her Hollywood as a child. You can only imagine how special this made her feel since she was a red-headed, freckle-faced little girl with a giant space between her front teeth. As fate would have it, she eventually pursued a successful career in the entertainment capital of the world where her adventures truly begin. Come along and share these exciting times. Behind the Seams. I thought it was an appropriate name for my book as I was a costumer for many years in the motion picture and television industry, she says. You should have a few laughs as we go.
